WILCOX GETS ABOARD FULTON'S BAND WAGON

Indorses Campaign Now Being Made for Senator's Reelection.

Theodore B. Wilcox has become one of the supporters of the Fulton campaign by indorsing Senator Fulton's candidacy for reelection. Mr. Wilcox was invited to preside at the Fulton meeting to be held at the armory the evening of April 16, but owing to his contemplated absence from the city was compelled to decline the invitation. At this meeting W. D. Wheelwright, Judge George H. Williams and Senator Fulton will speak.

In writing his letter of excuse to W. D. Wheelwright, chairman of the local Fulton campaign committee, he expressed his disappointment at not being able to be present at the meeting and advanced reasons why Senator Fulton should be given another term in the senate. At the same time Mr. Wilcox denied that he was a candidate for the senate.

ONE OF THE REGULAR OIL TANK STEAMERS VISITING PORTLAND.

American steamer Asuncion which left for San Francisco yesterday.

Of the fleet of tank steamers carrying oil to this city from California, the Asuncion is the most frequent visitor. Often she makes a fortnightly visit, and her last round trip would have been made in 10 days but for the fact that on her way north she was called upon to tow the steam schooner Hornet into port. The Hornet had lost her rudder and propeller in a storm off Point Reyes, California, and the Asuncion took her back to San Francisco and then started north for the second time. The Asuncion is in command of Captain Bridgitt.

filled by Senator Fulton, I am not now a candidate, but I most earnestly beseech the race to do everything in their power to assure the return of Senator Fulton.

TWO MEN IN A BOAT GO TO RESCUE OF VICTIM OF CANOE TIP-OVER

Bert Williamson, an employe of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, had a narrow escape from drowning last night when his canoe was overturned in the middle of the river opposite the Portland Rowing club. Williamson could swim but little and floundered in the water for nearly 20 minutes before George Rodgers, a friend, and the caretaker of the club pulled him out.

Williamson and Rodgers had gone out to the club to enjoy an evening on the water and while Rodgers was telephoning home that he would not be home to supper, Williamson thought he would try a short trip by himself. He was sitting well in the back of the canoe and his weight raised the front of the canoe out of the water. When he had reached a point about 100 yards from the club house he started to turn around to come back for Rodgers but lost his balance and turned over instead. Rodgers and the caretaker started as soon as they could get a boat into the water but when they finally got to him he was chilled to the bone and very nearly exhausted. A launch in which were two men reached the young man at the same time as did the boat and with their aid Williamson was lifted into the boat and taken to the club house.

Rodgers' coat containing his purse, a valuable watch and a bracelet intended as a birthday present for his mother luckily caught on the seat when the canoe went over and was still there when it was righted.

Williamson is a son of Arthur J. Williamson, a contractor, residing at 931 East Salmon. Rodgers is a son of George S. Rodgers and resides at Mount Tabor.

to the United States senate. "Paramount to all other issues before the people of Portland and Oregon, and of the great Columbia river basin, is the improvement of the Columbia river. "The completion of the north bank road will bring down the Columbia river a very large percentage of all the grain produced in Oregon, Washington and Idaho; but we must not for a moment forget that this can all be hauled past Portland to Puget sound, at a less cost to the railroads than they have ever before been able to deliver it on Puget sound. And, to prevent them from attaining success, the Columbia river must be improved to a point where we can handle the shipping as expeditiously and as economically as it is handled on Puget sound. "I think Senator Fulton has fully demonstrated his ability to secure this appropriation. It is simply a business proposition. We have in Senator Fulton a man who, after five years of diligent effort, has reached a commanding position. He has made good, and he
