AT THE THEATRES

Mary Mannering Tonight. The charming actress, Mary Mannering, supported by an excellent company of players, will present the delightful comedy, "Glorious Betsy," at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night. Special priced matinee tomorrow.

Sale for Mrs. Patrick Campbell. Seats are now selling at the box office of the Heilig theatre for the noted English actress, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, who will present "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" next Monday night, and "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbelthorn" on Tuesday night.

Marquam's Entertainment. The entertainment at the Marquam this week is a program of motion pictures and an illustrated ballad by Fred Bauer. The shows are continuous from 7 until 10 p. m., and the films are perfect. "The Frog," "The Vestal," "The Animated Snowballs" and "The Theatre Trunk" are new, and each is handsomely colored by hand.

Teddy Webb in "Fantana." Teddy Webb, the popular comedian, comes to the Marquam with the San Francisco opera company next Sunday in a production of "Fantana." This play is a sparkling musical comedy, which was a pronounced success when given by the company last autumn. Webb has one of the funniest parts, and is seen to advantage. Seats now on sale.

Mysterious "Raffles." George Allison is making an ideal "Raffles," the amateur crackman, at the Baker this week, and this powerful attraction has drawn the largest and most interested audience of the entire season all week. There will be but three more performances, tonight, tomorrow matinee and night.

Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown." Next week the Baker theatre will present one of Charles H. Hoyt's greatest musical comedies, "A Trip to Chinatown," and as this is the class of plays which have always broken all records at the Baker, the usual packed houses will no doubt be in evidence at every performance. Many new sensations in the way of clever specialties are promised.

Seats for Ibsen Matinees. Seats for either of the two Ibsen matinees to be given by the Baker stock company next Wednesday and Saturday afternoons should be secured at once, as the demand for them is exceeding all expectations. The announcement that only the regular matinee prices would be asked for these special events has met with the heartiest response from the public.

"Cinderel." There is something for young and old at the Grand this week. The program is composed of a variety of acts, embracing comedy, singing, dancing and novelty. Maude Sutton & Coin ("Cinderel") have one of the comedy gems of the year. Young Buffalo and his rifle have a star part on the program. The shooting of Young Buffalo is a surprising exhibition.

After "The Black Hand." The present attraction at the Star theatre is one which has met with a large patronage. "The Black Hand" is a modern and up to date story of a mysterious organization which has attracted the attention of the public from one end of the country to the other. The French Stock company has presented few plays which have met with more generous appreciation.

"A Texas Ranger." Commencing Sunday afternoon the play at the Star theatre for the coming week will be "The Texas Ranger." This
