W. S. U'Ren and William R. McGarry will debate the "recall" amendment at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. The debate has been arranged by the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. for the instruction of the voters of the city. Mr. U'Ren, who drafted the amendment, will defend it and attempt to show why the measure is one which the people should adopt. Mr. McGarry will take the opposite side and attempt to show that the amendment would be unwise and detrimental to the best interests of the state if put on the books as an amendment to the constitution of the state. The debate will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Young Woman's Christian association invites all women to an "at home" Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The day will be informal. Girls may come and go just as they please. A drop in Bible class begins at 4 o'clock and a dialect story is read at that time to a different group of girls. The more formal program commences at 4:30 with vocal and instrumental solos. Arthur H. Waltz gives the address on "The Earthly and Heavenly Visions," an interesting and helpful talk. An informal lunch and "getting acquainted" time closes the afternoon and all women will find a most hearty welcome and a good place to make friends.

Dorothy Porter, 13 years old, and her 2-year-old sister fell through a hole in the bridge over the Montgomery gulch, Williams avenue and Weidler street, yesterday afternoon and sustained serious injuries. The baby broke one leg in the fall, which was a full 40 feet. That they were not more seriously injured, if not killed, is considered remarkable. They are the children of H. J. Porter, 865 Ross street. A passer-by heard their cries and carried them home. The older girl sustained internal injuries but no broken bones. The little girl was later removed to the Good Samaritan hospital.

Peter Perry's will, disposing of property worth $1,400, was filed in the county court yesterday afternoon. All of the estate is bequeathed to his common-law wife, Millie Billiodeau, who has filed a petition asking for the appointment of T. J. Hannigan as administrator. Perry lived at 488 Everett street, and in his will commends the faithfulness of the woman thus recognized as his wife. The chief asset of the estate is an insurance policy for $1,000 in the Woodmen of the World.

Late car service from Portland to all points between Golf Junction and Lents Junction on Springwater division Portland Railway, Light & Power company. Effective Monday, April 27, the Mt. Scott cars leaving First and Alder streets at 5:40, 11, 11:20 and 11:40 p. m. will turn in to carbarn at Milwaukie over the Springwater division via Lents Junction, furnishing a late service to all points between Lents Junction and Golf Junction.

A very interesting and largely attended meeting of the Sixtieth Precinct Improvement association was held Friday evening. The subject of improvement of streets south of the Base Line upon the district plan was quite thoroughly discussed and postponed until the next meeting in two weeks. The subject of a large sewer system will also be taken up. All residents of the precinct are urged to join the association for the common good.

The People's forum, at their regular meeting tomorrow night in Selling-Hirsch hall, Tenth and Washington streets, will discuss the Armory appropriation bill, the Huntley corrupt practice act and the proposed amendment to the Oregon constitution increasing the pay of members of the legislature. Able speakers will be present to take part. A. B. Colter will lead the discussion.

Members of the city park board will visit Holladay park this afternoon in company with Parkkeeper Mische to examine into his scheme for converting the park into a playground. The visit will occur at 3 o'clock. The board met this morning and authorized the payment of the shinglers on the forestry building, the money for which was appropriated by the council this week.

Articles lost and found on the streetcars April 24, 1908: Twenty-two umbrellas, 2 telescopes, 1 sample case, 5 packages, 1 pair of gloves, 1 basket, 2 school books, 1 note book, 2 lunch boxes. One package containing shoes was exchanged for another and the mistake can be corrected by calling at the lost article room of the O. W. P. railway station, corner First and Alder streets.

For putting his wife in a house of ill repute, F. H. Redsecker may have a long stay in the penitentiary. He was arrested yesterday at Roseburg on a warrant forwarded by the Portland police. He was held under $1,000 bail, which he deposited. Under a law passed a few years ago this offnse is held to deserve a penitentiary term.

George Price was placed behind the bars at the county jail today on a charge of insanity. James Myers, said to be from Raymond, Washington, was committed to the asylum yesterday after examination by the alienists. He has a college education, but indulgence in drink has weakened his mental capacity.

Evangelist Ross closes his special evangelistic services at Sunyside Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. He has preached to large audiences and great good has been done. Sunday morning Mr. Ross will preach on "If God Did Not Make the Bible, Who Did?"

Dick Reckmann of Sherman county, was charged with illegal fencing of government lands in the United States court yesterday and a bench warrant issued for his arrest. The land in question, 260 acres, lies in the Deep canyon country.

