The Journal Has a Larger Proved, Sworn-to, Paid-for Circulation in Portland and Within Sixty Miles of Portland, All Directions, and Throughout the State of Oregon Than Any Other Daily Paper—No Exceptions. Circulation Records and Records of Cash Receipts Open to the Inspection of All Advertisers

Thousands of Bargains
Advertised by Portland Merchants in the Sunday Journal Tomorrow. Read Them.

The weather—Showers and cooler tonight. Sunday showers.

Oregon Daily Journal

JOURNAL CIRCULATION YESTERDAY WAS 29,125

VOL. VII. NO. 36. PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 18, 1908.—TWO SECTIONS—TWENTY PAGES. PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS, FIVE CENTS

STATEMENT NUMBER ONE IS VICTORIOUS WITH CAKE IN LEAD FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

NEXT LEGISLATURE PLEDGED TO ELECT SENATOR CHOSEN BY PEOPLE

STATEMENT CANDIDATES FORM LARGE MAJORITY

Only One "Anti" Elected in Multnomah County—Machine Politics Receives Severe Setback, Losing All Over State. County Ticket Returns Do Not Make Any Changes in Early Forecast.

Oregon's next legislature will be pledged uncomprisingly to elect as United States senator the man whom the people designate as their choice in the June election. The vote in yesterday's primaries for Statement No. 1 candidates for the legislature was an overwhelming expression of the determination of the voters that their will shall be obeyed and that they, not the bosses, shall choose the senator.

While in a number of counties no Statement No. 1 candidates were put forward before the primaries, the temper of the voters has been so plainly shown that preparations are already under way to nominate such candidates by petition, and it is expected that fully two thirds of the legislators elected in June will be pledged to vote for the people's choice.

In Multnomah county the vote for the Statement 1 ticket assumed the proportions of a landslide. Apparently the only anti-statement candidate nominated on the Republican ticket is C. N. McArthur, for joint representative from Multnomah and Clackamas, whose personal popularity in this county, together with the fact that his opponent was little known, turned the scale in his favor.

Even the friends of Ben Selling, the leader of the Statement No. 1 fight in this county, did not expect to see the phenomenal vote polled for him that was shown. The strong support given to the other members of the Statement 1 ticket in Multnomah county also is taken to mean that the people have entered their protest against the effort of the old line bosses to secure control of the politics of the county. It is also a protest against the reversion of the senatorial battles to the old style system of barter and sale.

The One Exception.

Throughout the state also as fast as the reports come in it is indicated that the sentiment of the people is the same. Wherever there has been a candidate pledged to Statement No. 1, with the exception of Washington county, that candidate has been given the nomination either to the house or the senate. The result shows that the people throughout the state have lined up solidly for and against the power of the voter to rule in the selection of United States senators.

Jumping from the legislative to the district and county tickets in Multnomah county, George J. Cameron has secured the nomination for district attorney after a hard fight, with James Cole running a close second.

On the county ticket W. L. Lightner for county commissioner, is far in the lead and will have the nomination without doubt. He was running against D. V. Hart and T. J. Kreuder

Robert L. Stevens received the full party vote for the nomination for sheriff as did F. S. Fields for county clerk, John M. Lewis for treasurer, B. F. Robinson for county school superintendent, and Philo Holbrook for county surveyor.

The contest between B. D. Sigler and A. G. Rushlight for assessor was a hard one but Sigler has won the nomination by a good margin.

The fight for the nomination for con-

(Continued on Page Two.)

H. M. Cake, Who Has Won the Nomination for Republican Candidate for United States Senator.

CAKE LEADS FOR SENATOR

State Returns Indicate His Nomination. Fulton Strong in Home County. Aitchison Wins for Railroad Commissioner, Second District.

Returns from the state are coming in slowly but they seem to indicate the nomination of Cake for senator and Ellis and Hawley for congress. Many outside precincts will not be heard from until late tonight and the final figures may be changed. Fulton made a fine run in Clatsop as was expected, and in Clackamas Cake forged ahead rapidly in every precinct, piling up good majorities to offset some of his losses elsewhere.

