SEALERS ATTEMPT TO DESERT THEIR SHIP
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Seattle, Wash., April 1—Swimming against a strong ebb tide, numb with the cold water of the bay and exhausted by an hour's struggle, Percy Burrus of London and Edward Baston of Michigan sailed on the Swedish ship Clan McFarland, were rescued from almost certain death by a boat from the revenue cutter Thela last night.

 Burrus and Baston shipped on the Clan McFarland in San Francisco to help work the vessel to Seattle or to Europe at the master's option. When the ship reached Seattle the men learned they would not be discharged as they expected and determined to make a dash for liberty. Last night the two men snatched the watchman, hastily constructed a small raft of odds and ends of planking and at an opportune moment slipped the raft over the side and dropped aboard it. The little raft proved too small to bear their weight and they were drowning when their cries brought assistance.

CLATSOP COUNTY COURT BUSINESS
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Astoria, Or., April 3.—The county court has directed that bids be called for to be presented on or before May 1 for clearing and grading to a width of 30 feet, the John Day road from the end of the present improvement near Tongue point to the John Day river, a distance of about three fourths of a mile. The court decided to appropriate $100 for the use of the promotion committee of the chamber of commerce for advertising purposes. This in connection with the $500 set aside for a state fair exhibit, makes a total of $1,500, the same as last year, that the county judge was authorized to procure money for the road between Warrenton and the sea shore, on a grand price of $12 per thousand delivered.