John Davis and Henry Burns were sent to the reform school by Judge Gantenbein in the juvenile department of the circuit court yesterday afternoon. Both were wards of the court who disregarded their promises to do better. Davis ran away and was brought back from The Dalles by Sheriff Stevens. Burns is a persistent truant and cigarette smoker. They had been leniently dealt with on former occasions, but Judge Gantenbein decided that the reform school treatment is needed this time.

Fine Feathers

A bird in the hat is worth eight or ten in the bush. Is it? In a period of fifteen years prior to 1903, bird life in this country was reduced fifty per cent. But now we are giving them more of a chance; refuges have been established where the birds can breed in safety; wardens have been appointed whom the Federal Government pays the princely sum of One Dollar per month, their real wages being paid by organizations.

Read this article, "Harbors for Wild Birds," by René Bache, in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, and learn how we are being saved from the disgrace of a birdless, song-silenced country.

"Vaiti, the Queen," by Beatrice Grimshaw, tells how Vaiti was stranded on a lonely island, and how it turned out to be not quite so lonely as she thought, and, indeed, not so lonely as she might wish.

ST. JOHNS GETS NEW POWER SUBSTATION

Car Company Will Also Build Another Freight Depot on the East Side.

Plans for a new substation at Northern Hill near St. Johns for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company have been completed and were approved this morning by President B. S. Josselyn. Work will begin on the building at once.

Electricity for St. Johns and Vancouver, Washington, will be supplied from the new station. Power for the draws on the three new bridges is also to be furnished from the Northern Hill branch. The building will be so constructed that it can be enlarged at any time and when Swift & Co. begin the operations of their packing plant on the peninsula they will be furnished with all the power necessary. The substation will also be large enough to supply any other industries with power which may develop in the near future.

The substation at St. Johns is now in an old building and not large enough for the company's business. Northern Hill is near the new tracks of the Portland & Seattle railroad.

Plans for the construction of a new freight depot on the east side are also being drawn. The new depot will be just south of the old station and will be in Mill street next to the river.

The building now in use will be abandoned when the new building is completed. Later it will be torn down and the ground used for unloading and loading freight cars.

The Northern Hill substation will be completed as soon as possible. The freight depot will be built during the summer.

S. S. HORNELEN WILL LOAD HERE

Booked to Go to Panama Instead of the River Forth.

SHIP FALKLANDBANK COMING HERE LIGHT

Norwegian Steamer Was Here About a Year Ago and Took Wheat to Orient—Sailing Vessel Comes for New Crop Wheat.

The Norwegian steamer Hornelen and the British ship Falklandbank have been added to the list of vessels en route to this port. The Hornelen will be here soon from Puget sound to complete a cargo of lumber for Panama and the Falklandbank will come for the new crop wheat.

The Hornelen takes the place of the British steamer River Forth which was booked some time ago to come here for the lumber that will go to Panama. The River Forth was directed to another destination and the Hornelen was engaged to fill the vacancy. The Norwegian tramp is one of the largest afloat and is well known here, having taken a cargo of grain from this port for the orient about a year ago. She is in command of Captain Nelson, who many years ago worked at longshoreing in this harbor and gradually rose to his prominent position in the shipping world.

The British ship Falklandbank is another familiar name in this port. The ship has been here many times for wheat cargoes as have also a number of other vessels of the same line. She comes in ballast from Valparaiso.

The three-masted schooner Churchill reached the Columbia river this morning from Keelung, Formosa. She comes in ballast under charter to load lumber.

WOULD KILL COMPETITION.

Steamship Companies Operating Oriental Lines Cut Rates.

Determined not to let the tramp steamers get the lion's share of the freight across the Pacific the regular liners have slashed rates on flour and wheat to $2 a ton to China. This is the second cut made within a few weeks and brings the rate down to less than half of what it was a few months ago.

The cut is said to be the direct result of the charter of the British tramp steamer Sheila to carry a full cargo of flour to the orient at a rate less than that announced when the regular lines made their first cut. The Sheila charter was closed a few days ago and the steamer will arrive here soon.

The low rate is expected to have a stimulating effect on shipments, and it is supposed that this will be appreciated because the regular liners have not by any means gone full of late.

The oriental liner Arabia which is booked to leave here tomorrow for the orient will go out with comparatively light flour shipments but will be full nevertheless, a large shipment of lumber having been secured.

The liner Nicomedia is at San Francisco discharging overland freight that the Frisco oriental liners were unable to handle. She will come north in a few days with local freight and to load return cargo.

BELIEVES MINDORO SAFE.

Captain of Ship Ancaios Attributes Long Voyage to Light Winds.

Captain Ritchie, master of the British ship Ancaios, believes there is no cause for fear concerning the safety of the American schooner Mindoro which is now out 100 days from Newcastle, Australia, for Columbia river with a cargo of coal.

