PORTLAND GETS WALLOPED AGAIN

Seals Capture Fifth Straight Game From McCredie's Bunch of Tossers.

San Francisco, April 9.—A weird toss by Catcher Madden proved the Sailors' undoing today, and when the players and fans went home to tea and wafers Portland had been walloped for the fifth time by a score of 9 to 6. Portland was one run to the good and, with Williams on third, Melchoir on second and Mohler on first, Madden sent the ball sailing on what looked more like a home run hit than a throw to second, and all three men scored.

The score:

SQUEEZE PLAYS.

Lost again; be faithful.

* *

Sixteen assists were made by the northerners yesterday.

* *

The race recalls the memorable landslide of several years ago, when Portland lost the steenth straight game.

* *

Little Bassey came to the front with a three-bagger, and Dansig annexed three singles. Raftery missed his long hit, but got two short hits.

* *

Casey is one Beaver who is taking advantage of the opening games to fatten his batting average. Yesterday he touched Oscar Jones up for four pretty ones, one of which was a double-cushion swat, in five times up. In one of the previous games he got three out of five.

* *

Maybe it's Madden's sore fingers, but it looks like a case of bad nerves. A 10-foot heave over the middle station with three Seals on the bags and no outfielders in sight is mighty poor judgment. Madden lost the game and took the hearts out of his teammates.

* *

No matter how many scores the locals make, the Seals go them better. The fault does not lie in the hitting department, nor in the pitching department. Seemingly it rests with the receiving and baserunning ends. Fielding is fairly good.

ROLLER'S FRIENDS FEAR BIG M'LAGLEN

McDonald, Inglis and Lonnie Austin Think Tacoma Wrestler Will Be Rough.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, April 9.—Dr. Roller, elated over his victory over Ole Donnelson, the Terrible Swede, was around visiting his friends yesterday, and among other things the doctor dropped the remark that if he was successful in his coming match with Victor McLaglen at Portland he would cinch a match with Fred Beell, and then go after Frank Gotch for the championship, and there were many of Roller's friends who thought as the doctor did, that he had made a big mistake by taking on the match with McLaglen.

"What have you got to win?" said Tom McDonald of the Seattle Athletic club. "You don't get any credit to speak of for beating him, and if you lose you lose everything. It's true, McLaglen is liked around here, but he's as much of a fighter as a wrestler, and he has serious intentions of following the prize ring and not the mat. I dare say he's going to make a great fighter, for he shows that in his wrestling matches."

Billy Inglis thought the same as McDonald, and so did Lonnie Austin and others of Roller's friends who feel an interest in the physician's professional welfare. Roller himself appears a bit worried, and it is plain for anyone to see that if he had it to do over again he would not match with the sturdy McLaglen.

As soon as the stiffness has disappeared from his muscles Roller will resume his training for the Portland bout. He will pay particular attention to "sharpening" his wind, for he expects McLaglen to make a long, rough battle of it.

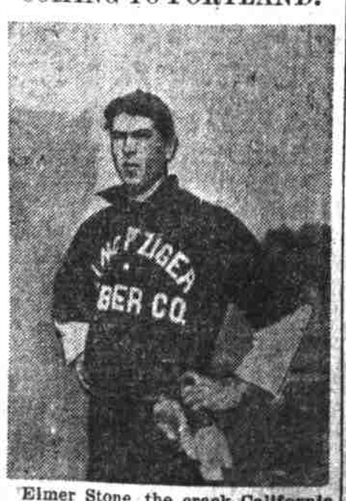
Quite a few local sports will go to Portland on the night of the match to see their favorite do his little stunt.

Canadian A. A. U. Meet.

Toronto, Ont., April 9.—A large field of entries, representing the cream of the amateur athletes of this section of the dominion, and to contest for honors in the three days' sporting carnival opening in the Arena in this city tonight. The affair, which promises to eclipse anything of its kind seen here in a long time, has been arranged by the Canadian A. A. U. and the proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the Canadian representatives to the Olympic meet in London this summer.

The program for the carnival comprises 18 events, apart from those of the junior meet to be held Saturday. Saturday afternoon Tom Longboat, the champion runner, is to be seen in a special three-mile race.

COMING TO PORTLAND.



Elmer Stone, the crack California pitcher, who is expected to come north and twirl for the Wabash Independents. Stone is pitching in the Southern Coast league at Los Angeles, and has performed creditably when pitted against some of the professional league slabsters who have wintered there.

W. J. VAN DAMME'S

Kidney Cure Tea

185 Morrison St., Next to Pay's Coffee House.

NEW TESTIMONIAL.

In the autumn of 1906 I was taken with a serious form of kidney trouble, passing both gall stones and bladder stones; had also a floating kidney. The doctors told me that I could not live without an operation. It was impossible for me to ride and I walked with the greatest pain. Mr. Van Damme urged me to try his kidney cure tea, telling me it saved his life. I tried it without much confidence, but about 25 bottles effected a perfect cure. It is nature's cure for kidney trouble and I believe a trial will convince the most skeptical. Health is of more value than money. I am now in good health. Prof. W. L. Strange, 66 North Sixth St., Portland, Oregon.

