(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Medford, Or., April 10.—Declaring that Roosevelt has not tied his hands in any way and that he is a free lance to act as he pleases and that he will act most aggressively, Francis J. Heney is speeding northward to Portland to publicly reply to the accusations made by Senator Fulton. Tomorrow night, Heney says, he will publicly present proofs of his charges of corruption against Oregon's senior senator. He has left the graft prosecutions at San Francisco in order to make good his accusations and reply to his detractors. The prosecutor was interviewed by The Journal correspondent when the train stopped here this morning enroute to Portland.

KENT ROBBERS ARE CAPTURED

Men Who Robbed Orillia Man and Fatally Shot Marshal Arrested by Posses.

Kent, Wash., April 10.—Four strangers suspected of complicity in the robbery of a citizen at Orillia and the fatal shooting of the city marshal, Harry Miller, of Kent, about 9 o'clock last night, were arrested this morning. Bloodhounds and posses of farmers, armed with rifles and pitchforks, were upon the trail all night and morning. Posses are continuing the manhunt and all avenues of escape are closely watched. Miller is still unconscious and the surgeons have little hope of his recovery. Kent town council met this morning and posted a reward of $500. Sheriff Smith, of King county, will offer $500 additional. About 3 o'clock last night Marshal Miller received word from Orillia that five men had held up and robbed Michael O'Brien in the streets of that town. Then they started in the direction of Kent. City Marshal Miller met the men near the stockyards in Kent. Marshal Miller called on the men to surrender. They answered with a fusillade of bullets, one of which struck Miller in the shoulder, paralyzing his gun hand, and two others entered his abdomen. Miller was fatally wounded. The marshal's assistant, Charles Guiber, shot at the men, who fled in the darkness. Miller to a nearby saloon for medical aid. Guiber then warned the town by ringing the firebell. Citizens turned out en masse, armed themselves with guns and pitchforks, and a strong posse at once started in pursuit.

VICTORY OF PEOPLE ASSURED

Governor Chamberlain Says to Take Position Antagonistic to Statement No. 1 Is Insult to Intelligence of Voters of Oregon.

Fight Against Government of, by and for the People Waged Solely by Old Machine Politicians—Public Will Win.

"Statement No. 1 will win at the primaries by an overwhelming vote," declared Governor Chamberlain this morning, when asked his opinion as to the attitude of the voters on this question. "It is an insult to the intelligence of the people to take a position antagonistic to the principle embodied in Statement No. 1. If it be admitted for a moment and for the sake of argument that the voter is not intelligent enough to decide as to the qualifications of the numerous candidates for the legislature, it must be conceded that he is intelligent enough to decide as to the qualifications of two men who may be candidates for United States senator. Statement No. 1," continued the governor, "practically leaves the selection of United States senator to the people and compels those legislators who have signed the statement to carry out the wishes of the people as expressed at the polls. One remarkable feature of the fight against Statement No. 1 is that the old machine politicians, those who are in place and those who want place, are lined up against it. The masses of the people, who hold no political place, do not ask for any and would not take it if offered, are for Statement No. 1 and insist upon their right to choose whom they will for United States senator. The principle will undoubtedly prevail in the primaries, for it is supported by the agricultural classes, the laboring people and the business men." Governor Chamberlain expressed the opinion that the Journal's estimate of the result of the primaries, indicating that a decisive majority of the Republican legislative nominees will be pledged to Statement No. 1, was a very conservative forecast of the outcome.

SEVEN YEARS PAIN CHINAMAN'S REWARD FOR SAVING TRAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, April 10.—Seven years of pain and an agonizing death followed the heroic act of Wong Chung Sue, a Chinese ranchman, who that long ago saved the lives of scores of passengers by throwing a switch that had been left open on the line of the Southern Pacific railway. Wong died at the county hospital, where he for seven years had lain flat on his back praying for death and his misery. The Celestial had a ranch on one of the southern branches of the railroad. One day he came upon a switch that had been left open by revengeful tramps. He worked with the heavy iron, but it resisted his efforts to turn it. He clung to the rod until an approaching passenger train was almost upon him and then moved the lever, causing the rail to swing into place just as the train hit it. The Chinaman fell forward and a step of one of the coaches struck him, breaking his spine. Wong was found hours afterward by a section gang and hurried to the county hospital here, where he was placed in a heavy plaster cast and in this he remained for the rest of his life.

