

MARION'S G. O. P. ALL HARMONY

County Committeemen Come to Agreement on Mutual Indorsement.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 24.—Republicans of Marion county resolved at a meeting of the county central committee last night to support the ticket nominated at the primaries. Peace and harmony prevailed and the anti-Statement No. 1 men pledged themselves to support the Statement No. 1 men nominated in this county and the committee was returned by the Statement No. 1 men. Charles Murphy was succeeded as chairman of the county central committee by W. L. Jones of Jefferson. Edward Martin of Turner, was selected state committeeman. Jerome Simmons of Astoria, who has been county slogan committeeman. B. F. West was selected by the city delegates to act as chairman of the city central committee. Secretaries for the county and city organizations will be chosen by the respective chairmen. An executive committee also will be appointed by the county chairman. Six delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Portland May 15, were selected by ballot, as follows: Jerome Simmons, T. B. Kay, H. B. Porter, R. Hicks, Charles Murphy and E. P. Robertson. Twenty delegates to the state convention to be held at Portland the same day had been previously selected at a county convention held before the primaries. No congressional delegates were chosen at that time. As Marion county is entitled to but 11 delegates to each of these conventions the seven extra men selected for the state convention by the previous county convention will act as delegates to the congressional convention with the six elected last night. No policies were outlined other than that the organization should stand by the fundamental principles of the Republican party and the ticket nominated at the recent primaries, despite some bitter differences that arose previous to that contest.

AT THE THEATRES

"Ham Tree" Seats Selling. Seats are now selling at boxoffice the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for America's foremost negro impersonators, McIntyre and Heath. These clever favorites will present their big company of 40 people three nights beginning next Monday, April 27, in "The Ham Tree."

Special Matinee at Hellig. A special price matinee will be given at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, at 2:15 o'clock. The attraction will be the musical-comedy success, "The District Leader." It is filled with tuneful and catchy music. Don't miss it.

Musical Play at Hellig. The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night, will be the musical comedy, "The District Leader." This merry offering has been the hit of the past two evenings and has delighted two large audiences who have enjoyed every minute of this happy offering. Seats are now selling at theatre for the evening.

Marquam's Three Performances. Tonight, Saturday afternoon and evening will be the last three performances of "The Belle of New York" at the Marquam. As this is the greatest of all American musical comedies, it is one of the best attractions that the San Francisco opera company can give. The company closes its engagement with this bill tomorrow night.

A Lively Laughable Comedy. "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown," at the Baker theatre this week, is a play filled with nonsense and absurdities to be sure, but so framed that it is one continual laugh from start to finish. It deals with life in a girls' boarding school, and one of the funniest features is George Allison masquerading as a young woman.

"Sherlock Holmes" Next Week. The Baker stock company's great production of William Gillette's "Sherlock Holmes" is going to be the banner week of the entire year, if indications amount to anything. Every one wants to see this magnetic play, and George Allison, who so recently gave the splendid performance of "Raffles," will play the title role of the wonderful detective.

"Election Bets." "Election Bets" is the title of George M. Cohan's latest playlet, and it is being given this week at the Grand by the Hellig and Fuller company. It is written in Cohan's entertaining style and is as funny as possible. Leo Cooper and company are appearing in a serious offering, a dramatic playlet, "The Price of Power," which is unusual in many ways.

"How Baxter Butted In." "How Baxter Butted In" continues its merry way at the Star theatre, where the comedy drama has been holding the boards all week. This is the last offering of the French stock company in Portland, as the company closes its engagement with the performance tomorrow night. After the matinee tomorrow a reception will be held on the stage by Manager French and the members of his company.

New Headliner. The new headliner at the Grand for the coming week will be great Henri French, premier of imitators of leaders of bands. French is also a juggler. The name of French stands high in vaudeville and he will be one of a number of fine specialties on the coming program.

"A Scotch High Ball." Beginning Sunday night the Armstrong Musical Comedy company will open an indefinite engagement at the Star theatre. The first attraction will be "A Scotch High Ball," in which pretty girls, funny comedians and songs will predominate. Seats are now on sale.

"Thelma" Tonight. The best theatrical event of the week is the Allen company's production of Marie Corelli's masterpiece "Thelma." Those who have seen this great play performed in such a splendid manner by the Allen company agree that it is one of the finest performances of the piece ever seen on the coast. Go tonight.

"From Sire to Son" Next. The coming attraction at the Lyric will be the Allen company in a great performance of Milton Nobles' great play, "From Sire to Son." Every member of the cast will be seen to advantage and the production will be unusually fine. Better go tonight and enjoy yourself.

MRS. EUGENE SCHMITZ IS NERVOUS WRECK

San Francisco, April 24.—Although the fact was only known among her most intimate friends, Mrs. Eugene Schmitz, wife of the former mayor of San Francisco, has been confined to her bed for a week suffering from nervous prostration. The former mayor said today that the attack was brought on by gripe and that Mrs. Schmitz's condition is not considered serious.

The EDISON PHONOGRAPH

ARE you about to entertain—to give a party or a dance, have a few friends in? The Edison Phonograph fits in with any scheme of entertainment—it will as readily furnish an entire programme for a vaudeville entertainment as for a concert of grand opera selections. It will provide all the music for a dance as easily as for a concert of band or orchestral music, or you may combine a little of each and give your friends the most delightful entertainment imaginable. If you have not heard the new Edison model with the big horn, go to the nearest Edison store and hear it, or write to us for descriptive booklet.

May Records Out Tomorrow LOOK over your Records and then look over this list and see if there is not at least one new Record that you would like to offer your friends or to entertain yourself. If you hear one you will hear them all, and if you hear them all you will buy more than one.

KNOWN IN PENDLETON QUARTER OF CENTURY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., April 24.—E. H. Clarke, the veteran wool buyer, who died here Tuesday morning and was buried Wednesday from the Episcopal church under the auspices of the lodge of Elks, was born at Newton, Massachusetts, August 16, 1844. He passed his early life in Massachusetts and was a soldier during the civil war in the Forty-fourth Massachusetts Infantry. In 1870 he came west and became associated in the wool business with Christy & Wiles of San Francisco. Twenty-five years ago he came to Pendleton as representative of that company and in a few years he has worked for independent buyers. He was a charter member of the lodge of Elks of this city. He was also a member of the Woodmen and United Workmen orders.

NOTED TRANSLATOR OF INDIAN SPEECH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., April 24.—Lemoyne, the famous Indian interpreter of Lapwai, Idaho, of the Nez Perce tribe, has been in Pendleton to interpret in a number of Indian land matters in which his tribesmen are interested. He is the most prominent Indian interpreter in the northwest. He not only speaks the Nez Perce fluently, but he is able to interpret the Flathead, Blackfoot, Yakima, Hantock, Cayuse and other northwest Indian tongues. He is not only an excellent interpreter, but is a lawyer, adviser and counselor for the Indians, and has a broad sense of justice, which enables him to see the equity of the intruder's Indian cases which are constantly before the courts of the northwest. Having an excellent English education his interpretations are excellent.

WASHINGTON MEN TO RESOURCE CONFERENCE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., April 24.—The three invitations to the president's conference on conservation of natural resources, at the disposal of Governor A. E. Mead, have been accepted by E. W. Ross, land commissioner; Frank H. Calkins, president of the State College at Pullman, and Frank H. Lamb of Hoquiam. Professor Walker is a civil engineer and expert on irrigation matters. Mr. Lamb is a student of forestry. Governor Mead departed last evening for Washington. The conference will be held May 13 to 15.
