PLUWS STOPS A TIED MATINEE

Portland - Oakland Game Called After McCredie's Errors Lost for Beavers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 San Francisco, April 22.—With the score tied in the eighth inning and Hitliff pitching major league ball, Umpire Perrine called the Portland-Oakland game yesterday afternoon on account of rain. The score was 4-4, and both managers protested, but Bull waved them to the dressing-rooms.
 Three of the scores were the result of bad plays on the part of Manager McCredie. A raindrop obscured his line of vision and he muffed an easy fly, allowing one run. In the next inning another raindrop got in the way and Mac heaved the horsehide over third base, allowing two more runs to register. Oakland got one more run in the eighth.
 Considerable improvement was shown in the Beavers' playing, and they bid fair to take the series from Oakland. The score:

 Reno, Nev., April 22.—Charles Gates, son of John W. Gates, is richer by $20,000 as the result of "bucking" Tex Rickard's fare game in Rawhide. It took him just 30 minutes to turn the trick, although at one time he was $100,000 to the bad.
 When the son of the New York pugner started to play Rickard took off the limit. With the exciting game was in progress Gates was surrounded by a great crowd, including women standing on chairs. Rickard dealt the cards.
 Being inexperienced in the game Gates bet on doubles, wagering $5,000 at a crack. Twice he was split on him, netting the house $5,000. The cards had been dealt only six times when Gates, with $20,000 added to his fortune, quit the game to keep a business engagement.

SQUEEZE PLAYS.

Pinnace might have won his third straight.
 Scientific playing is now contained in the Beaver lexicon.
 This will prove it: Bassey, Johnson and Casey sacrificed; Casey, Rafferty and Bassey stole bases.
 That fellow Hardy was a mark for the Portland stickers yesterday. Babe Danzig, Johnson and Whalen connected for doubles.
 Aberdeen is again leading the Northwestern league, having won three straight from Idaho to Spokane, Indiana. Moore and Callif, Portland boys, are helping.
 The two St. Louis teams still hold the same positions as when the big leagues opened. McAleer's Americans are at the top with 75 while McCloskey's Nationals are at the bottom with 143.
 McAleer's giants gave the Detroit team, champions of the American league last season, their fourth consecutive defeat yesterday, 7 to 3. Detroit is at the cellar door and may chase Washington out of that comfortable place.
 "His face was white as chalk and he trembled like leaf," this is one of the sentences taken from a letter from McCloskey of St. Louis to Manager Shredder of Tacoma, in which the St. Louis manager describes Higginbotham, who was put in to pitch one of the games against the Browns at St. Louis before the championship season opened. McCloskey goes on to say that the Pride of Coon Hollow had pitched won against weak teams, but that in the box scared to death when he went in the box against fast pitchers before a large crowd. Higginbotham, however, after a couple of triples and a home run in the first two innings and was then yanked out. If the big fellow gets his nerve he will make good, despite his inglorious beginning.

Golf Tourney at Lakewood.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Lakewood, N. J., April 22.—Golf players representing many parts of the country were present in force today at the opening of the annual spring golf tournament of the Lakewood Country club. The tournament opens this morning with the team match event and the program will not be finished until Saturday. The indications are that the tournament will eclipse all previous events of its kind at the country club.
 Texas State Golf Tourney.
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Fort Worth, Tex., April 22.—The third annual tournament of the Texas State Golf association had an auspicious opening today on the links of the Fort Worth Golf club. The play will continue through the remainder of this week. Among the entries are many prominent players from Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Beaumont, Galveston, El Paso, Waco and other Texas cities.

STANFORD CREWS ARE PICKED FOR BOATRACE

Stanford University, Cal., April 22.—The variety and freshman boat crews were picked yesterday morning and left for Richardson bay for final practice for their races with the California crews next Saturday. The variety crew is made up as follows: Patrick of Visalia; stroke; M. Malone, Laton, No. 7; C. Wondries, Los Angeles, No. 6; N. Cole, Dubois, Pennsylvania, No. 5; H. Hatch, Paso Robles, No. 4; S. Voss, Los Angeles, No. 3; A. Benson, Redlands, No. 2; Reynolds, Pasadena, bow; Turner, coxswain.

JEFF'S NEW CLUB HAS FIRST FIGHT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—This is the great day for the new Jeffries Athletic club, for this afternoon, weather permitting, the first fight will be given in the roofless arena at Vernon. The card is a 25 round bout between Jimmy Gardner and Mike Twin Sullivan, and while the majority of the local fight bugs do not consider this a very classy attraction for a first fight in a new place, it was apparently the best that could be secured in the short time since it was decided to have a new fight club open during the week.
 Sullivan and Gardner are advertised to battle for the welterweight championship and a purse of $3,000, and both men finished their training yesterday. The scheduled meeting tonight will be the fourth time they have boxed. The first two fights were draws and the third was won by Sullivan after 30 rounds of close fighting.
 There will be but one preliminary, and this is to be of 15 rounds between Leonard Lauder and Kid Bell.
 Jeffries will referee.

KID ERVIN TAKES UP CHASE AFTER BERNARD

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—Kid Ervin, who claims the lightweight championship of Oregon, has turned the tables on Harry Bernard, who blew into town right brotely the other day, and is now tracking the denizen of Kent, California, with long green to the sum of $300. When he catches up with the "Kid" he will shake it under his nose and tell him to cover it—"his" and "him" refer to Bernard.
 Bernard, upon his arrival in the Rose City, said he had $1,500 that he could beat Ervin. Ervin says he hasn't got $1,500 but that he has $300 which he will put up as a side bet. W. H. Ruddy, Ervin's manager, says he will probably pull off the fight, if one is arranged, in Salem.

Columbia Beats Hill.
 Columbia university yesterday won a well-played game from east side high school, 5 to 2. Columbia won through better team work, although a bad decision by Rankin, the umpire, which gave them two runs, helped a good deal. East side had numerous chances to score runs but lack of hits at the right time counted against them. Graham and Houck played well for the east side, Graham getting three hits out of four times at bat, while Houck pitched a fine game.
 Dockstadter was the star for Columbia, making a number of fine stops and catches and running bases and hitting in fine style.
