CRACK BOXERS FOR MULTNOMAH TOURNEY

ATHLETES DROP IN FOR TOURNEY

Olympic Club Cracks Here Ready to Step Into the Squared Circle.

Boxers and wrestlers are arriving in town for the big championship tournament conducted by the Multnomah club Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

Two crack mitt men from the Olympic club reached the Rose City last night in the persons of Lawrence Granfield and Eddie Dennis. Parser, the Olympic grappler, is expected to drop in tonight. They are accompanied by N. J. Prendergast, chairman of the indoor athletic committee of the bay city club.

Venables, who will represent Seattle in the 155-pound wrestling class, came down from Seattle yesterday morning and is putting in his time working out in the gymnasium.

It is expected that the other athletes will reach town tomorrow to rest up a day before the bouts.

GANS IS IN TRAINING FOR UNHOLZ BATTLE

Dusky Scrapper Announces He Will Fight No One but Rudolph.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 21.—Joe Gans went into training today at Shamo's villa in Marlin county for his 20-round fight with Boer Unholz on May 11. Before starting for his training quarters the negro champion announced that under no circumstances would he permit himself to be stolen away from Promoter Gleason and that he would fight no one until he had had his out with Unholz.

Gans likes money and if the proper inducements are offered it would not take him long to jump the job, as did Nelson and Unholz. In fact, it would not be at all surprising if he decided to throw over the fight with Unholz and take up Nelson's offer of a $5,000 side bet for a 45-round affair.

Gans has stated that while he thinks 30 rounds is far enough for one day's milking, he will, in fact, the longer route demanded by Nelson if offered the proper inducements.

ASHLAND TEAM WINS A 15-INNING CONTEST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Ashland, Or., April 21.—Ashland and Central Point played 15 innings here Sunday before Ashland finally won out. Three scores coming as a result of three errors, a single and a double gave Ashland the game, 10 to 7.

Wicks and Panky both pitched good games in the contest. Panky counted the same would probably have been called by darkness. Errors at critical times lost out for Central Point.

Line-up was as follows:

Ashland	Central Point
Davidson	Sanderson
Wick	Panky
Wicks	Wicks
Howell	Nash
Logan	Ross
Holman	Holman
Bayles	Ferra
Crocker	C. Clark
Robertson	A. Clark

SULLIVAN TROUBLED MAKING LIGHT WEIGHT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 21.—Doubts are being expressed as to Tommy Sullivan's ability to make 128 pounds four hours before the fight in his battle with Abe Attell on April 30.

Sullivan is hovering around the 128 mark, which, if he were not a big little man, would not be a big problem. On the part of his handlers, but it is long since the Brooklynite has made weight for a fight and being much over the natural conclusion is that he has "set" and that to get down to 123 will necessitate heroic treatment up to the time he is pitched into the ring. The scales, a process that would undoubtedly tell on him when he jumps into the ring.

Trainers insist that he will be able to make the weight and be strong, but trainers have a habit of saying such things regardless.

ONE BERNARD WANTS TO LICK KID ERVIN

Harry Bernard of Kent, California, who says he is a fighter, blew into town this morning and immediately trailed Kid Ervin to his lair.

Harry wants to fight the Kid for any sum up to $1,500, which, he says, he will deposit with any responsible business man where for any amount he said down in Marysville, state of California, and says the referee handed him a juicy bunch by declaring a foul when he had the Oregonian blinched.

Now he is after Erv-e-evening and wants it within the next three weeks.

"I'll fight him any time, any place and under any conditions," he said. "I'll fight him four rounds or 171 fight him 40. I'll fight him in St. Johns or I'll fight him in The Dalles. I want to lick Kid Ervin."

SQUEEZE PLAYS.

