C. O. Strong pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny before Judge Gantenbein in the circuit court yesterday afternoon and tomorrow morning was committed to the county jail. District Attorney Adams recommended leniency because of the youth of the defendant. Strong is charged with stealing nearly $500 from the street car of Ora C. Baker at 1020 East Sixteenth street.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the saloon at 7 North Second street. Prompt arrival of the fire department prevented the spread of the flames, damage being confined to the bar fixtures and a portion of the floor. The total loss is estimated at $300.

MURPHY LEFT HOME AND WIFE ANXIOUS
Mrs. David A. Murphy, who resides at 347 Bellwood street, has asked the police to assist her in finding her husband. Mr. Murphy left home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, saying he was going to the St. Charles hotel to meet some men in connection with a business transaction. He has not since been seen by any member of his family and his wife expresses a fear that he has met with foul play. Inquiries made at various places about town where Murphy is known have failed to elicit any information that might lead to a clue to his movements or his present whereabouts.

A New Departure
The cost of internments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company. It has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, has departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charge for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except long distance and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.

Members of the street committee of the city council yesterday voted down a proposition offered by Councilman Vaughn to establish a gravel pit in Piedmont. The councilmen have had considerable to say because of contractors mining gravel in various parts of the city, and all the members of the committee save Vaughn, voted themselves in opposition to his proposal.

An attempt was made last night to force an entrance to the saloon at 306 Russell street by twisting the lock from the rear door. The thieves were unsuccessful and departed without getting inside the place. The matter was reported to the police.

ELECTION TENTS GO DOWN BEFORE WIND
New Polling Places Necessary in Four Portland Precincts.
High winds that prevailed last night blew down four of the tenthouse polling booths and increased the cares of County Clerk Fields this morning. In each case provision had to be made for a new polling place in buildings near the site of the demolished tents.
