While the Pacific coast boxing and wrestling tournament was not so interesting last night as on the preceding evening, there were several matches which evoked greater enthusiasm and led to the strongest card of the meeting for the finals tonight. Two matches were lost in two classes by the enforced withdrawal of Larry Stokes, the crack boxer of the Reliance club. Stokes sustained a broken nose and an injured hand in his fight with Sax Thursday night, and could not enter last night. Tonight the finals will bring together the following men in the various classes.

Boxing. 125 pounds—O. Dranga, M. A. A. C., vs. W. Speck, Seattle A. C. 135 pounds—Cousa West, M. A. A. C., vs. Ronche, Portland, unattached. 145 pounds—C. Brown, Seattle A. C., vs. C. C. Dennis Feather Champion. Those Californians are certainly the candy when it comes to the boxing game. There probably has never been such another amateur featherweight contest in Portland as that between Eddie Dennis of the Olympic club and Young Couture, the 15-year-old champion of the Reliance club, which the "winged O" lad won on a double header fight a splendid bout from start to finish and was so evenly matched that an extra round was necessary before a decision could be reached. Several times Dennis stabbed Couture with left and right hands that had a sting, and when the Reliance youth went to his corner at the end of the first round, he was told to sooner had the youngsters put up their dukes than the crowd knew something classy was in store. Several times he tried to escape some of the bad blows. He was off on distance though, and several vicious swings which looked like hebers missed. Eddie's cunning tower by the fraction of an inch. He does not possess the steam of the East Coast, but he is fast in his clinch and gave tit for tat when the two came together. There is a bright future in store for young Couture, for he is only 15 years of age if he continues to improve. With a few more years of experience and the strength that gives he will be a dangerous opponent. The other boxing match of the evening was between Croft of Seattle, the man who backed up the Reliance club, and Madden of Multnomah, both heavyweights. It was a playful affair for the first round, but Croft settled matters in the second by knocking over the heavyweight. Croft meets Ed Johnson of Multnomah tonight, and the best promise to be a fast and interesting one.

Jack Atkin, 8 to 1, won the first of the big eastern handicaps at the opening day at Aqueduct. He took the Carter handicap in good shape, beating the favorite, Chapultepec, badly. This picture is from a snapshot of Jack Atkin, as he appeared on the track.

Automobile Club Will Let Spectators Know How Long Race Goes.

Portland's Rose Festival automobile race will have nothing lacking to make it the greatest event of the kind ever held in the northwest, according to plans which are now maturing in the hands of the racing committee of the auto club. The committee has hired a portable grandstand, which will hold 5,000 people, and has secured the ground to place it upon near the homestretch of the course selected. The stand will be placed in a position where the stretch can be seen for a long distance, and President Kinsely has assured the automobile people that there will be plenty of cars, it being planned to use regular railway passenger equipment which will be drawn by the high powered freight motors of the streetcar company.

Life of Cures for Men

My Fee Is Only $10.00 In Any Simple Case

The multitudes of men who have taken my treatment have not been disappointed. They know that I do not promise more than I perform. To them I am usually illustrated in the cure of their own cases the truth of what I claim, namely, that my treatment is as certain to cure as it is that the patient engage my services and follow my directions. My success is due not alone to education, experience, skill and scientific equipment, but to the fact that I limit my study and practice strictly to diseases and weaknesses of men. To male maladies alone I have earnestly and exclusively devoted 15 years of my life and on them all my faculties are concentrated.

My Treatment For Weakness. Functional derangement, such as premature loss of power, etc., neither a "weakness" nor a disease. It is a symptom of prostatic disorder. To stimulate activity by the use of powerful tonic is an easy matter, but such results are merely temporary drug effects. Most doctors treat "weakness" in this manner because they do not know how to cure the real cause of the derangement. My treatment is a local one entirely and corrects every abnormal condition of that vital organ, the prostate gland. It is a permanent cure. CONSULTATION FREE—MY HONEST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS YOU NOTHING. Men out of town in trouble, write if you cannot call, as many cases yield readily to proper home treatment and cure. My office hours are open all day from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

dered unconscious and was carried to a near-by house, where she was made comfortable till a carriage could be called to take her home.

