An effort is to be made to have the grade in Gladstone avenue restored to its former level and at a meeting of the Kenilworth Improvement club last evening a committee was appointed to take the question in hand. A. H. Richmond, of the street car company, asked the club members to use their influence to have Kenilworth avenue closed between Powell street and Francis avenue. The Brooklyn club is to combine with the Kenilworths and a house-cleaning date set in the near future when all rubbish will be cleared from the two suburbs.

Tomorrow afternoon being the regular literary meeting of the Unitarian Woman's alliance, Rev. Jenkins Lloyd Jones of Chicago will speak to the alliance upon Browning, poet and author, a scholarly student of Browning. Strangers are cordially invited to be present at this opportunity of listening to this talk upon Browning, poet and author, which will begin at 8:30 o'clock in the Unitarian chapel, corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets.

The police have been notified that some person has stolen from the premises at 264 1/2 Second street, a building occupied by the United Brethren mission, a sign bearing four gilt Chinese characters on a green ground. The characters signify Chinese word which is expressed by the English equivalent "Lost." The sign has been in the possession of the mission for 25 years and was much prized. An effort will be made by the police to recover the lost sign.

The Portland A.S. club will meet tomorrow in the board of trade rooms in the new Commercial club building, and will have a talk from Tom Richardson, who has just returned from a southern trip, visiting the admen of Los Angeles and Sacramento. S. T. Britten will speak on chewing gum advertising, and when he has concluded the members will "chew the rag."

The street car company is to improve the Rose City park line so that during the livestock show next summer it will be possible to handle 35,000 persons each day. This was reported at a meeting of the Rose City Improvement league last evening. At the next meeting of the club is to take up the discussion of a second pipeline to Bull Run.

Thomas McFarlan, a 15-year-old boy whose home was 165 Caruthers street, died at Coast Samaritan hospital last night the result of injuries received last Friday while working at the Multnomah Box factory. While trying to adjust a belt the young man was caught by the machinery and sustained a fracture of the skull before he could be rescued by fellow-employees.

Battalion Chiefs Stevens and Dowell who recently passed the city civil service examination for that position will be assigned to new battalion districts on the east side today. Dowell succeeds Lee Holden who recently resigned while Stevens will have charge of the new district created by the city a few months ago.

The Woman's Presbyterian society will hold an all-day session tomorrow at Westminster Presbyterian church, corner Weidner and East Tenth streets. This will be the annual meeting. Session begins at 10 a. m. and continues through the afternoon. The ladies of Forbes Presbyterian church will serve luncheon.

A thief broke into a tool cart belonging to the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company last night and stole a gasoline furnace and a watch receipt for testing electric currents of wires. The police have been asked to make an effort to recover the stolen articles.

Percy E. Blyth has begun suit in the circuit court against the Colonial Investment company, to foreclose a mortgage for $25,000 on the property of the Jernell road. He claims default of payment last September and asks for interest from that date, besides $2,500 attorney fee and $462 for taxes.

The East Side Business Men's club is to make every effort to have the street car company complete the work at the intersection of Grand avenue and East Morrison street before May 1st, that the parade of the flower show may pass through East Portland streets.

A sneak thief entered the room of Robert Haskins, 371 1/2 East Burnside street, yesterday afternoon and stole a watch valued at $35. The thief also appropriated an overcoat belonging to A. Kelley, the landlord of the house. This was reported to the police.

Work on the new steel bridge over Sullivan's gulch will start within a few days. Street cars will run along Grand avenue, using the Burnside and the steel bridges to cross the river. The 10 years' old wooden bridge is to be torn down.

The Oregon Humane society will meet this evening at 7:30 at the Unitarian church.

A great many people make the mistake of assuming that because Ivory Soap costs only a few cents a cake, it "isn't good enough to use for one's hands and face."

Why isn't it? Good materials properly combined, make good soap; and the materials used in the manufacture of Ivory Soap are the best.

COLE WILL SPEAK TO VOTERS AT GRESHAM

Candidate for District Attorney Nomination Is Gaining Big Lead.

A monster mass meeting has been planned by Republicans at Gresham tonight, at which James Cole, Republican candidate for district attorney, will speak. All arrangements have been made to make the meeting one of the largest ever held in the little city, and much enthusiasm prevails among the voters.

A special car bearing Cole and a party of friends will leave over the O. W. P. at First and Alder streets at 7:15 o'clock, and will bring the party home after the speechmaking.

Cole has been making a whirlwind of the rapid increase in his forces from day to day. He has been making a campaign this week, and as the election day approaches for the nomination he will increase his forces from day to day.

Many organizations have extended invitations to Cole to speak before them, and already his dates have been practically filled up to election day. Many young Republicans have rallied to Cole's support, and will deliver speeches in his behalf before the voters.