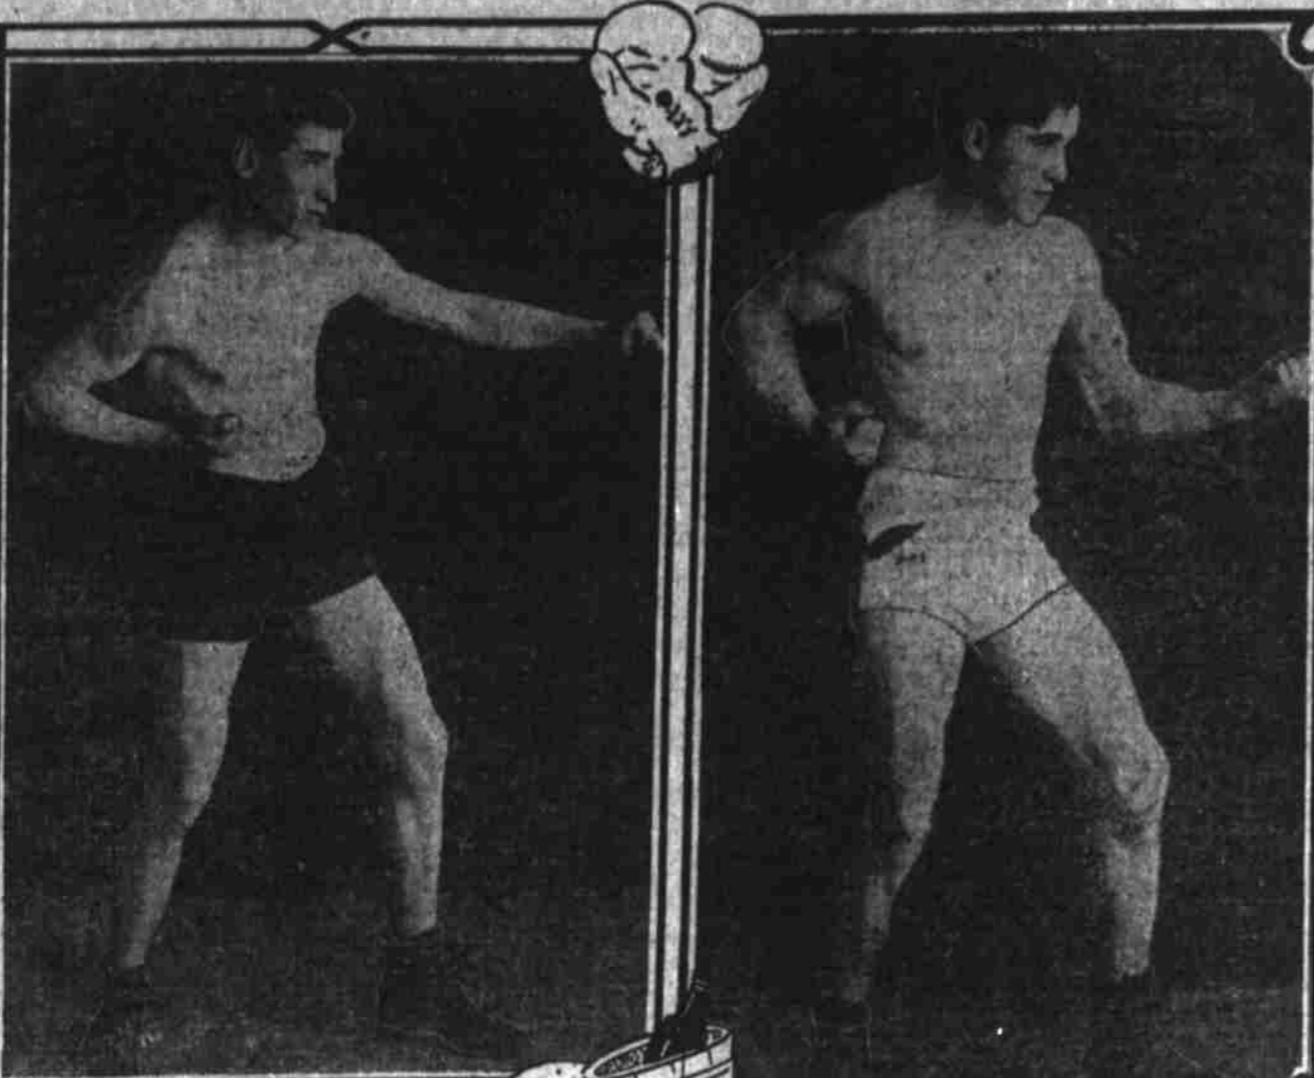

They play at Oakland today.

Just when he was hitting his stride, Young Scurge of Oakland, had the misfortune to break his leg. He did it sliding into first base.

After pitching a one-hit game the other day, Rube Waddell came back yesterday and was knocked out of the box by Chicago. But it's a reasonably

Death Was on His Heels.