Hawthorne won the game, 5 to 5, and but for this unfortunate accident it would have been a fine game. Hawthorne got off badly but gradually crept up on their opponents, and when Carl Everett drove out a home-run in the eighth inning the score was 1 to 5. Hawthorne won out in the ninth inning.

WITH THE EASTERNERS. Three times in one day is a record for the South Atlantic league and indicates that the Easterners are going to have a very busy season. The true story of Honnas Wagner's withholding his signature from the Hawthorne contract so long must read like the money market quotations.

Jack Warner of the Washington team has purchased an away from the Galveston club and will be a minor league magnate next season.

Hobe Ferris looks to be just the "six-cylinder" that Manager McAleer of St. Louis was looking for.

Umpire Stafford, with the American league last year, is using his voice this season in the Eastern league.

From the way Jack Taylor pitched his first game it would seem that the former Chicago Cub intends to place the Columbus team on the high seat in the American association.

It is said that the Eastern league magnates propose to increase President Powers' salary from $3,000 to $5,000 a year. It must be nice to be president of a baseball league.

No doubt about the American being the best league now, Washington broke the ice and escaped with a game before the St. Louis Nationals could make a hole large enough to get out.

"We need pitchers," has been the cry of the New York Americans for several seasons and they don't seem to be getting any better off this season. Outside the box Griff has a splendid team.

Ever hear of a baseball team without a first baseman? A Smokeyville scout is responsible for the following: "That Pittsburg team of 1893 was a beauty. The players who helped to make the great record were: Killian, Terry Gumbert and Ehret, pitchers; Miller, Mack, Suggden and Earle, catchers; Bierbauer, Bhugart, shortstops; Smith, left; Stengel, middle, and Donovan, right. Several players were tried at first, but no one filled the bill." No one filled the bill at first!

General J. B. Weaver, the old war-horse of Iowa Democracy in out for the nomination for governor in that state. For years General Weaver has been a picturesque figure in Democratic circles. He was the greenback candidate for president in 1880 and the People's Party candidate for president in 1892.

Resubmission Petition. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., April 25.—A petition has been filed in the county clerk's office asking that the question of local option be submitted to the coming June election. This is the petition that went dry at the election two years ago.

LOCAL GOLFERS GO TO VICTORIA

Score of Best Players Will Take Part in Northwest Championships.

Nearly a score of the best golfers in the Waverly club will leave Portland May 4 for Victoria, B. C., to participate in the northwest golf championships on the beautiful course of the Canadian city. Considerable enthusiasm is manifested here and from showings already made this spring it is believed the local devotees of the green will make a nice showing against the northerners.

Players will be present from the Spokane Golf and Country club, and Tacoma and Seattle golf clubs. The principal event on the card is the open championship for men and this will bring together some noted players in the northwest.

Among those who will make up the party from Portland are: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler and Miss Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMasters, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lanthorn, Jordan, Zee, Chester Murphy, Allen Wright, J. E. Young, David T. Honeyman and W. B. Mackay.

The beauty of the collection is going to make the trip a delightful one and it is believed that there will be a record attendance at the coming tourney.

CONTRIBUTIONS SWELL TO SEND STANFORD EAST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal., April 25.—Contributions to the fund to send the Stanford track team to Chicago in June for the big difference meet continue to pour in. Faculty contributions have swelled the total to $700 and the work of collection is going steadily ahead. The alumni of San Francisco have already started a fund and it is expected that those in other parts of the state will follow.

A comparison of the records made last Saturday with the time which won in the "Big Nine" performance last summer seems to leave the impression that the cardinal athletes are first class performers. The team will probably be composed of nine men.

Sellings and Heiligs Play. The Ben Sellings and the Hollis theatre team will meet in a baseball game at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn tomorrow morning at 4 o'clock. Great excitement will be attached to the contest, as both teams are mortal enemies. All thoughts of theater and clothing stores will leave the minds of the players and spectators, and for three hours or more they will root with the best of them.
