With nearly 2,000 spectators present, among them some of the most prominent business and professional men in the city, the Pacific coast boxing and wrestling championships, under the auspices of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, opened auspiciously last night. Never has an affair of the kind been better conducted and the big crowd was kept in continual good humor from the opening until the closing hour.

That there were splendid exhibitions of ring and mat art goes without saying, for there were in the list some of the classic matches of the coast. The wrestling matches were pulled off first and were only a teaser for what was in store later. The shortest of the wrestling bouts, six minutes, made it impossible for any spectacular work to be done.

Interest centered in the boxing and it was here where the crowd got its money's worth. There were six events and with two exceptions they were fast and exciting.

Three right punches, straight from the shoulder of Fred Sax, Tommy Taylor, who entered unattached, floored Larry Stokes, prize of the Reliance club, in the second round of the 155-pound division. This was by far the best event of the evening's program and Sax is about the classiest amateur in the ring, according to his showing last night.

He stepped into the ring a finished product and after the spectators four flourishes convinced the referee that it was his battle. He is a rangy fellow and fast on his feet, which he kept under him during the entire three rounds. He has the kick of the mule in either hand and his three knock-downs were clean cut.

Overconfidence in the last few minutes and a rally by Stokes made things look bad for the local amateur. Stokes had inside and outside work hard jabs by clever ducking. Once he charged Sax furiously and landed a stiff right to the latter's jaw, which he loved up and in the next blow with both hands. Sax was worried and brought up against the ropes, but he waded back into Larry in a Stanley Kotchel. He had the Reliance man going badly when the going closed the first round.

Tonight Sax meets Ted Rushton of the Multnomah club and unless Ted shows some surprising form he will travel to the coast for a photograph. Larry Stokes is a clever boxer, though, and in his real class, neither of them is a young man. He is grumpy and has a good punch which he can use effectively.

Mr. Johnson, of the Multnomah club, and Mr. Madden of the same organization, essayed three rounds in the very weight class which was awarded Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson, who has pretty blue locks, was as imperturbable as though he were playing for a photograph when he rubbed Mr. Madden. There were several blows struck, some of them real hard, and Mr. Madden was badly lacerated by Mr. Johnson's hay-makers. One of Mr. Johnson's favorite blows was delivered in the ear of Mr. Madden during the first round and came straight from the mouth and in its wake were seen to float several soothing words. These had no effect, for Mr. Johnson will meet Rushton of the Seattle club tonight and there will be real things doing.

Helen Ritter of Spokane, and R. Hewitt, unattached, from Portland, furnished the fun in the first boxing match, a 105-pound affair. The multnomahs were willing and mixed it pretty freely. At the end of two rounds Hewitt was groggy and Referee Grant stopped the fray and awarded the match to the Spokane paperweight upon the concurrence of Judges Ted and Smith.

In one of the best of the bouts of the evening Olinar Dranga was awarded a decision over L. Grandfield, the Olympic club crack fighter, Dranga carrying the boxing to the "Winged O" man and while his blows lacked the steam of the visitor's they were more plentiful and overture. It took four rounds to decide the match and the last was a whirlwind. As soon as the referee announced the winner the first man to congratulate the winner was the loser. Dranga displayed the best form in his whole career and stands a good chance of winning the coast championship in this division. However, there was a strong sentiment that the southerner should have been given a draw, because of his staying qualities, his clever footwork and his all-round showing.

Billy Speck of the Seattle Athletic club had the Indian sign on Henry Neleka, champion of the M. A. A. C.'s light weight squad, and was awarded the decision. Neleka was aggressive but lacked the kick of the Seattle man, who sent a majority of his punches straight to the desired point. He was a better ring general than the "Winged O" athletes, and had him guessing most of the time. If anything Neleka was the cleverer man, but this was a case where cleverness succumbed to ruggedness.

The championship bout between Dranga and Speck will bring two old opponents together. Speck has the advantage of a win over the local boy, but Olinar's form last night convinces his admirers that he will give Billy the greatest battle that ringmaster has ever had.

Tom Corbett and C. C. Ralph, local boys unattached, attracted much amusement to the spectators in the waterweight preliminary. In fact it became so amusing that Referee Grant chased the youngsters to their corners and awarded the fracas to Ralph.

