WEATHER REPORT

The British Columbia disturbance has moved southeastward to Colorado and developed into a storm of decided character. The Alberta high pressure area is attended by a cold wave with zero temperatures at the northermost Canadian stations. The barometer continues relatively high off the north California coast and it is also relatively high in the Atlantic states. During the last 24 hours moderately heavy rain has fallen in southern Oregon, and rain, generally light, has occurred in the lower Missouri valley, the middle Mississippi valley, the Ohio valley, and the middle Atlantic states. Light to moderately heavy snow has fallen in Nevada, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, northern Utah and the Canadian northwest. Low temperatures continue on the Pacific slope and light frost occurred this morning as far south as Sacramento, California.

The indications are for generally fair weather in this district tonight and Wednesday, with light frosts tonight in western Oregon and western Washington and with freezing temperatures tonight east of the Cascade mountains.
