There's a life on our hills that refreshes,
A grandeur that's pure and antique.
There womanhood shows all her blushes,
And men seem all noble and Greek.
The art of sweet nature there leaves us
To be real and manly and glad.
'Tis the contact of town life that grieves us,
And makes us both bitter and sad.

A view of the landscape, a breath of the Ozone and stock in yourself and everyone else goes up. On the Heights of Portland are found the homes of the view lovers.

This beautiful bungalow, 8 rooms, hardwood floors, beamed ceilings, every convenience known to modern architecture; corner, 100x100, view. We will sell this place with or without the furniture, at a very reasonable figure. Call at our office on the Heights.

These bungalows are among the most sightly on Portland Heights; 6 and 9' rooms, modern in every particular. See us at once; we will sell them very reasonable if taken at once.

There is more activity on the Heights than at any time in its history. We have sold more residence property the past 30 days than has been sold in any other section of the city.

John Ruskin said:
"If I had but two loaves of bread
I would sell one and buy
Lilies of the valley with which
To feed my soul."
Ruskin no doubt stood on an eminence similar to the Heights of Portland when he gave expression to that beautiful thought.