Cole's reception at the car barns on East Ankeny street yesterday by the thousands of voters was a hearty one, and assurances of individual support were given the young man by several hundred of the men after the meeting.

SWEATA WILL SWEAT WHILE IN JAIL

Sweata Veateco, an Austrian, who declares his occupation to be that of a railroad section-hand, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Price and Jones on a charge of larceny.

Veateco was arrested in shack in lower Albina. In his possession was found a quantity of goods and clothing that had been stolen from a hotel at First and Davis streets Sunday night.

Monday morning Mrs. S. Katscher, who conducts the Oregon hotel, reported to the police that a burglar had broken into the basement of the house and stolen a quantity of liquor and cigars.

The thief had then gone upstairs and ransacked four rooms, taking a large amount of wearing apparel. All of the articles stolen were found by the detectives yesterday in the shack when they placed Veateco under arrest.

The accused man will be given a preliminary hearing in the police court tomorrow.

AT THE THEATRES

"Burgomaster" at Hellig Tonight. The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow, will be the musical comedy, "The Burgomaster." This favorite offering has been pleasing hundreds of its old admirers and many new ones at the above theatre the past two nights.

"Burgomaster" Matinee Tomorrow. A special-price matinee will be given at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tomorrow, Wednesday afternoon, when the musical-comedy success, "The Burgomaster," will be the bill. Curtain at 2:15.

Seat Sale Mary Manning. Seats are now selling at box office the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for Mary Manning, the talented actress, who will present the delightful comedy, "Glorious Betsy," at the above theatre for three nights, beginning next Thursday night, April 2.

Marquam's Pictures. A collection of motion pictures such as has rarely been equaled, is being given daily at the Marquam theatre. There are four pictures and an illustrated ballad. The pictures are "The Frog," "The Vestal," "Animated Snowballs" and "The Old Theatre Trunk."

Catch Raffles. The mysterious and fascinating play of "Raffles" is being given by some of the largest audiences of the season at the Baker this week and George Alison is making a great hit by his clever acting of the little role of a gentleman thief. This is the first time here at popular Baker prices. Only matinee Saturday.

"Captain Impudence." The Allen Stock company is giving a brilliant performance of Edwin Milton Royle's beautiful play, "Captain Impudence" at the Lyric this week. Revelle Uruhart has made an individual hit in the title role. Tonight, moving pictures between acts.

Capture the Black Hand. At least on the stage, members of the "Black Hand" are captured by the authorities. The Lyric theatre this week deals with this mysterious association and it is considered the most exciting play that has been given by the stock company at popular prices. Matinee Thursday and Saturday.

Vaudeville Features. On the program at the Grand this week Sullivan & Considine are presenting a congress of excellent features. Maude Sutton & Co. in "Cinderella," a nautical playlet, is something new in vaudeville and there are many other innovations. That amusing musical comedian, Richey W. Gray, is on the bill as the special added feature.

MRS. BICKERTON DENIES STORIES

Declares She Did Not Say Sheriff Had Promised to Marry Her.

Mrs. Iona S. Bickerton, plaintiff in the contested divorce case that has whirled away the hours of Judge Bro-nough in the circuit court for several days, went on the witness stand yesterday afternoon in rebuttal to make a flying denial of the things her husband, Houghton C. Bickerton, had said during the time he was on the stand.

Bickerton had been in the witness chair for eight long hours and had told so many things that the mere contradiction of his statements made a long story.

Among the other things denied by Mrs. Bickerton was the statement that she told her husband two years ago that she would marry her, but did claim that she had accused her husband of tearing down campaign cars and horse the likeness of the present sheriff, then a candidate as he is now.

Attorney T. J. Cleton, who represents Bickerton, here arose for brief statement of his position on the Stevens question. He said that he did not claim that the sheriff told Mrs. Bickerton he would marry her, but did claim that the Stevens story was one of the many things Mrs. Bickerton told her husband in order to pester him.

If Tomorrow Is Pay Day, Here's a Mighty Good Hunch for You

Do you own any real estate in Portland? Did you ever own any real estate anywhere? Do you know what an independent feeling comes over a man who owns a desirable piece of land? To such a man there never comes the dependency which follows the losing of a "job." He knows he has something to "fall back on." If he is single, he holds to it with grit, trusting to the future to net him a handsome profit. If he is married, he looks forward to the time when he can build a nice little home for himself and his wife. All these things come to him who buys in

ROSE CITY PARK

If you will set aside $40 out of tomorrow's pay and make the first payment on a lot in Rose City Park and then $12 a month, you will have the lot paid for before you are aware of it. And, when it is paid for, you can easily borrow enough upon it to build a fine little home. Pretty good "hunch," isn't it?

By the way

We will be pleased to mail you a copy of our handsomely illustrated new booklet, showing some of the pretty homes of Rose City Park, if you will drop a line. Or, better still, call for it.
