

DAYLIGHT IS APPEARING

Since October 28th—the bank panic—this big store, like many others, has been in financial darkness. The strain has been terrific—the efforts put forth tremendous—to keep this big plant from striking the rocks of financial ruin—to save this store for Portland and its customers. The two banks we deal with have stood loyally by us—our thousands of customers have been generous in their patronage—and coteries of “Shylocks” who have been impatiently sitting around in a circle licking their chops, thinking each day that the next would surely give them the long-coveted opportunity to pick the bones of this grand store, are doomed to disappointment. We have nearly paid out 100 cents on the dollar, but we want

$7,500 THIS WEEK

And to get it quick and to celebrate the first glimpse of daylight we have had for five months, we will give remarkable bargain sales each day this week. Three weeks ago we sold to an outside dealer our entire remnant odd and end stocks of underwear, waists, hosiery, and cleaned it out—every scratch. We now open these departments and lines again with brand new, fresh stock—(guess some didn't expect this)—and to celebrate and advertise the fact they go on genuine bargain sale prices.

We Want $7,500 This Week

to clear the 100 cents on the dollar. People, it's up to you—we've done our part. Look at the offerings—right in the height of the season.

MANY WRESTLERS HEADED THIS WAY

Grappling Match Wednesday Draws Dozen Mat Artists to Portland.

With the Roller-McLaglen wrestling match on next Wednesday night, Portland is the objective point of no less than a dozen wrestlers of prominence in the northwest and eastern states. Out of the contingent it is expected that some good matches will result and that the Rose City will have a taste of classy grappling.

One of the first of the big fellows to show up is L. A. Grant, a 195-pound lump, who has plumed the shoulders of a number of big easterners to the mat. Grant dropped into town quietly the other day and has been hot on the trail of George Williams, the promoter of Wednesday night's match. He is a muscular chap and claims to have thrown Moxey, the champion of Sweden; Coleman; Jerry Sullivan at Butte, Gordon; Young Hackenschmidt and a large number of local champions whom he met while touring the eastern states.

He is one of the most persistent in getting on with Roller and says he would like to meet the Seattle physician about May 1. He will talk matters over with “Doc,” when the latter reaches Portland.

Arthur McLaglen, a brother of Victor, also wants a match with somebody. Then there is Dan Mullin, who will blow in in a few days from somewhere.

Dan has passed up Roller and wants to get on with “Strangler” Smith.

He comes breezily and has told his friends in Portland that he will throw the “Strangler” 10 times in an hour. Smith seems to have added a little to-basco to the bubbling pot in the last 10 days by his repeated efforts to get a match with Roller. So far Roller has side-stepped the local champ.

Some of Smith's friends think that Roller is instrumental in getting Mullin and a number of the other lighter men to come down here so that Smith will be smothered with challenges and the foky “Doc” will not be tormented on his arrival.

It is Roller first, last and all time with Smith however, and unless Roller refuses point blank to come through the others will get little satisfaction. Local sports are anxious to back Smith with his strangle hold against Roller's superior height and avoirdupois.

LONG SAYS PORTLAND IS WEAK BEHIND BAT

Seal Manager Believes McCredie Will Miss Donahue's Backstopping.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

San Francisco, April 9.—Danny Long was radiant with smiles this morning. Needless to ask the reason why. Grabbing five straight games as an eye-opener is enough to fill a manager's heart with glee. “It is rather early to do any boasting,” said Danny, “but barring any serious accidents, I think I have the winning team. The Seals will make a hot fight for the championship.”

Portland is 50 per cent stronger than it was last year. Portland's weakest spot is behind the bat. “I will miss Pat Donahue unless McCredie gets another catcher. But outside of the catching department Portland is a great deal stronger than it was last year, and yet we won all the games.”

“The Seals' daring work on the bases was a big factor in winning the games. In forming my team this year I made extra effort to sign players who were fast on their feet. A club of good baserunners and fast fielders will win more games than a club of sluggers who are slow on their feet.”

Benefit for Von Der Ahe.

St. Louis, April 9.—This was “Von Der Ahe Day” at Sportsman's Park. The baseball fans of St. Louis turned out in full force for the game between the Browns and the Cardinals. The entire proceeds of which are to be given to Chris Von der Ahe, the old-time baseball manager.

Von der Ahe, popularly known in the old days as “Der Boss President,” was the founder and owner of the original St. Louis Browns, who won four successive American association pennants and one world's championship. He was for years one of the most notable and picturesque personages identified with professional baseball. He disposed of his interest in the St. Louis club some years ago. His subsequent business ventures proved unprofitable and recently he has been overtaken by adversity.

WEDDINGS OF TWO LEBANON COUPLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Lebanon, Or., April 9.—Bert L. Catton and Miss Bertha McDaniel drove to Albany Monday afternoon and returned Mr. and Mrs. Catton. The marriage ceremony was performed at the Christian parsonage in Albany, by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Evans. The young people are well known in this community, both having spent the greater part of their lives in this place or vicinity. The bride is a daughter of James McDaniel. Mr. Catton is an enterprising young business man.

Sigurd Landstrom and Miss Jessie Raiston, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Raiston, were united in marriage early Sunday morning at the home of the Baptist minister in this city. These are very popular young people of Lebanon.

MORE PENSIONS FOR OREGON VETERANS

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)

Washington, April 9.—Hon. Willis C. Hawley of Oregon has been advised by the pension bureau that pension and increase of pension certificates have been issued as follows:

Willard Birchard, Salem, $15; Ezra B. Baird, Sheridan, $15; Charles Brommer, Beaverton, $15; John Byers, Junction City, $15; Richard R. Bettis, Philis City, $15; Patrick Burk, Roseburg, $15; Enoch S. Cole, North Yamhill, $20; Sadie G. Charles Lyons, $3; William A. Cartell, Ashland, $12; Charles G. Chamberlain, Meritt, $12; Timothy Corbett, Roseburg, $15; George H. Lowell, Willbur, $15; John L. Douglas, Jacksonville, $15; Robert S. Dunlap, Roseburg, $20; Woodford Dehart, Carlton, $15;

PORTLAND BY J. W. VOGAN, PRESIDENT OF THE MODERN CONFECTIONERY COMPANY OF THAT CITY, CHARGING MISAPPROPRIATION OF $74, WILL RETURN TO THAT CITY WITHOUT EXTRADITION PAPERS.

He claims his arrest is a piece of spitwork and that he can easily prove his innocence of the charge against him, which he says is the difference in a disputed account. He worked for several years for the firm that is bringing the charge against him, but recently left them and went to work for a rival firm. He says this is the animus of the suit.

When your face is dirty and grimy, you don't drink water to cleanse it. You wash your face with water and you keep your face clean by washing it with water.

Eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, barber's itch and like skin afflictions are similar to dirt and grime in that they are caused by parasitic germs upon the skin. These diseases cannot be cured by drinking medicine any more than you can cleanse your face by drinking water. Cleanse the skin of these germs by applying the remedy right where the trouble exists and the skin becomes white and smooth again.

Skidmore Drug Co., 151 Third Street, sells simple oil of wintergreen, propolis, vegetable remedies in D. D. D. Preserving the health and germ in the skin. This D. D. D. remedy is not a sticky concoction or a smearsy paste. It is a liquid external wash, as easy and simple to use as water. It is applied right where the itch and sore is. Used with D. D. D. Soap, it is bound to cure. The first application brings instant relief—you will know this the minute you apply the remedy—and the skin once cured, stays cured in nearly all cases. Get rid of that itch right now—today.