Vote for No Legislative Candidate Who Fails to Sign This Pledge:

Do you believe that the people of Oregon are intelligent enough to elect a United States senator? Do you wish to have a vote yourself in the election of the senator? If so, do not vote for any legislative candidate who has not subscribed to Statement No. 1. This is the pledge which ensures to the people the right to elect the senator. "I further state to the people of Oregon, as well as to the people of my legislative district, that during my term of office I will always vote for that candidate for United States senator in congress who has received the highest number of the people's votes for that position at the general election next preceding the election of a senator in congress, without regard to my individual preference."

MISS HELEN GOULD'S INSTITUTIONS VICTIMS OF "TROUBLES OF THE RICH"

One may imagine from the strenuous efforts made by the rich men of the east to raise money to save their interests how keenly the money panic was felt here. Harriman's helping hand to the Erie railroad was an example of how a great corporation can be embarrassed for the want of a few million dollars.

The Gould family, despite their immense holdings, have felt the "troubles of the rich." Miss Helen Gould has been compelled to close two of her favorite charitable institutions, Woody Crest and the Lyndhurst club and industrial school. The picture shows a reproduction of Miss Gould and a cut of Woody Crest.

TRACK MAGNATE LOSES HIS WIFE

Mrs. Lee Blasingame Divorced From Man Whose Tastes Did Not Suit Her.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, April 10.—On the grounds of cruelty and an additional complaint that the tastes of her husband are so widely different from hers that they cannot live happily together, Mrs. Blasingame has been granted a divorce from Lee A. Blasingame, millionaire and known along the Pacific coast as the owner of race horses and the finest stock ranch in the west, located near Presidio. According to the terms of the decree, which was granted yesterday by Judge Ellsworth in Oakland, where Mrs. Blasingame is living with her mother, she is given the custody of the two minor children and $200 a month alimony to run for 20 months. At the expiration of this time the allowance is to be decreased to $200. The property interests involved were settled out of court. In his will Blasingame agrees to bequeath at least $5,000 to the children and gives Mrs. Blasingame all the household furniture in the Fortieth street home. Blasingame did not contest the suit.

GEORGE GOULD LOSES FIGHT

Millionaire Realizes He Cannot Prevent Sister From Marrying Prince.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, April 10.—Prince Helle De Sagan and Mme. Gould will be married in France in the early part of June, say friends who know something about the love affair of the couple. As proof of the approaching wedding these same friends point to the fact that the prince and Mme. Gould dined in public in the St. Regis hotel last night and that the Tyler Moroses, who have taken such interest in the matter of matching them, were in attendance. It is reported that no announcement of the engagement will be made in this country and that no one will know anything about the wedding ceremony until it is all over. It is further reported that George Gould has decided not to throw any more obstacles in the way of his sister and the prince and that he has been discouraged from trying to curtail her income or divide her share of the $15,000,000 Jay Gould estate by her announcement that she would fight such an attempt in court.

MRS. VANDERBILT WANTS BIG SUM

When Multi-Millionaire's Wife Is Given Divorce She May Get $10,000,000.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, April 10.—Now that Alfred G. Vanderbilt has agreed to the granting of a divorce to his wife, the only important questions that remain unsettled involve their child, the amount of money Mrs. Vanderbilt will demand from her millionaire husband and the disposition of the Vanderbilt home and furnishings. According to a statement made by a man who is looking after Vanderbilt's interests, the latter will not contest a suit by his wife, but he will offer objection to any attempt to keep their child from being educated at his direction. Mrs. Vanderbilt has rejected a proposition that she be given $1,500,000 based upon the value of stocks at the market value two years ago. One report is that she will ultimately receive from her husband an amount somewhere between $1,000,000 and $10,000,000. David McClure, who was appointed referee in the case, has submitted to Judge O'Gorman his report, which, it is said, favors a divorce.

NINETY-POUND RAILS ON MOUNTAIN GRADE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., April 10.—Forty-seven cars of 90-pound steel rails have just been received for distribution on the O. R. & N. between Kamela and Huron, the heaviest mountain grade on the entire system. This is new steel from the Pittsburg mills and will take the place of the 55-pound rails which have been in use on the mountain for four years. When the gap between Huron and Kamela is replaced with 90-pound steel the entire mountain grade will then be laid with the heavy rails. Several work trains are now distributing the rails, and a large force will be laying it next month. The mountain grade will then be ballasted with Grand Ronde river gravel and it will be one of the finest sections of roadbed in the northwest.

