Through an order made by the chief of police today a change was made in the office force at headquarters. C. T. Aiden, who has for a long time acted as clerk in the bureau of criminal investigation, has been assigned to a post in the north end of the city, reporting to Captain Bailey in the second night relief. Patrolman James Hunter is transferred from street to plain clothes duty, being assigned to the clerkship so long held by Aiden. Hunter is pursuing a course of study at the department and his promotion meets with general approval.

The program for the "At Home" of the Young Women's Christian association yesterday afternoon was rather unique and interesting. E. B. MacNaughton gave an illustrated lecture on "Architecture showing by means of a choice collection of slides the history and development of this science from earliest times. The musical program was as follows: Miss Ethel Douglas, "Hold Thou My Hand," "Palm Land Beyond the Sea," E. A. Easton, "Eternal Rest," "The Golden Pathway," Miss Lena Harwan, "Ave Maria," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Philip Fischer by his guardian, L. A. Brandes, has begun suit in the circuit court for $225 damages for injuries resulting from a collision with a delivery wagon of the Butterfat Bread company on March 11. The plaintiff is in the employ of the Brandes creamery as a delivery boy, and was riding his bicycle at Third and Salmon streets, when, as he claims, he was run down by the wagon. He asks $750 for his injuries, $50 for his wrecked bike and $55 to pay doctor bills.

Judge Wolverton this morning denied the application of Nobusaburo Hamaguchi, a Japanese, for a writ of habeas corpus. Hamaguchi was arrested some time ago by the immigration authorities for being in this country without having passed the usual inspection. His case was given a hearing by Judge J. H. Barbur, in charge of the immigration office in Portland, and Hamaguchi was ordered deported. The case was then taken to the United States court.

WARNING COMES FROM BONAPARTE

Advices Prospective Locators on Railroad Land Grant to Go Slow.

The following reply was received by G. M. Cornwall from Attorney-General Bonaparte, in response to a letter enclosing a clipping from an advertisement in Portland making the misleading statement that Bonaparte was sanctioning the filing on Oregon or California land grant lands. The letter from attorney-general expressly states that it "would be advisable not to make any expenditures on the lands by squatters, except upon the advice of competent and experienced counsel. The strenuous and glittering promises of the locator should be scanned pretty closely before people part with their money."

ADVANCE SALE FOR MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Seats are now selling at Sherman-Clark's music store, 342 and Morrison streets, for the annual spring musical festival to be given at the Armory, Tenth and Couch streets, next Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, April 10, 11 and 12, with afternoon concerts Saturday and Sunday.
