Uncanny Insects. From National Geographic Magazine. The wonderful stick insects of Fiji, familiar in all home museums, are found on nearly every coconut tree. They are very ill smelling and squirt a fetid fluid at one's eyes if handled.

Leaf insects I never saw, except when the natives caught and brought them home, but all the guava bushes have them, although a white man's eye can seldom distinguish them from their shelter.

They are most miraculous and uncanny creatures, absolutely leaves endowed with the power of motion, so far as the most scrutinizing eye can see, for even their legs and heads are a precise copy of stalks and leaflets.

Spring Cleaning of the Idols. From the Calcutta Statesman. The festival of the Hindu Srinachami Puja has been recently brought to a close by the customary general immersion of images in the Ganges. From an early hour in the afternoon of the day the images of the goddess were carried out from the Bengali houses and some carried in procession along the main roads in the northern portion of the town to the river, where in accordance with the ceremonies they were immersed. Each idol is carried in two boats tied together, which separate in mid-stream, plunging it into the water.

Austrian Ice Ice Factory. From the Pathfinder. In Austria "ice sticks" are manufactured at a profit. A series of poles is arranged so that the water will fall slowly over each one in the series. Of course, the water in the winter time freezes, forming large

The PIANOLA PIANO

HOW many evenings are there when you feel the lack of "something to do"? Cards, books, ordinary diversions pall on you and your mind craves some new, some absorbing occupation.

You know that medical practitioners advise brain-workers to cultivate a hobby of some kind, and you wish that you had an aptitude for something that would engross your mind.

A Pianola Piano is just the thing for you

You can play it so well, and your improvement in playing will be so perceptible, that your interest will continually grow stronger.

If you never took part in helping to make music, you cannot realize how much music would mean to you.

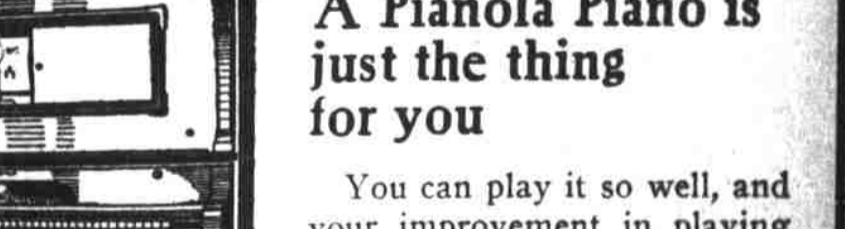

Once you sit at the Pianola Piano and experience the fascination of personally producing music, you will understand why thousands of the biggest, brainiest men of the world have become ardent enthusiasts about this instrument.

You will realize that life holds a pleasure for you you never dreamed of—that you have found the ideal occupation for your leisure time.

The genuine Pianola Piano is made only by the Aeolian Company. All other instruments lack the salient features like the Thermo-diat and Metrostyle, etc., which have made the Pianola Piano the most successful of all pianos.

It doesn't matter whether your musical taste is cultivated or uncultivated—this is a piano you can play and enjoy.
