HENEY SAYS THERE'S MORE SHOT IN HIS LOCKER FOR SENATOR FULTON AT TONIGHT'S MEETING

LATTER MAKES READY FOR COUNTER ATTACK

Expects to Refute Charges—Wheelwright Will Make Introductory Speech at Armory—Landfrauds' Prosecutor Says He Has Now Arranged His Affidavits

Francis J. Heney will pay additional respects to Senator Charles W. Fulton at the Centenary Methodist church, East Ninth and Pine streets, tonight in an address on the subject of "A Crisis in Oregon's Moral Life, or Why It Should not Reelect Charles W. Fulton to the United States Senate." In his address the speaker will make still more pointed his allusions to the record of Oregon's senior senator and will back up his statements with fresh documentary evidence dealing with the senator's political life and methods.

Beiseged on all hands by callers and telephone messages on Saturday Mr. Heney had no time to segregate the mass of Democrats dealing with Oregon political history, which he has in his possession and for that reason his address at the Exposition rink dealt with matters which he had treated in his two previous anti-Fulton meetings some time ago.

PROMINENT WOMEN WHO PLAYED PART IN NAMING OF ENGLAND'S CABINET

APPOINTMENTS MADE PUBLIC

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, April 12.—Official announcement was made last night of the new cabinet appointments and they are identical with the forecast made by the Daily Chronicle in dispatches, as follows: Herbert Asquith, premier and first lord of the treasury; David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer; Lord Tweedmouth, president of the council; Earl of Crews, secretary of state for the colonies; Reginald McKenna, first lord of the admiralty; Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade; Walter Runciman, president of the board of education; John Morley, secretary of state for India; and Sir Henry Fowler, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, have been made peers, but retain their present offices.

Two women who were powers in framing English politics. The upper picture is of Mrs. H. H. Asquith and daughter. Her husband succeeded Campbell-Bannerman as premier. The lower picture is that of Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, formerly Miss Jerome of New York, who was the political adviser of ex-Premier Balfour.

PEOPLE VS. MACHINE IS THE FIGHT

Statement No. 1 Will Be Attacked by Politicians Who Are Lining Up Their Forces to Prevent Victory.

Effort to Force German Voters Into Line Not Very Cheerfully Received—"The Interests" Oppose the Masses.

Machine politicians and heeled back of the slate of the Hodson-Beach-Bailey Reed combination are bending strenuous efforts to get out the vote for primary day in order to put every available ounce of effort back of the ticket.

Alarmed at the unexpected springing in favor of Statement No. 1, which crystallized in the petition of a large number of prominent business and professional men, brought out the full ticket pledged to Statement No. 1, the workers in the Hodson camp are working like beavers to "line up" their forces for the final stand Friday next.

SPRINKLERS OUT IF SUN SHINES

Wet Wagon Boss Keeps Eye on Weather, and Expects Rain.

To sprinkle or not to sprinkle is the question that confronts Alex Donaldson, superintendent of the street cleaning department, these bright summer days when the dust flies high. Hundreds of people want the streets sprinkled and do not understand why the city has not started the work. These people do not realize that to change the department over from a street cleaning department to a sprinkling department means a large waste of time, which in turn means a lot of money spent for transporting the services.

OREGON FREED OF MACHINE SHACKLES BY STATEMENT NO. 1

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 13.—What Mr. Heney said of Statement No. 1 in his speech here yesterday was not fully reported by the morning newspapers. His words were: "You don't appreciate what you have in the direct primary law and Statement No. 1. That law has broken the shackles from you and if you don't get good men in office you have nobody to blame but yourselves. "Four primary law is the best statute

DEMOCRATS OF LANE FORM BRYAN CLUB

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., April 13.—The Lane County Bryan club was formed here Saturday with over 50 members. The officers are: President, L. R. Edmunsen; first vice-president, H. A. Cox; second vice-president, B. H. Veatch; third vice-president, C. P. Houston; fourth vice-president, Charles W. Evans; secretary, L. M. Traylor; corresponding secretary, M. S. Wallis; treasurer, J. D. Matlock.

INSPECTION OF BALLOTS BEGUN

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, April 13.—The selection of a jury to open the ballot-boxes and recount the ballots cast at the mayoralty election in 1905 was begun today, before Supreme Justice Lambert. It is expected that the jury will be completed by Wednesday, when the boxes will be opened and each ballot inspected.

HUGHES TO CALL OUT MILITIA TO PUT END TO TRACK GAMBLING

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, April 13.—Governor Hughes, according to information received from Albany, is preparing for a coup at the opening of the racing season in this state, which takes place at Aqueduct on Wednesday. Angered at the refusal of the legislature to kill racetrack gambling, the governor is reported to be bent on repressive measures of the sternest kind.

Vote for No Legislative Candidate Who Fails to Sign This Pledge:

Do you believe that the people of Oregon are intelligent enough to elect a United States senator? Do you wish to have a vote yourself in the election of the senator? If so, do not vote for any legislative candidate who has not subscribed to Statement No. 1. This is the pledge which ensures to the people the right to elect the senator.
