BREW AND DANE TO MEET TONIGHT

Little Fighters Trained to Hour for 15-Round Ring Battle.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, March 31.—Trained to the hour and both confident of being returned the winner, Battling Nelson and Abe Attell clash for the second time tonight, and everything points to a sensational battle between the little fellows. Unusual interest in the match has been aroused, and the advance seat sale indicates a crowded house.

The fighters are resting today and until the going sends them on their way they will do nothing except a little light work to keep their muscles limbered up.

Contrary to expectations, Attell has not been made the favorite in the betting, even money being the price when the poolrooms opened this morning. In the 15-round bout the boys are scheduled to go Attell, on his superior cleverness and ring generalship, was figured to easily outpoint his clumsier opponent, but since Nelson has shown so well in training the wise bettors have conceded that Attell has quite a job on his hands.

The Dane has worked for speed and in his bouts with his sparring partners he has flashed enough to convince the skeptics that if Attell tries to make a runaway fight of it he will have to go his fastest.

Nelson is safely within the weight, which must be 135 pounds at 6 o'clock tonight. Attell, who has been trying to build up, will tip the beam at about 135, although he claims to be much lighter.

The selection of Eddie Smith as referee in place of Eddie Graney, who is prevented from acting on account of illness in his family, is satisfactory to both sides.

On their previous meeting Nelson and Attell fought a six-round, no-decision contest in Philadelphia, May 23, 1905. Matters were about even in that mill.

LIGHTWEIGHT SCRAPPER WHO MEETS ATTELL

Battling Nelson, the rugged lightweight, who will meet Abe Attell tonight. Nelson is said to be coming into his own again and critics look for the Dane to give the Hebrew one of the hardest fights of his career.

NORTHWEST GETS FAMOUS RUNNERS

Powerful California Stables Cut Out Eastern Tracks for Coast Circuit.

By J. S. A. MacDonald.
San Francisco, March 31.—The uncertain situation in the east is occasioning no end of worry to Pacific coast campaigners. A score or more owners who had intended making a try at the New York tracks will now go north to Seattle at the close of the Oakland meeting on June 20 and around the circuit to Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Butte and Vancouver, B. C.

The latest recruit to the northern circuit is the powerful Koenigsberg-Cahill stable. This establishment, headed by Mozart, Rose Queen, Smiley, Corbett and other top-raters, will cut out New York and make the north go with "Barney" Schriber, Ed Trotter and other owners.

"Al" Koenigsberg was a small string bookmaker earlier in the meeting, but an uncommon run of success in laying the odds netted him over $40,000 in two months' operation, according to market gossip. This money he is investing in a stable to be trained by the veteran horseman, "Billy" Cahill.

As outlined a fortnight ago, the Jockey club will eventually turn to the English system of "credit betting," with the metropolitan Turf association members in control of the speculation, as was the case before the "Mets" president, George Wheelock, became embroiled in a quarrel with John G. Carey, the ringmaster, resulting in the complete overthrow of the bookmakers' organization.

Incidentally the contemplated change in the system of turf speculation will prove a good thing for the trainer and the horse owner. They will become "professionals" more or less. A trainer, for instance, will establish a credit with the bookmakers. On request from his employer or his employer's friends he will make bets as directed. Mayhap the employer's acquaintance might be a man of millions and Al credit, but unless he wants to be the victim of keeping on deposit a credit margin of money with a bookmaker, he himself couldn't "bet on."

Incidentally the "trainer-commissioner" will be a mighty valuable adjunct. In England many of them are rich men through handling commissions. However, rather than enter the chaotic eastern field, it can be said the biggest and strongest stables here will make the Pacific coast circuit this summer.

CHAMPION FEATHER.

TOUR OF IRELAND MAY BE WHITE SOX PRESENT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, March 31.—Charles A. Comiskey, president of the White Sox baseball club, returned today from California, where he kept watch over his players during spring training on the coast. Comiskey is enthusiastic over the success of the journey and intimates strongly that the trip will be made a permanent feature of the spring work in future years.

The "Old Roman" states that in the event the White Sox win the pennant in the coming race, a tour of Ireland will likely be made.

QUARTER CHAMPION.

SHOW IN SOUTH.

Willamette-Demon, a peerless bred English bull terrier, with a pedigree long as your arm, which will be benched on the Pacific coast circuit during the summer. Jess C. Moore, owner of the dog, will take him south to California in a few days and he will be shown in succession at Oakland, San Francisco and Fresno.

WABASH MAY GET STONE.

Abbe Attell, premier fighter of his division, who goes out of his class to meet Battling Nelson tonight in San Francisco.

The company will handle the Pope Hartford, Buick, Thomas 40 and Mathison autos.
