WOULD-BE SUICIDE ROUSES NEIGHBORS

Patrolman Finds Hysterical Wife Thinly Clad on Front Porch.

John Grieder, a cement contractor, determined to take his life early this morning. It took a ride to the police station and a session of rest in the city jail to get the idea out of his head.

At 1:30 this morning Patrolman Keith found Mrs. Grieder on the porch of the Grieder residence, 941 East Glisan street, clad in her night dress and almost in hysterics. The policeman finally learned that her husband had announced his intention of committing suicide.

The whole neighborhood was aroused, as Grieder had made considerable noise in announcing his intention. Keith went inside the house, and there found the contractor, wearing nothing in particular but an undershirt. He carried a loaded revolver and repeated to the officer his intention of taking his life. Keith expostulated with Grieder, but to no avail, so the patrol wagon was sent for.

Grieder, it seems, is subject to spells of temporary derangement. His case will be heard in the municipal court tomorrow.

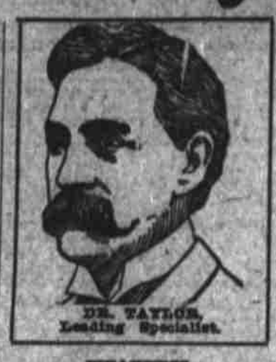
I Have the Largest Practice Because I Invariably Fulfill My Promises



DR. TAYLOR,
Leading Specialist.

Success isn't attained at a bound. It is made up of many little triumphs. A large medical practice doesn't await the young physician at the college door. He must prove himself. He must work toward success day after day, doing well each day's task.

It has always been my rule to promise nothing that I am not absolutely certain of accomplishing. Realizing that no one physician can successfully undertake to cure all diseases, I entered special courses of study in preparation for my present work. For sixteen years I have been proving my ability and building my success. I have mastered, first, the simpler diseases, then the serious, complex and stubborn ones that others neither cure nor comprehend. I have confined my efforts to diseases of men exclusively, and there is no ailment belonging to this class that I cannot fully conquer. I make broad and definite claims. I tell men that I can cure them, even though others have failed. Jealous doctors have charged me with claiming too much. But, I ask, wherein have I failed to fulfill a promise? My practice is now fully twice that of any other specialist upon the Pacific coast treating men's diseases. It has grown to these dimensions because I have made promises and fulfilled them. Each cure I have effected is a triumph and a manifestation of skill that has had its part in the making of my success. Each day new cures are completed, and my present growth of practice is more rapid than ever before.

Consultation is free. If you are afflicted, consult me. You can rely upon what I tell you, and if I accept your case you can rest assured that a complete and permanent cure will follow my treatment.

All necessary X-Ray examinations are absolutely free to patients. My equipment for X-Ray work is the finest and most complete ever produced, and equally perfect results are not possible with an inferior apparatus.
All medicines are prepared from standardized drugs in my own private laboratory and are supplied to patients at actual cost.

WEAKNESS.
To produce temporary activity of the functions in cases of so-called weakness is a simple matter, but to permanently restore strength and vigor is a problem that but few physicians have solved. I never treat for temporary effects. Under my system of treatment every bit of improvement is a part of a permanent cure. Though other physicians have, through my success in effecting permanent cures, been convinced of the fact that prematureness, loss of power, etc., are but symptoms resulting from chronic inflammation or congestion in the prostate gland, none have as yet been able to duplicate my cures. My system of local treatment is the only effective means yet known for restoring the prostate to its normal state, which always results in full and complete return of strength and vigor. Such a cure is absolutely permanent, because the condition responsible for the functional disorder is entirely removed. It is the only kind of a cure a patient desires, and is the only kind of cure I will treat for.

CONSULTATION FREE
I state nothing in my announcements but the straight, square truth. It will cost you nothing to call and talk over your case. You can find out all about your trouble and you can later arrange to begin treatment any time you like. My offices, comprising 10 rooms, are the largest, most elegant and best equipped in the west.

The Doctor's "Pig in a Bag"

The man who takes drugs prescribed by a doctor never knows what he is getting until it is too late. You pay for a "pig in a bag" when you pay for a drug prescription. You don't realize that until you find yourself enslaved by the drug demon, or your nerves and stomach wrecked by the deadly poisons which doctors put into their remedies.

Thousands of sufferers are sent to their graves by the secret remedies of doctors, who fatten upon the earnings of the sick and weak. They magnify your ailment a hundred times and keep you in a state of dejection as long as it is possible for them to sell you their dope.

When I take your case my aim is to cure. You pay one price for my treatment, and that is all you pay. If I know that I can't cure you, I'll tell you so in the beginning. I don't want money that I don't earn.

Drugs don't restore health because they contain nothing that builds health. Nature wants nourishment, not poison. My way of curing is to help Nature cure. I do this by giving her the power to combat disease and drive it out of your system. This power is electricity. It gives strength to every vital organ. It vitalizes the blood and increases the circulation. It is food to weak nerves.

Electro-Vigor is the only successful appliance for infusing electricity into the body. It does this while you sleep. Its influence is powerful, yet soothing and pleasant to the nerves. All night long it sends a volume of electric life into the ailing part.

Electro-Vigor is a practical body battery, not an electric belt. It makes its own power and never needs charging. It is curing people every day whom drugs had failed to benefit.

Mrs. A. Pearsoll, 382 Queen St., Seattle, writes:
"I am 84 years old and have used many treatments, but never have I received such benefit as I have from the use of Electro-Vigor. It has done more for me in one month than all other treatments have done in a year. My bladder trouble is cured and my whole constitution is greatly strengthened."