RESUME WORK ON TILLAMOOK ROAD

Construction of Pacific Railway & Navigation Line Starts Again May 1.

Construction work on the Pacific Railway & Navigation company road between Hillsboro and Tillamook is to be resumed about May 1. Work on the line, about 20 miles of which has already been built out to Hillsboro, was stopped last fall for the winter. The line now extends to the hills near Buxton and where much heavy work will necessarily be done this summer to get the line over the ridge. The line is being built from both ends, construction having been started at Hillsboro and at Tillamook. McCabe Brothers are the contractors having the work in hand near Buxton and the Portland Bridge & Building company are doing the work out of Tillamook. About 70 miles of track remain to be laid after the grading is done, and the work will be pushed until the lines are completed. Three large gangs of men will be put to work.

Property Mix-Up. On the charge of unlawfully holding possession of premises on North Sixth street, A. H. Limbeck and George Spencer are on trial in Judge Gantenbein's department of the circuit court. The offense charged is a misdemeanor.

FALLS DOWN ELEVATOR SHAFT TO HIS DEATH

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, April 10.—Losing his footing while inspecting work on the seventh floor of the Phelan building, under construction on Market street, Charles Hovey, superintendent of construction, fell down an elevator shaft today and was instantly killed. Workmen who saw his body turn over and over as it was plunging downward are unable to say how the accident occurred, but it is supposed that in some way he lost his balance as he was stepping from an elevator. Hovey lived in Alameda.

GIRL HELD PRISONER BECAUSE HER SPOUSE OFFENDED VILLAGERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Dublin, April 10.—Mrs. Robert Flynn, a three weeks' bride, is being kept prisoner in her father's house at Ballinacorney, county Leitrim, after she had been kidnaped on her wedding day by a band of night riders, because Flynn refused to marry the girl the village of Ballinacorney thought he should wed. Mrs. Flynn has seen her husband only once since her wedding, and then the interview took place under surveillance. The young lady will be detained in her prison until Easter Sunday, when she will be allowed to go to her husband's home. To prevent her escape her father's house is guarded day and night by the villagers, who add to the bride's agony by blowing horns throughout the evening to prevent her sleeping. The ire of the village against the couple was roused because Flynn jilted another girl. The night riders abducted Mrs. Flynn immediately after the marriage and commanded her father to take her in. The father dared not refuse, fearing violence.

BAR DEPTH AVERAGES 35 FEET

Battleships Would Experience No Trouble in Maneuvering at Mouth of Columbia—Only 400 Feet Where Depth Is Less.

Captain Patterson Willing to Take Soundings to Prove Contentions—Little Dredging on "Hog's Back" Would Clear Stream.

With the exception of about 350 or 400 feet, the Columbia river bar has a depth of from 30 to 40 feet at low water, according to Captain W. H. Patterson, one of the best posted pilots of the Columbia and Willamette rivers. He says the "hog's back" of sand that crosses the channel has enough water to permit any of the battleships to maneuver over it with perfect safety. "By dredging this short bar, less than the length of a good sized tramp steamer, the bar could be given a depth of 30 feet," said Captain Patterson this morning, "and I am willing to take soundings and prove my contention if anyone doubts the statement."

As an illustration of the condition of the bar at the mouth of the Columbia, Captain Patterson cites the case of the oil tank steamer "Rosecrans" which crossed in after dark Tuesday night without the aid of a pilot and drawing 23 feet. She came in four hours after high water or very near to low water. Captain Patterson met the "Rosecrans" at 8 o'clock and piloted her to the "hog's back." He says Captain Holmes told him he had no difficulty whatever in coming in over the bar that night and considered himself perfectly safe although the tide was not in his favor by any means.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN MAY 20

Representative Mann of Illinois Expects Special Rules to Expedite Work.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, April 10.—Representative Mann of Illinois who more than anyone is in the confidence of the speaker, stated today that he expects to see congress adjourn about May 20, provided a rule is brought in to expedite the disposition of bills which have been to conference. He pointed to the fact that a motion to suspend the rules and place the Indian appropriation bill on its immediate passage, made yesterday by Representative Sherman, had failed and that if the majority took advantage of their full rights they could easily force the house to spend two months considering the senate amendments to this bill. He said that their political fences need tending to and are eager to get away and for that reason more emergency rules are expected.

Blatterly. Sixteen-page magazine and usual attractive features. The Sunday Journal is growing in popular favor. Next Sunday's Journal. Don't miss it.
