

THE LAST week preceding Holy week has been very quiet except for the informal entertaining of the Easter brides. There have been many of these small affairs to keep the younger people entertained. The season immediately following Lent promises to be more than usually gay. The Easter Monday tea will open the festivities and the Easter weddings following will keep up the spirit of gaiety.

The annual Easter Monday tea given by the Old Ladies' Home society at the Hobart-Curtis promises to eclipse former events of the kind. It is the one charity affair that always draws the most exclusive society of Portland and it is usually one of the most brilliant events of the post-Lenten season. As usual Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has charge of the musical program and some interesting numbers are promised by some of Portland's best talent. The program committee will consist of Mrs. P. J. Mann, president of the society, and Miss Edith Nicholson, vice-president, and the assisting hostesses will be Mrs. J. J. H. Allen, Mrs. H. J. Corbett, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, Mrs. D. F. Thompson, Mrs. H. S. Gilie, Mrs. Martha Smith, Mrs. James M. Collins, Mrs. H. C. Eckemberger, Mrs. H. J. Pittcock, Mrs. Robert Livingston, Miss Henrietta Felling and Miss Abbie L. Atwood. Mrs. J. J. H. Allen will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Charles E. Curry, Mrs. John Eben Young, Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mrs. Joseph N. Toal, assisting in the program, will be Mrs. J. J. H. Allen, Mrs. H. J. Corbett, Mrs. H. S. Gilie, Mrs. Martha Smith, Mrs. James M. Collins, Mrs. H. C. Eckemberger, Mrs. H. J. Pittcock, Mrs. Robert Livingston, Miss Henrietta Felling and Miss Abbie L. Atwood.

The cards are out for the wedding of Miss Laura Gale Dunne and John Ker, Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne. Miss Lucile Dunne is to be the maid of honor and Miss Ethel Shea will be the other attendant and will sing. Frank Dunne of San Francisco will be the best man. Miss Dunne is to be the honor guest at several affairs "this" week. Mrs. Harry Humphrey will give a bridge for her Monday evening, and Mrs. George Barker (Miss Semple Grant) will give a luncheon at the Portland Tuesday, and immediately after Miss Delta Watson will entertain at cards for her. Miss Ethel Shea entertained with a bridge afternoon and a plate shower Thursday. Miss Ditchburn and Miss Howell won the card prizes. The guests were Miss Delta Watson, Mrs. George Barker, Miss Maud Howard, Miss Wiley, Mrs. Harry Humphrey, Miss Anne Ditchburn, Mrs. Otto Prall, Miss Lucile Dunne, Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. William Holbrook, Miss Anne Shea and Mrs. S. C. Spencer.

Miss Edwina Mastick, whose wedding takes place Tuesday of next week, has been entertained prettily the past week. Tuesday Mrs. Claire Richards gave a luncheon of six covers for her. Wednesday Miss Marie Smith, who is also to be a bride next week, gave a luncheon for her, entertaining Miss Evelyn Bell, Miss Alda Broughton, Miss Maud Mastick, Mrs. Charles E. Stolte, Miss Anna Lawler and Mrs. T. M. Patterson. Thursday afternoon Misses Kina and Marie McKelvey gave a shower for her and the afternoon was spent playing the five hundred. Miss Frances Dayton won the prize. The guests were Miss Wilma Fiske, Miss Florence Dayton, Miss Frances Dayton, Mrs. Charles E. Stolte, Miss Zola Hitchcock, Miss Lucia King, Miss Rita Bernard, Miss Frances Batcher, Miss Evelyn Bell, Mrs. T. M. Patterson, the Misses Maud and Cara Mastick. Yesterday Mrs. Henry Frank entertained for her at the Hobart-Curtis.

The cards are out for the wedding of Miss Lacey Stuart Johnson of Washington, D. C., and Preston Williamson Smith of Portland. The ceremony will be celebrated at St. John's church in Washington, Wednesday, April 22. Miss Johnson is a member of an old Virginia family who live at their country home, Broadview, just outside of Washington, on the Virginia side. Mr. Smith's father was one of the old pioneers of the west and his mother a member of an old southern family. Mrs. Preston Smith expects to go east for the wedding. Miss Smith will bring her bride immediately to Oregon to make their home.

The Holy saw fashionably gowned suitcases twice last week for Mrs. Patrick Campbell's engagement. The second night, when she changed her bill, she was no smaller or less brilliant an audience than the first. There were several small parties and they were entertained at the night later. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ayer entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson the second night. The guests were, besides Miss Kinsey, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Alice Samsbury, Miss Fanny Brown and Miss Lela Shibley.

The Misses Felling will leave this week to visit with their sister, Mrs. H. C. Cabell and Major Cabell, in St. Paul. They will go to New York and will be through the spring and early summer.

by with wild current blossoms, and the dining-room with jonquils. Miss Judith Scott and Ambrose Scott won the prizes at cards. Supper was served in the dining-room, where the table was pretty with yellow jonquils and candelabra with yellow shades.

Mrs. John Scott entertained in the afternoon. Mrs. F. H. Alliston entertained yesterday afternoon and Arnold Rothwell last evening, at his apartments on Thurman street. This week there will be some one entertaining for her every day.

Lieutenant and Mrs. A. J. Davis, of the Ninth cavalry, who went to the Philippines last May, will return to America late in June. Lieutenant Davis has been ordered to report for duty at Vancouver. Mrs. Davis will go to Atchison, Kansas, to spend most of the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Ingalls, who has spent the winter in Kansas City and will open her home,
