PORTLAND WILL SEE MANY STARS

Track Teams of Note Here for Championships During Rose Carnival.

Portland will see the greatest number of athletes gathered together in its history on the last day of the Rose Festival, June 8, when the Pacific northwest championships will be held on Multnomah field. It is believed that there will be nearly 500 athletes in attendance from all parts of California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, including relay teams from every high school and grammar school in the state.

It was decided this morning to attach two more relay races to the meet, one for the high schools of the state and the other for the grammar schools. The Multnomah track is a five-lane affair, and the teams will be made up of five men. The open event, for colleges and athletic club events, will also be relay races, but the teams will be composed of four men.

SOME APRIL DREAM TELEGRAMS OF OCTOBER

To Clark Griffith, New York.—How foolish you were to let me get away. I would have won it for you just as easy.—James McGraw, Boston.

To John McGraw, St. Louis.—Not enough to do to keep warm. We won only 147 games and will fight for longer seasons next year.—Frank Chance, Chicago.

To M. J. Cantillon, Washington.—Our spring training trips are the cause of these things coming out way so regularly. Next spring we go to the African coast at a cost of $7,000,000.—Charles Comiskey, Chicago.

To Ben Johnson, Chicago.—When you know you're not forgotten by the bugs you can't forget. Just dodged a case of pop.—Umpire William Evans.

To Napoleon Lajoie, Cleveland.—Didn't I tell you Ty Cobb would win another flag? His salary next season will be $5,851,323.13.

To John McGraw, New York.—How does it look to you to see us up here? Come over. Best presentation of the Borough hall, Coney Island and the chair factory to Jordan and Lumley.—Patrick Donovan, Brooklyn.

To Patrick Donovan, Brooklyn.—It takes me only two seasons to accomplish what others never could do in lifetime. I was always like that.—William Murray, Philadelphia.

To Connie Mack, Philadelphia.—We have been your fan for many years. I believe we have won it.—Napoleon Lajoie, Cleveland.

To Hugh Jennings, Detroit.—If I can turn his trick so many times with one Rube, where would I be if I had two?—James McAleer, St. Louis.

To James McAleer, St. Louis.—You thought you had your foot on our neck when we turned over that Waddell fellow, didn't you? We will win it again in 1908.—Connie Mack, Philadelphia.

To Frank Chance, Chicago.—Sorry you didn't win the pennant, as the Highlanders do meet with you. You can't keep the world's championship.—Clark Griffith, New York.

To the Sporting Series.—Guess all of you had heads a-rolling when you were after knocking us so many years.—John McGraw, St. Louis.

To Messrs. Pullman, Pullman, Johnson and all the Umpires on Earth.—You can't keep a good man down.—John McGraw, New York.

WAGNER RELENTS TO HELP BASEBALL GAME

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Pittsburg, Pa., April 18.—Hans Wagner, shortstop for the Pittsburg Baseball club, and reputed to be the best all-around player in baseball, has attached his name to a Pittsburg contract and left for Cincinnati to join the team.

Until last night Wagner swore he would not play baseball this year. Then he weakened and signed after a three hour conference with Harry Pullman, president of the National League. Pullman told Wagner that his continued absence from the game was hurting not only the chances of the Pittsburg team, but was hurting the game all over the circuit.

Unhols Reaches Frisco.

San Francisco, April 18.—Rudolph Unholz, the boxer, arrived this morning, and some time today will sign articles to meet Battling Nelson in a 45 round bout at Colma.

PUT TO THE TEST

Portland People Appreciate a Good Thing.
Everybody has their hour of trouble. But people having any itching of the skin.

Have many hours of trouble. Nothing so annoying. Nothing so irritating. Scratch it, it becomes worse. Leave it alone and you can hardly stand the misery.

Itchiness comes in many forms. Eczema and horrid itching piles. Relief and cure are here at last. Portland has put it to the test. Doan's Ointment cures every form of itchiness of the skin.

People at home are learning that this is so. Here is a proof in a citizen's statement:
Jacob Heasong, farmer, living at the corner of East Twenty-eighth street and Kelly avenue, Portland, Oregon, says: "I can only repeat the statement I made some three years ago. I had suffered from this trouble for some years, and in hot weather it was a great worry to me. I could not sleep at night. Other preparations having given me little or no relief, I finally began using Doan's Ointment, and it required only a few applications to bring soothing and healing relief. The facts above stated are as told them just after my first trial of the remedy. I think just as much of the preparation today."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McBurg Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Champion Cub Becomes a Thespian

Frank L. Chance, "corking" first baseman, manager and captain of the world's champion Chicago Cubs; who will take to the stage.

Oh, no, it doesn't mean that the great first baseman will desert the diamond for the footlights. He will not give up the worship of the fans for that of the matinee girl.

Here's what it does mean: He will bait the villain in the summer. He will bait the villain in the winter. And not in a burlesque or monologue in which he will tell "how he did it."

But he will have the leading role in a real comedy written by George Ade and Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago National League team.

Trying to Break Auto Record.

San Francisco, April 18.—Confident that he can break the San Francisco-Los Angeles automobile record, H. O. Harrison left San Francisco in his machine at 1:15 this morning. He expects to arrive in Los Angeles at 9 o'clock this evening, cutting about one hour from the present record, which is 18 hours and 12 minutes. Harrison passed through San Jose long before daylight. DAN KELLY TRAINING UNDER BERNIE WEFERS

New York, April 18.—Now that Dan Kelly, former Oregon sprinter, has signed application for membership in the New York Athletic club, it will bring him under the wing of Bernie Wefers, holder of one of the records Kelly is supposed to have tied. It is no secret that Wefers does not believe that Oregon sprinter ever ran 220 yards in 21.15 seconds.

Four bases were stolen off the Portland backstop in yesterday's game. The Beavers themselves didn't catch a base.

PORTLAND BLANKED BY ONE DOLLY GRAY

Umpire Perrine Fires Dillon Off Field for Kicking at Decision.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Los Angeles, April 18.—With Gray pitching masterful ball and the men behind him working like a well-regulated clock, Los Angeles look revenge for a whitewashing administered by Portland several days ago and applied a coat of equal thickness in yesterday's matinee.

Garrett, who was sent on the firing line by McCredie, was easy for the Angels, he being touched up for 10 safe swats. Welsh made two bad errors, missing a centerfield throw and heaving the sphere past second base.

Umpire Perrine threw Dillon to the bench for kicking at a decision at first base, when McCredie was called safe on a double play that was attempted by Delmas and Dillon.

The last indoor athletic event of the season will take place Monday night at Ladd's hall, seventeenth and Thurman streets, when several tug of war contests and wrestling bouts will be pulled off.

What promises to be the most interesting event of the evening will be a pulling match between two picked teams, the anchor-men, of which are T. B. Bligh and Ed Nelson.

The officers of the association are Gus Jacobson, president; T. G. Bligh, vice-president; and L. C. Stonberg, treasurer. A. W. Hawkinson is referee, and the judges are Oscar Dahlgren and Mat Gerde. "Strangler" Smith will referee the wrestling matches, and the Police Gazette rules will govern.
