WANTS DAMAGES OF CALBREATH

U. G. Kightlinger, Former Inmate of Asylum, Sues Ex-Superintendent.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 24.—U. G. Kightlinger, at one time an inmate of the state hospital, has filed a suit in the circuit court of Marion county for the recovery of $23,295.90 damages from the former superintendent of the asylum, Dr. J. F. Calbreath. Kightlinger was committed to the asylum in November, 1905, from this county while Dr. Calbreath was superintendent at the institution. He was released as cured in March, 1906. Kightlinger alleges in his complaint that when he left the institution Calbreath allowed him to go only upon the condition that he would promise to leave the state. The information states that Kightlinger obeyed this admonition of Calbreath's and spent a year at Riverdale, California, as a result of which his large interests in Marion county suffered to the extent of $1,750. Furthermore, the information alleges that through carelessness on the part of Superintendent Calbreath while Kightlinger was an inmate of the state hospital he suffered a severe injury and broke his leg, by which accident he lost an additional $1,577. Kightlinger, through his attorney, Francis Holmes, avers that he suffered humiliation during his residence at the asylum from Dr. Calbreath to the extent of $10,000. Other items bring the total to more than $23,000. Kightlinger has large property interests in Marion county.

THUGS LIFT VICTIM OF $720

John Miller of Champoege Loses Savings—Robbers Arrested.

Leaving his convivial companions for a few moments, John Miller, a farmer living near Champoege, Oregon, went to the back room of the Italian saloon at First and Clay streets last night where he had been merry-making, was followed by the two men with whom he had been drinking and singing and was "strong-armed" by them and robbed of $720. An hour later both men were in custody, one, a negro, C. H. Smith, in the city jail, and the other, Finas Brown, a white man, in Vancouver. Twenty minutes after the Vancouver police were telephoned to arrest Brown and he was locked up. Of the money taken from Miller only $53 was recovered. There is still missing the remainder of the $667 and one for $190. It is expected, however, that a little sweating will induce either Brown or Smith to reveal the hiding place of the money. Currency of such denominations is rare and cannot be passed without notice. Miller came to town yesterday and sold land valued at $250. After paying off $200 he fell in with Brown, who recently served a rockpile term, and is Roberts' close friend and was in the Stillwater penitentiary, and the negro, Smith. The colored man is partially blind, but when the pair attacked Miller blindness did not prevent a thorough search of his clothes. Miller got back his hat and one dime, nothing more. Furthermore, to insure his appearance in court he was arrested for drunkenness. A third man who assisted in keeping Miller in line for the robbery has not yet been apprehended, but will probably be found today. Smith was arrested at the market court today and Brown must answer a charge of robbery as soon as he is brought over from Vancouver. The sale of Miller's land represents the savings of many years. Brown told me his business was singing for phonograph records and he sure sang and the man who made the records. As soon as Miller recovered himself after the robbery, he found Patrolman Roberts' close friend and was in the Stillwater penitentiary, and the negro, Smith. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., April 24.—Fred Boneparte was arrested by the police in the You and Me Both saloon last night, charged with being one of two men who yesterday robbed John Miller, a farmer who lives near Champoege. He was taken to Portland this morning. Boneparte has a police record and is considered a shady character. Some months ago he was arrested on suspicion of having cracked the safe of the Du Bois Lumber company here, but because of lack of evidence was released, although the police declared at the time that they believed him guilty of that crime. While in Portland Boneparte went under the name of Brown. When arrested he had $33.25 in cash and carried a revolver. He resented his arrest. He was taken just as he was about to buy the drinks for a crowd of hangers-on that were in the saloon.

THURSDAY TRANSFERS AMOUNT TO $64,000

Realty Market Reflects Results of Spring Activity in Buying.

Transfers of realty filed for record yesterday amounted to nearly $64,000. M. W. Hunt is negotiating with an eastern capitalist for the sale of his quarter-block on the northeast corner of Northrup and Twenty-fifth streets. The prospective purchaser has under consideration the plan to erect a modern brick apartment house on the site. The largest transaction noted yesterday was the sale of a half interest in the southeast corner of Burnside and Ninth streets, which was purchased by M. L. Holbrook from R. B. Lamson, for $13,500. A 50-foot lot on the west side of Fourteenth street, between Market and Mill, was purchased yesterday by D. E. Kelly from the Western Oregon Trust company; consideration $6,000. Mrs. Sarah M. Moser has purchased from M. W. Hunt and associates, a lot in Crown Court, the apartment house addition on upper Washington street, recently put on the market. Mrs. Moser paid $5,500 for the lot. J. H. Campbell has purchased from Thomas J. Anthony a house and lot on East Davis street, between Mason and Fulton streets; consideration $2,500. A house and lot, on upper Williams avenue, between Failing and Shaw streets, has been purchased by Gertrude M. Drinker from J. H. Baylor, for $2,300. Metzger, optician, 242 Washington.

CHEHALIS RAISES SCHOOL STANDARDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., April 24.—The Chehalis school board has reemployed all the present corps of teachers with the exception of two married women. This action is in accordance with a resolution passed some time ago by the board. A scale of wages has been adopted with $30 monthly as a maximum for the city superintendent, $75 to $90 in the high school and $55 to $75 in the grades. Three months' experience may be required and teachers must be either normal or university graduates. The accommodations are very much crowded and the board will probably fix up the large assembly room at the west side school for use next year. It is expected by another year to erect another school-house.

HOLDING CORPORATION WILL BE DISSOLVED

(United Press Lined Wire.) New York, April 24.—The Rock Island company of New Jersey, the $150,000,000 corporation which the Moore brothers organized to hold the securities of their vast railroad system headed by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, is to be abandoned. The attorneys and officials are busy devising a plan whereby the holding company, which has been a curiosity in the financial world for several years, may be successfully dissolved and the stock of the companies which is held by it returned to the original owners.

STATEMENT MEN ARE ACTIVE IN JOSEPHINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., April 24.—That there is going to be considerable knitting done by defeated factions of the Republican party in Josephine, because of the results of the recent primary election is already evident. Since the election of D. Norton, a Democrat, has declared himself a candidate for state senator and will enter the race for election against L. D. Jewell, the regular Republican candidate. Mr. Norton's petition is being liberally signed by Republicans and by men of all parties who are in favor of Statement No. 1, as Mr. Jewell did not declare himself for it. Republicans are working hard for Mr. Norton, and his friends declare that he will be the next senator from Josephine.

SCARLET FEVER

Buenos Aires, April 24.—Scarlet fever has developed in the local division of the army and 300 men are down with the disease.

JOHNSON'S BODY AT GRANTS PASS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., April 24.—The body of Archie Johnson, the wealthy California mining man, who was drowned in the Illinois river a month ago, was brought to this city yesterday and is being prepared for shipment to Santa Monica, his late home. The body was brought to Selma over a 35-mile pack trail, thence by wagon another 20 miles to this city. The accident occurred while Johnson and a friend were attempting to bring a small boat down the river to the Pine Flat placer mine. The Illinois was raging, and as neither Johnson or his comrade understood handling a boat, they were unable to shoot the rapids. The craft capsized, Johnson sank at once, but his companion, after a desperate effort, reached shore.