Multnomah will give Cake 1,700 majority, but he is holding a good lead all along the line and if eastern Oregon comes to his support he will surely be nominated.

All counties report a quiet election with moderate vote. The senatorial fight was the center of interest.

For railroad commissioner, Second district, Aitchison leads. The figures at noon were:

Aitchison	960
Loucks	515
Hurlburt	482

The following reports from the various counties were compiled by Journal correspondents:

Linn Wants Cake.

Albany, April 18.—United States senator, Cake 559, Fulton 430; railroad comissioner, Campbell 413, Carter 402, Robertson 77; legislative, Republican, Belts 414, Blanchard 343, Brown 508, Freeman 339, Porter 438, Simpson 320, Upmeyer 414.

At Fulton's Home.

Astoria, April 19.—Cake 184, Fulton 1,093, Ellis 406, Geer 412, Shepherd 198; for railroad commissioner, Aitchison 285, Gaston 148, Hamilton 105, Hurlburt 166, Loucks 296, Whiting 78; for state representative, Tongue 902, Burke 220, Leinenweber 494, McCue 598, Robinson 307, Welch 488.

No Democratic vote.

Douglas for Cake.

Roseburg, April 18.—Douglas county returns are as follows: Cake 929, Ful-

(Continued on Page Two.)

RETURNS FROM THE COUNTIES SHOWING HOW CAKE GAINED

H. M. Cake has carried the state in the senatorial struggle by a majority over Fulton that will probably exceed 2,000 votes. In Multnomah county Cake's majority is considered sufficient to overcome any danger of such a surprise as occurred two years ago, when the victory was snatched from his grasp nearly a week after the primaries were past, by belated returns from interior counties. Sixty precincts in Multnomah give Cake 14,194, Fulton 12,825. Outside of this county it was almost a neck and neck race.

Fulton carried his own county, Clatsop, by an overwhelming majority, receiving nearly nine times the vote given to Cake, but in Multnomah the Astorian met his Waterloo. Cake's majority in this county appears to have been decisive of the result. Marion and Clackamas also gave substantial majorities for Cake, indicating that the speeches made by F. J. Heney had a strong influence on the voters. Baker, Columbia, Douglas, Linn and Union counties all gave majorities for Cake. Benton, Gilliam, Klamath, Lane, Malheur, Morrow, Polk, Sherman and Wheeler were Fulton counties.

Incomplete returns from counties outside of Multnomah give Cake 9,173, Fulton 9,314, as follows:

	Cake.	Fulton.
Baker	416	302
Benton	260	296
Clackamas	1121	732
Clatsop	184	1093
Columbia	251	211
Crook	248	291
Douglas	929	784
Gilliam	111	148
Klamath	227	461
Lane	730	987
Linn	559	430
Malheur	203	223
Marion	1456	1043
Morrow	142	282
Polk	337	397
Sherman	221	241
Umatilla	718	658
Union	760	426
Wheeler	78	207

FULTON BELIEVES HE IS DEFEATED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Astoria, Or., April 18.—Senator Fulton says that he has had no definite information about the election only meagre returns. "What the final figures will show I cannot state, but it looks as if I had lost out. If such shall prove to be the case I will cheerfully accept the verdict of the people. I will submit a statement later."

TOBACCO TRUST IS ABOUT TO DISSOLVE TO AVOID TROUBLE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Richmond, Va., April 18.—Frightened by the evidence gather against it by the government and rather than face the trial in New York on May 19, before the United States circuit court, the American Tobacco company, according to a story current here today, is about to dissolve.

The dissolution of the $350,000,000 combine was practically admitted today by officials of the company who would not allow their names to be mentioned in connection with their admissions.

This step, it is said, has been decided upon on the advice of the attorneys for the trust in Washington, who are of the opinion that the company will be liable anyway to forcible dissolution by the federal government, under the Sherman anti-trust law.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN Automobiles
READ
The Sunday Journal Tomorrow
Automobile News of the World Special, in a section devoted exclusively to automobiles. First automobile section ever published by a Portland paper. Phone your orders today—Main 7173, or Home A 6051.