COLUMBIA TEAM SHOWS UP STRONG

West Side High School Easily Defeated on University Diamond.

Columbia university ball players demonstrated yesterday that they had all the class that was claimed for them when they defeated Coach Henderson's "Favorites" from West Side High school by a score of 10 to 4. Locke, Columbia's pitcher, pitched as fine a game as one could wish to see. He had good control, struck out 8 men and allowed but seven scattered hits, besides fielding his position perfectly with some very difficult chances to handle.

While Locke's work was a big factor in the victory the whole team deserves great credit for the way in which they played. Aside from a weird toss by Davis in the third inning the team fielded well. In the sixth inning they worked the squeeze play perfectly three times without a slip. All through the game they showed their ability in not making a mistake in judgment, whereas some of the "bone head" plays pulled off by the High school players were positively laughable.

High school played an awful game in the field, Jamison and Pugh, who played but two innings, being the only ones not to make errors. McKinley and Brace were the worst offenders, McKinley making five miscues, while Brace missed three flies in left field, every one of which counted in the run-getting. McAlpin starred in the error column also.

Gleason and McDonald starred in the field for Columbia. McDonald pulled in four flies, two of which were hard ones, while Gleason pulled in four high fouls. Dooley led at the bat with three hits.

EASTERN RACERS HERE NEXT JUNE

Portland Automobile Club Lays Out Course for Hundred-Mile Tests.

What promises to be the biggest road race ever held in the northwest will take place just outside of Portland during Rose Carnival week, and in addition to a coterie of eastern speed demons sent out by manufacturers, there will be some of the fastest drivers in California, Washington and Oregon entered in the contests. Rich prizes will be put on for the two races, one for professional drivers and the other for the amateurs. A committee will lay out the course tomorrow or Saturday, and the races will be for 100 miles.

It was definitely decided to hold the race at the meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night, at which time R. W. Inman was elected president of the club, to succeed Lewis Russell. The other officers are Lewis Russell, vice-president; Will Lipman, secretary, and Dr. C. B. Brown, treasurer. Lipman and Brown succeeded themselves.

There is an excellent course, covering a distance of 16 miles, that the committee has in mind for the races. With Montavville as the starting and finishing point, a 16 mile lap can be had by pursuing this route: Montavilla south about two miles to the Section Line road; thence on the Section line road to Gresham, at which point the cars will cross to the Twelve Mile house; two miles north, thence east on the Base Line road to the starting point at Montavilla.

Following the plan of the recent Savannah, Georgia, road races, the automobile club will ask Governor Chamberlain for full possession of the road for about four hours on the afternoon of one of the festival days. During that time no person will be allowed on the road, the racers having undisputed sway.

Arrangements will be made with the farmers in the vicinity to erect a grandstand near Montavilla, so that there will be some source of revenue for the club to reimburse it for its expense. The streetcar company will be asked to provide special cars to carry the crowds to Montavilla, where they will be dropped. A short walk will bring them to the grandstand, which will be placed at the starting point.

That the meeting will be a success there can be no doubt. The committee has received a score of inquiries from big eastern manufacturers relative to the race, and it is quite likely that they will send the fastest drivers in their employ. Owing to the fact that there will be but four sharp turns on the course, some exceptionally fast time is expected.

BEAN SENDS OREGON TEAM TO PORTLAND

ALASKAN DOGS END HARD OVERLAND RACE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Nome, Alaska, April 9.—The All-Alaska sweepstakes dog race ended this morning with Fink first, Berger second and Atkinson third. The time was four days and 23 hours. The race was from Nome to Candle and return, a distance of 412 miles. Each dog team was composed of eight animals.

The men and dogs endured terrible hardships. A blizzard was raging nearly the entire time and some of the men were badly frozen. One dog team was lost in the ice and Jensen, the driver, had a narrow escape from death, and was rescued when the fifth team overtook him. The race was for $500. Over $50,000 changed hands on the result.

DALLAS COLLEGE NOW UNDISPUTED CHAMPS

Dallas, Or., April 9.—Dallas college's basketball team cinched the Pacific coast championship by defeating the Snohomish, Washington, aggregation on the local floor last night by a score of 46 to 12.

This was the second of the championship series of three, Dallas winning the first at Snohomish a week ago. The Snohomish team was highly overrated, their work last night being a poor exhibition. The Dallas players secured 22 field baskets and Snohomish five. Dallas has now disbanded for the season. The boys lost but one game, that with the Muscatine, Iowa, team and end the year as the undisputed champions of the Pacific coast.

CADETS TO PLAY WITH SEATTLE HIGH SCHOOL

Hill Military Academy's baseball team, 13 strong, left for Seattle Tuesday, where the ywill play three games, one with both Washington and Lincoln high schools and one with the Seattle professionals. Lincoln and Washington have strong teams and expect to beat the Hill boys. The team will be back Sunday.

The following boys made the trip: Merchant, Shearer, Mays, Hughes, Huston, Hincks, McEwan, Holmes, Bratager, Thorne and Baker. Major von Egloffstein and Coach Seth Kerron chaperoned the bunch.
