(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, April 6.—Portland yesterday lost both games of a double header to the Seals, the morning game at Oakland going by a 6 to 3 score.

Groom pitched the afternoon game before an admiring crowd of 13,000 fans. He had all the better of the argument up to the eighth inning, but in this inning the Seals scored their two runs and they proved enough to win.

Bloomfield pitched the first inning of the early morning session for the Seals but was very unsteady and gave way to Lakoff after the first.

STANFORD PREXY IS CALLED DOWN

Gordon Moores, Football Player at Oregon, Exposes Argumentative Sources.

Gordon B. Moores, captain of the university of Oregon football team last season and All-Northwest end, has taken issue with Dr. David Starr Jordan's article in the Pacific Monthly on football, in which the Stanford president urges the substitution of the Rugby, or English system, for the American style of game.

great university, but the impertinence of the act is moderated to a certain degree when the latter's discussion descends to the rudiments of football.

President Jordan's attack on American football should receive vociferous rebuttal from players and enthusiasts of the game.

In his article entitled "Football: Battle or Sport?" the president of Stanford compares the American game with Rugby, and by systematic processes of induction and deduction leaves little doubt in the minds of readers that our game is a battle and should be prohibited, while Rugby is a delightful sport and should supplant the American game in all the colleges of the country.

President Jordan has listed almost every criticism ever made against the American game, most of which have been eliminated by the new rules that have never been tried at Stanford.

According to the rules governing the tournament the holder of the championship shall not play, but shall defend his title if challenged by the winner.

1882—At London: Peter Johnson remained under water in a tank four minutes and 40 seconds.

secondary schools. How many serious injuries have been reported since the new rules have been in effect? In Rugby by this year two California players had legs broken. Such a football accident has not been recorded in the Southwest in years, so why should Rugby be so positively claimed as a safer game for high school players?

In closing a comparison of the two games by W. J. Bales, former coach at Harvard, seems appropriate:

Rugby is more simple, more easily learned, more open, more spectacular, but it is more of an individual game, has in it disturbing elements of chance; allows penalties to figure too largely in the score, and it does not afford opportunity for consistent advance or the exercise of much headwork on the field.

The American game is complex and diversified. It is educative; it is essentially a team game, a game of coordinated action directed by skillful strategy stimulated by a well-defined purpose and rewarded by a feeling of deserved and consistent accomplishment.

Office Open Till 7 p. m. All This Week Facts About Rawhide Lease

It is located on Bluff Claim (situated on the bluff), of 20 acres, and this was the first location in Rawhide, and on the West slope of Grutt Hill. This hill is already as famous in Rawhide as the Florence Hill is famous in Goldfield.

Five ledges traverse this property, two of which cross our lease. Five sets of leasers are working this lease, the locators not having the means to work it themselves.

Our lease contains 90,000 square feet of ground, runs for 18 months (the usual life of a lease is 12 months), and we pay the owners of the claim 20 per cent royalty. (The ordinary division is 25 per cent to the owners), and ten feet from the surface one of our ledges shows two feet of $35 ore to the ton of rock—unusually rich, and sure of improvement as depth is attained.

The block of ground we secured from the locators had been reserved for their own development, but our superintendent, Mr. Virtue, secured an option on the property prior to the making of the other leases, or we could not have had it at any figure. It actually has the best surface showing of any of the leases, but when Mr. Virtue arrived in Rawhide and made a deposit on the lease it was not thought by the finders that the balance of the ground would be so readily let out, and for this reason, and because the owners had not the money to go ahead, nor even enough to organize a company and put it on its feet, our superintendent secured the treasure.

And aside from these two splendid leases, we own 100 acres of the thick of producing mines of Goldfield, "AND IF EVER THERE WAS A COMPANY MINING FOR GOLD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH, HAVING NEXT TO ABSOLUTE ASSURANCE OF ENORMOUS PROFITS TO ITS HOLDERS, THIS IS THAT COMPANY." Its eggs are not all laid in one nest, but divided among three, so that any reasoning mind cannot be made to understand how it can be possible that our mines will not pay stupendous profits on every share.

We have been conservatively stating, or predicting, right along, that our stock will be in the 50-cent class in July or August. We now believe it will be higher—perhaps $1.00. We have urged that in January it is likely to sell at $2.00. We shall not be surprised to see it $4.00. We have told in these advertisements that, in our judgment, we would be paying dividends of 10 cents per share, perhaps as early as July, but at all events in August. We now think we can double that amount.

Think of This There scarcely is another company doing business on this continent that would sell shares as we are selling—three valuable properties consolidated into one—all our shares covering the two leases and our 100 acres. Other companies would have had three incorporations, and sold shares separately in each, and in each at rates as high as ours. We call attention to this, because the three properties, in our judgment, SIMPLY REMOVES ALL DOUBT of the value of our stock and the almost guaranteed returns it will make to its owners.

A Letter From Our Superintendent This morning, after the foregoing was written, a letter was received from Mr. Virtue, written at Rawhide, in which he says: "I arrived in Rawhide today, (April 3), and am getting down to business. Speaking honestly, this camp is looking good—better than any human being can picture it and not be on the ground. New strikes are being made on every hand. You remember the Mr. Kidd I introduced you to. His block of ground is on the Hoodium claim, west of ours. He has just struck a ledge of four or five inches that runs away up into the thousands per ton. Hay had an assay yesterday that showed $60, and it looks as if we have it all around us, and that this richness cannot get away from us if it tried.

Our Busy Day It is a fact that last Saturday there were times when buyers of shares were compelled to wait their turns, in order to be waited upon. One gentleman started in two weeks ago with a purchase of 1,000 shares. He has increased the number to 51,000. Another has increased his 1,000 to 20,000, and this is how sales are going now. But a short time more and we will close this sale. It may, indeed, come at any moment. If we are wired at any time that our miners have struck high grade in Goldfield, that moment we close our books.