Jeane P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

EDDIE DENNIS 115 LBS. OLYMPIC CLUB
LAWRENCE GRANFIELD 125 LBS. OLYMPIC CLUB

These youngsters are said to be two of the fastest amateurs in California and will give the northern athletes a hard run for the championships in the boxing and wrestling tournament next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. They reached Portland last night from San Francisco.

With Local Tossers

Claude Schmeer, who played short for Jack Flannery's Helens club in the Northwest league and who later wore a Portland uniform in the Coast league, has appeared in a west side uniform last Sunday. He was tendered an ovation by the fans.

Captain Adams of the Oregon City nine has injected finger into the Paper-makers. The lively stunt is appreciated by the fans.

Hill of Oregon City and McConnell of Vancouver, initial snickers, are products of the southern Oregon brush. Jackson, former pitcher for Eugene and the latter for Roseburg.

Oregon City has a prize package in Habernicht, the diminutive slabster. He hails from Allentown, Pennsylvania.

Anderson is making good with St. Johns and is also clouting the ball.

Hoffman, Crowley, Taylor and McDonald, promising young players, will sign with the Union Independents.

Jack Holser of the Vancouver Pioneer has a quartet of twirlers on his staff and they are clever flingers. Peader, Olney, Troch and Concannon are the fellows.

Jonny Frey, Briggs, Hatch, Woods and Turk of Vancouver are a likely bunch of hitters.

Tidbits of the Turf

Here are some of the tid-bit items of interest to turfites off the scene at Oakland:

A good deal of the structural steel used in the ill-fated Rockingham Park course at Salem, New Hampshire, will be employed in the erection of the new grandstand at Salt Lake City, Utah.

"Joe" Tighus, trainer of Belle of Iroquois, Entre Nous and other horses, accused Starter Holtman of deliberately leaving Entre Nous at the post. Now Holtman threatens to "shoot up" the trainer on occasion.

H. L. Wilson, promoter of the Butte (Montana) meeting, is the owner of the best all-around horse on the coast. This is Gemmel, who can run a mile in 1:38 with 124 pounds up.

In connection with the Yukon-Alaska exposition at Seattle, Washington, next year, the Seattle handicaps will have a cash value of $20,000. Forty-five bookmakers were frequently in line there last summer.

"Tom" Williams of the New California Jockey club was one of the best men for ex-Mayor Eugene Schmitz. He went a bond for $250,000. Williams is more than a millionaire out of racing.

When Jockey Walter Miller breaks in New York the cranks will gasp with astonishment at his appearance.

Bob Cosgrove Resigns.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, April 21.—Robert H. Cosgrove, for the past six months manager of the S. A. A. C., will resign his position May 10. Mr. Cosgrove is secretary of the interstate fair and had to give up the position to attend to that work. The trustees of the club attempted to secure him permanently. The fair association granted him a leave to reorganize the club affairs. Fred H. Gaston is prominently mentioned as his successor.

Fleet Triumphs Over Game.

There will be no baseball on the day the fleet arrives, May 6, according to the present intentions of President J. Cal Ewing, says the San Francisco Chronicle. "I will either write or talk in person with Henry Berry and with Walter McCredie," he said, "and secure their permission to a postponement of the game. The players will want to see the arrival of the fleet, and we want to join hands in welcoming the fleet. I am heartily in favor of having no ball game that afternoon, and feel sure that it will meet with the approval of the balance of the league directors."

DOLLARS TO DOUGHNUTS TOMMY BURNS WALLOPS JACK JOHNSON

By Jeff Thompson.

New York, April 21.—Whatever the merits of Jack Johnson as a fighter, there can be no question of the ability of his manager Sam Fitzpatrick, as a publicity promoter. As a matter of fact, I am strongly inclined to believe that if it were not for Fitzpatrick's really remarkable talents, Johnson would occupy about the same position in the pugilistic annals of fame as is now held by those other "gentlemen of color," Joe Jeannette and Sam Langford.

Fitzpatrick, however, is not hiding his light, or in any way "darkening" under a bushel in any manner of means. On every occasion, possible or impossible, he goes into print and always in the greatest fighting man that ever put on fighting shoes or donned skin tight mitts, and the funny part of it is that he makes it stick at least with a good many people.

There are some who actually believe that Jeffries will not fight the big dingo because he is afraid of him, while more have the same idea as to the way Tommy Burns views Fitzpatrick's protegee. He does not seem to stop to figure just how Johnson has gotten such a reputation. As a matter of fact, in his career in the ring, where a fighter's man's status should be established, he has never fought better than a second rate. If he ever meets Burns or conceives of the question, it's dollars to doughnuts he will be beaten.

