WEATHER REPORT

A small disturbance is central over British Columbia. A large high press-ure area overlies the Atlantic states and another high pressure area, apparently of considerable strength, has made its appearance over northern Alberta. The appearance over northern Alberta barometer is relatively high off the north California coast. During the last 24 hours showers have occurred on the Pacific slope as far south as San Fran-cisco, and rain has fallen at widely iscattered places in Texas the middle Mississippi valley, and in the Atlantic states from Maine to Virginia. Unusu-ally low temperatures prevail in Orestates from Maine to Virginia. Unusu-ally low temperatures prevail in Ore-gon and Washington and a light frost occurred at Spokane. High winds pre-vailed yesterday in western Washing-ton, where the following maximum ve-locities occurred. North Head, 48 miles south: Tatoosh Island, 36 miles south; and Tacoma, 28 miles southwest. The indications are for showers to-