The Ancaios arrived here last night from Newcastle with coal and went to Albina dock to discharge the cargo, the cargo being consigned to the O. R. & N. company. It took her 98 days to make the run from Sydney, where she put in on the way from Newcastle to sign a new crew, and Captain Ritchie says the ship did pretty well to make the run in that time. The weather was ideal every day until within three days of the Columbia, when the first strong breeze was encountered. It was accompanied by heavy seas. With such light winds prevailing on the course from the antipodes, Captain Ritchie says it does not surprise him to see the Mindoro making a slow passage. The Mindoro left Australia about the same time as the Ancaios.

Captain Ritchie will quit the vessel here and probably return to England by way of New York. Another master has been sent here from England to take command. The ship arrived in the finest of shape, looking almost as neat and clean as had she been in port several days and received the customary overhauling.

AUSTRALIAN LINER HERE.

British Steamer Boveric Begins Loading Lumber at Once.

The British steamer Boveric began loading lumber at the mills of the Eastern and Western Lumber company this morning and will be ready to leave for Australia by way of San Francisco next week. The shipment is being made by the Pacific Export Lumber company and the vessel will be given quick dispatch.

The Boveric arrived here yesterday afternoon from Tacoma where she took part cargo. She encountered stormy weather during the few hours at sea and did not make the run quite as quickly as was expected. She is a large fine steamer, operated under charter to Frank Waterhouse & Co., between this coast and Australia. It is said that there is a probability of these liners calling here regularly for Australian cargoes from now on.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The Harriman liner Rose City left Ainsworth wharf this morning for San Francisco with a large list of passengers and a full cargo, consisting principally of flour.

The North Pacific company's steamer Roanoke left Martin's wharf last night for San Pedro and way ports. She carried a full list of passengers and a large freight.

The steamer Alliance is scheduled to leave for Coos Bay this evening.

The French bark Alice Marie left down this morning in tow of the steamer Harvest Queen. The Harvest Queen will return with the British ship Leyland Bros., which has received instructions to come to Portland, although it is understood she is not chartered.

The French bark Molier cleared this morning for the United Kingdom for orders with 119,001 bushels of wheat, valued at $97,200. She is expected to leave down during the first part of next week.

The river rose 14 inches during the past 24 hours as a result of the heavy rains of the past few days.

WILL FIGHT TUG COMPANY.

Captain A. T. Stream Relinquishes Command of Schooner Saginaw.

Aberdeen, Wash., April 25.—Captain A. T. Stream has relinquished command of his vessel, the steamer Saginaw, for one trip and Captain J. L. Christiansen took her out yesterday on her voyage to San Francisco.

This was done so that Captain Stream could be here as a witness in the case of the Hart-Wood Mill company against the Grays Harbor Tug Boat company, because the latter did not have a tug on hand to take the wreck of the schooner Solano off the sands on the Oregon coast when Captain Stream had her floated and all ready to save.

AT THE THEATRES

Last Performance Tonight.

The last performance of the merry musical comedy success, "The District Leader," will be given at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight at 8:15 o'clock. This excellent company has an exceptionally good cast of principals, including charming Miss Ethel Dovey and Mr. Truesdale, the chorus is decidedly good, being both young and pretty. Seats are selling at the theatre.

"Ham Tree" Next Monday.

Seats are now selling at the box office of the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for America's foremost negro impersonators, McIntyre and Heath. These famous comedians and their big company of 50 people will present the musical play, "The Ham Tree" at the above theatre for three nights beginning next Monday, April 27. Matinee Wednesday.

"The Belle" Tonight.

This evening the last performance of "The Belle of New York" will be given by the San Francisco Opera company at the Marquam. This attraction and performance closes the engagement and the company goes to Puget sound for the summer. "The Belle of New York" has never had an equal in the musical comedy class.

The Strange Adventures.

"The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" will close its week's run at the Baker tonight. There will be the usual matinee this afternoon, and the merry fun will be over. The play has been the cause of many good, hearty laughs during the week.

Sherlock Holmes, Detective.

Conan Doyle's famous story of Sherlock Holmes, in the dramatized form, will be presented by the Baker stock company all next week, opening with the matinee Sunday afternoon. This is one of the biggest productions ever offered in stock in the city, and the advance sale of seats indicates a banner week's business.

"Thelma" Matinee Tomorrow.

The phenomenally successful week of "Thelma" in which the Allen company has made such a distinct hit at the Lyric is drawing to a close. There will be a performance tonight, a matinee tomorrow and a farewell tomorrow night. A great bargain in the theatrical line.