WINNERS IN WRESTLING.
The best wrestling bout of the evening was between Edwin Mills of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and Fred H. Hussey of the Seattle Athletic club, which was awarded the local grappler on aggressive winners in wrestling.

siveness. The boys weighed 135 pounds. It took Virgil Venables, the crack Seattle wrestler, but 1 minute and 14 seconds to pin Otto Ott's shoulders to the mat. The local man was aggressive but succumbed to the skill of the sound athlete in the 135-pound class.

The second preliminary in the 155-pound class between Brownell of Reliance and E. D. Smith of Multnomah was little more than a showing match during the first four minutes. Then the men got to work in earnest and although there was no fall, Referee Greenland gave the match to Brownell on aggressive.

J. Johnson of Seattle won the coast championship in the 155-pound class from Anseloff of Reliance club on aggressive. They were the only entries in the class and three falls were necessary to reach the winner. Johnson worked all the way through the first fall and came near tipping the Californian with a combination of knees and hammerlock. Anseloff did some clever leg blocking that several times felled Dr. Roller's fellow townsman. The second bout was a repetition of the first.

BE A MAN

With No Back Pains, No Nervousness, No Waste of Power, No Loss of Ambition
BUT WITH PLENTY OF LIFE AND ENERGY AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH

To be strong and manly is the aim of every strong man, and yet how many we find who are wasting the vitality and strength which nature gives them. Instead of developing into the strong, vigorous, manly young fellows that nature intended them to be, they find themselves weak, stunted and despondent—no ambition to do anything. They struggle aimlessly along, sooner or later to become victims of that disease, nervous debility; their finer sensibilities blunted and their nerves shattered.

I Cure Men's Diseases

I have treated hundreds of men who had long suffered a gradual decline of physical and mental energy as a result of private ailments, and have been interested in noting the marked general improvement that follows a thorough cure of the chief disorder. My success in curing difficult cases of long standing has made me the foremost specialist treating men's diseases. This success is due to several things. It is due to the study I have given my specialty; to my having ascertained the exact nature of men's ailments, and the original, distinctive and thoroughly scientific methods of treatment I employ.

To those in doubt as to their true condition who wish to avoid the serious results that may follow neglect, I offer free consultation and advice, either at my office or through correspondence. If your case is one of the few that has reached an incurable stage, I will not accept it for treatment, nor will I urge my services upon any one. I treat curable cases only, and cure all cases I treat.

Specific Blood Poison
No dangerous minerals to drive the virus to the interior, but harmless, blood-cleansing remedies that remove the last poisonous taint.

VARICOCELE
Absolutely painless treatment that cures completely in one week. Investigate my method. It is the only thoroughly scientific treatment for this disease being employed.

FREE
My colored chart, showing the male anatomy and affording an interesting study in men's diseases, will be given free upon application.

CONTRACTED-DISORDERS
You can depend upon a quick and thorough cure by my treatment. A quick cure is desirable because a slow cure is apt to be no cure at all, and a chronic development will come later. I cure you beyond the possibility of a relapse and in half the usual time required.

REFLEX AILMENTS
Often the condition appearing to be the chief disorder is only a reflex ailment resulting from some other disease. Weakness sometimes comes from varicocele of the stricture, skin and bone diseases result from blood poison taint, and physical and mental decline follow long-standing functional disorder. My long experience in treating men enables me to determine the exact conditions that exist and to treat accordingly, thus removing every damaging cause and its effects.

My Fee Is Only $10

should learn—and the sooner the better—that what may seem a trivial disease very often has most serious and far-reaching effects. The man who tries to be his own doctor is always the patient that later comes to the specialist with the chronic, stubborn, deep-seated case which is the hardest kind to cure. We cannot hope that all men will accept our statement that the quickest, the safest and cheapest cure is had by consulting an expert specialist in Men's Diseases at once, but the intelligent man will readily be convinced of the value of this advice upon investigation.

Much of the delicate equipment of our office is specially constructed to meet the requirements of our distinctive methods of treatment, which involves the scientific application of every curable influence known to be helpful in treating the class of diseases we cure.

We have stopped at no expense that could add to the efficiency of our work or the comfort of our patients. There is no other equally equipped institution for the treatment of men's ailments in the Pacific Northwest.