NO MONEY CAN BUY A REMARRIAGE

Archbishop Ryan of New York Positively Refuses to Sanction Wrong Doings of Helen Maloney, Daughter of Oil Magnate.

Great Blow to Family When They Hear Decision of the Church. Consider Wayward Woman Wife of Clarkson.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Philadelphia, April 18.—Pretty Helen Maloney, principal in two elopements and two marriages and daughter of Martin Maloney, oil magnate and millionaire, has lost in her efforts to have the Catholic church sanction her remarriage to Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman. Archbishop Ryan in announcing today the attitude the church has taken in the matter, declared that what the millions of Henry VIII had failed to accomplish the millions of Martin Maloney could not do. Concerning Miss Maloney's first elopement and marriage to Herbert Osborne, a New York stock broker, the archbishop declared that if a wedding ceremony was performed in that case no power, not even that of the pope, could bring about a further marriage ceremony which would be sanctioned by the church.

Miss Maloney is 22 years old and strikingly beautiful. With her vivaciousness and sunny temperament, she was a favorite with the younger society set. It was on December 28, 1905, that she eloped with and was married to Herbert Osborne, then a student at Princeton. Being out of blanks, a justice scribbled something on a piece of paper and pronounced them man and wife. Immediately afterward they both declared that the marriage was a joke. They say the marriage was never consummated and a hearing is on now to have it annulled. Last October, Miss Maloney eloped to Canada with Samuel Clarkson, who had asked for the young woman's hand before she ran away with Osborne.

They were wed in Montreal and left for London. Then followed an exciting chase on the part of Martin Maloney, father of the bride, to locate her. Finally he found his daughter and Clarkson on the continent. Clarkson returned to his haunts in London and the girl came back to America. At first Osborne refused to consent to an annulment, but at length announced that he would not stand in the young woman's path to happiness.

But the greatest blow to the Maloney family is the determination of the Catholic church not to sanction a remarriage of Clarkson and Miss Maloney in the church. However, Miss Maloney's attorney said today that whether or not her marriage to Osborne was a joke, the Maloney family consider her the wife of Clarkson.

THUGS THROW VICTIM ON RAILROAD TRACK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, April 18.—Charles W. Anderson was found dying on the railroad tracks in the Chicago yards today. It is believed that he was sandbagged and robbed and his body thrown on the track to cover up the evidence of the crime and make it appear that he had been accidentally killed by an engine.

Five Men Crushed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, April 18.—Five men were crushed, one probably fatally, by the fall of an iron beam at the Troy Laundry Machine works.

Remarkable Run of Ben Selling

Ben Selling, Who Made a Splendid Run for State Senate.

Ben Selling, the leader of the Statement No. 1 legislative ticket in Multnomah county, has carried the county by a phenomenal vote. What makes the victory the more remarkable is the fact that all during the campaign Senator Selling has distributed no election cards, made no effort to get a vote for himself personally, but has followed his usual trend of business life. His vote shows that he has led the Republican ticket in Multnomah county by a substantial plurality, distancing his nearest competitor by a large margin.

Mr. Selling is one of the best known business men of Portland and has always stood high in the estimation of his fellow citizens as a man of strict integrity and high purpose. His fight for Statement No. 1, as the leader of the legislative ticket pledged to that principle, is responsible in large part for the sweeping victory in this county for that ticket in the face of the strenuous opposition of the Hodson-Beach-Bailey-Reed machine.

MRS. VANDERBILT TO GET DIVORCE

Reported Referee Will Recommend Payment of Five Million Alimony.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

New York, April 18.—It is reported that Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt has won her suit for absolute divorce. The referee's report is to be filed Monday recommending the granting of an interlocutory decree and $5,000,000 alimony, according to the best authority.