Billy Nell, manager of Tommy Burns, the night of it now were.

Nell will try to arrange a match with Johnson.

Burns has said he is willing to allow the money to remain in the hands of the stakeholder for from 9 to 12 months in order to give promoters an opportunity to arrange the contest. He demands $30,000 as his share of the prize money, no matter what the result of the battle. He offers to put the money of 45 rounds or to a finish, which would limit it to California or Nevada.

We will now see just how much in earnest Fitzpatrick is. His latest fulmination is that he will give Burns $25,000, make him a present of this amount, and Johnson shall be the champion away in 20 rounds. And if Johnson does fall at this, Fitz will give Burns an additional $25,000, provided Johnson does not earn his decision, so he says.

There is no reason why Burns should not demand the long end of the pole, win, lose or draw. He has the championship with its enormous money making possibilities at stake, and he would be foolish to fight on any terms, which would not include provision for something in an offset.

Johnson really is in earnest, or rather if Fitzpatrick is, Burns' terms will be accepted. We will see.

Sam Langford, the rugged colored fighter of Boston, and Joe Jeannette, the clever colored boxer of this city, are to meet again. They were matched by Matchmaker Mian Murray of the Army A. A. of Boston, to try conclusions in another 12 round bout before that club on the night of April 25. Billy Elmer, manager of Jeannette, received a telegram from Murray, asking him if he would let Jeannette fight Langford on the above mentioned date, and Billy lost no time in writing his acceptance. They fought a slashing 12 round draw before the same club a month ago.

Why would it not be the right thing for Johnson to fight the winner of this bout and for Burns to take on the winner of the final?

Jack Johnson.

TURKISH CIGARETTES

(Heretofore known as the "Ramleh")

You like the "Ramleh" because it was the first and is the only cigarette with the "real tobacco taste." Other cigarettes with names that sound the same do not taste the same—for the quality and value of the "Ramleh" cannot be imitated.

Trading on the tremendous popularity of the "Ramleh" by flagrant misrepresentation and substitution are general brands of cigarettes with names sounding like "Ramleh."

The easiest way to prevent such methods, unfair both to you and to us, is to change the name—and that's why "Ramleh" is now spelled backwards to make the new name "HELMAR." The change is in the name only—the quality and style of package remains the same. Be careful to avoid the "Ramleh" imitations by asking the dealer for "Helmar Cigarettes."

COUNCIL WILL FORCE BOARD TO SPEND FUND

Dilatory Water Board Will Be Whipped Into Action.

Members of the city water board will have to purchase fire hydrants with the fund set apart for that purpose by the city council and to that effect the ways and means committee yesterday voted to recommend that the board be instructed to proceed at once in the purchase of hydrants. This action followed a communication from Chief Campbell to the effect that hydrants are urgently needed in various parts of the city. Chief Campbell's request was supplemented by one from the school board asking that fire hydrants be established near certain schools that at present are without fire protection. Although the council appropriated $42,500 for the purchase of 600 hydrants the water board has refused to spend the money. The council has instructed the hydrants are not a part of the water department system. However, City Attorney Kavanaugh and the councilmen think they are and the board will be compelled to spend the money.

Councilman Hightlight is incensed at the action of the water board in its dilatory tactics and said at yesterday's meeting that if he were mayor of the city he would get results from the board or appoint a new one.

SELL OLD ONE TO BUY A NEW ONE

At a meeting of the health and police committee of the city council yesterday afternoon Councilman Willis advocated that bids be received for the sale of the present jail site in an effort to determine how much money the city could raise in that way to apply upon a new city jail. Councilman Willis followed a communication from the county commissioners to the effect that the county has no money available at the present time for erecting a joint city and county jail. The commissioners stated that with a little expense additional facilities could be made at Kelly Butte for the accommodation of more city prisoners. No action was taken on Councilman Willis' proposition.

WIFE HUNTS FOR MISSING HUSBAND

Mrs. Perry McKown, 114 Sherman street, has reported to the police that her husband has been missing since March 17. A former resident of Seward, Woolley, Washington, he went to Astoria, but started up the river again the next day. Since then nothing has been heard from him. He is 32 years old and works in sawmills.