MURRAY WILL TAKE RIDGELY'S POSITION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, April 18.—The president today sent to the senate the nomination of Lawrence O. Murray of New York to be comptroller of the currency, vice William Ridgely of Illinois, resigned.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK PENNSYLVANIA FLYER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, April 18.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck the Pennsylvania New York-Chicago flyer near Warsaw, Indiana, this morning. The trainwreckers placed heavy iron bars on the track, and the passenger would surely have been wrecked had it hit them. A freight was running a few minutes ahead of the flyer and hit the obstruction. The train was running at slow speed and little damage was done.

DURRANT'S SISTER A NEW STAR

Maud Allen, Who Has Been Electrifying London, Said to Be Relative of the Man Who Killed Blanche Lamont.

Young Woman Said to Be Most Beautiful. Created Great Furor When She Appeared on European Stage.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 18.—A story published here today stating that Maud Allen, the sensational dancer, who has electrified London, is none other than Maud Durrant, sister of the vilest murderer in California's history, Theodore Durrant, created a stir among the young woman's schoolday friends, who had practically forgotten the girl whose blood ties brought her into such unenviable notoriety 13 years ago, then a mere slip of a miss.

At the time of her brother's trial for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams, the girl's name was fouled, but all of the vile accusations to which she was subjected have since proven unfounded.

When Durrant was hanged his sister was in Europe studying music. Inasmuch as her parents were poor, her father being a shoemaker, it was reported that the girl's expenses were being paid by a millionaire, since deceased, but her parents denied this, saying she was paying her own expenses by selling a patent corset.

As a musician and singer she did not succeed and she took up dancing. Then came success and today she is the favorite pet of London. Miss Allen's greatest hit is in the "Dance of the Seven Veils." When she strips herself of the veils, her body upward from her waist hidden solely by a stringwork of jewels, she reaches the climax of the sensational dance from "Salome," but she has eliminated the passionate tone imparted to it by other dancers.

DEBS CAUSES WAR AT CHICAGO SCHOOL

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 18.—A split in the faculty and ranks of the students of Chicago university is threatened by a prospective address by Eugene V. Debs before the political economy class next month. Debs' particular offense in the eyes of those opposed to him, is his advocacy of the expropriation of John D. Rockefeller, who has made the university possible, and other millionaires. Fifteen hundred students have indicated their intention of hearing the lecture, the subject of which will be "Socialism and Universities."

The affair has caused much criticism of the divinity department, the large number of students who have apparently taken sides with Debs, indicating increases in the ranks of the agnostics and Socialists in the university.

FATHER SHOOTS SON; MYSTERY IN CASE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

St. Louis, April 18.—Efforts are being made today to clear away the mystery that surrounds the shooting of Edgar R. Smythe, former member of the house of delegates, by his father, Charles E. Smythe, in the latter's home last night.

After his arrest the father declared that he fired in self-defense, while the son said it was an accident. Further than this no information can be obtained from either man, and there was no one else in the house at the time.

HENEY REFUSES TO DISCUSS ELECTION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 18.—Francis J. Heney today refused to make a statement on the possible defeat of Senator Fulton at the primary election in Oregon on Friday.

"Before I make any statement on the outcome of the fight against Senator Fulton I want time to arrange my ideas in definite form. This election is of vital importance and to speak of it before I am fully advised of all the facts might put the cause of the primary election in jeopardy."

The Contest Is Over

Turn to The Oregon Sunday Journal tomorrow and read something besides election returns, although tomorrow's issue will have the complete returns up to 3 a. m. But then think of the Magazine section! It will be a sure winner.

Genius who lives in a tent—How the simple life helped Charles McEvoy to write a play.

Short story—His duty to his Emperor.

Easter flowers through the year that are popular only a day.

The egg of Easter and its many myths.

Revival of the Sport of Archery—Learn how to shoot straight with bow and arrow.

Umatilla Indians and their Schools—Progress of the redmen.

The picture story of the Resurrection—Beautifully illustrated.

Comic section with all the very best "funnies" that are offered by leading artists. Two pages for boys and girls. Spring styles for young women. Two leased wires and all the news worth printing.

Ask for The Oregon Sunday Journal