

ROAD BANK CAKE MAY MAKE GREAT QUEEN OF MAY CHAIR'S POTTER WILL SELECT HEAD AT MEETING THIS AFTERNOON

Strong Sentiment Developed Among Republican Candidates Against All the Sins of War Being Used to Forward Interests of the Candidate.

Miss Hazel Caldwell of Lausanne Hall Receives This Honor.

Railroad Magnate Called as Witness in Ford Trial but Refuses to Answer Questions—Verbal Battle Between Lawyers.

Two Thirds Interest in Hill Line Is Transferred to Northern Pacific and Great Northern—Ownership of Balance a Mystery.

The Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway company has sold a one-third interest in its entire properties and lines to the Northern Pacific Railroad company. The deed conveying these interests was placed on file at Vancouver today. It is said another one-third interest will within the next few days be conveyed in the same manner to the Great Northern Railway company. The ownership of the remaining 33 1/3 per cent is not divulged.

The transferring of a one-third interest in the north bank road to each of the Northern and Great Northern railway companies is a matter of considerable importance. It has always been supposed that the road was jointly owned by three parties, to wit, the two big railroad systems comprising the Hill interests in the extreme northwest.

Despite the apparent harmony between the systems controlled by the Hill crowd, there is usually to be found within the inner circles of these corporations one dominant controlling power that is linked directly to a single corporation. In this instance it is the Great Northern.

Not since the Great Northern Securities case has there been so much talk of the possibility that some day the government will step in and decree to him a divorce from the triple alliance between Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington. It is not surprising that the consideration named in the transfer of a one-third interest in the north bank road to the Northern Pacific is $1,500,000. This nominal sum does not, of course, represent 33 1/3 per cent of the value of the property, but it is intended for the Great Northern's third interest will probably be the same sum. The real ownership will remain with the two big railroad systems. The other one-third interest, and in all probability these men are officers of the Great Northern Railway company.

The election of delegates to the national Republican convention already looms large in the path of the new county central committee from Multnomah county. Over that point and over the conduct of the county campaign there is liable to be much trouble when the county central committee holds its meeting at the headquarters in the Marquam building tonight.

There is a distinct division of sentiment among the county committeemen as to the question of the delegates to the state convention, the issue hanging on whether the delegates from the county shall go pledged to Taft or to Cameron. On the one hand is the Fulton contingent who want the state delegation pledged to Taft; on the other the Bourne bunch who do not want the delegates to be pledged.

Coming down to strictly county affairs there is a good deal of internal feeling regarding the conduct of the county campaign. Some of the county candidates, George J. Cameron, candidate for district attorney reported against the number, have come to the conclusion that the entire strength of the county central committee is to be put in the support of H. M. Calkins for United States senator while the other candidates on the ticket will be left to shift for themselves.

It is whispered that there will be warm things done at the meeting of the committee to protect the wing of the committee is spread over the whole Republican ticket.

That is the sentiment that the advocates of party harmony are now upholding. Judge Cameron, chairman of the committee, will have to steer his way. He says that he does not care about the same view of the situation. He says that from what he has gathered of the way things are running all of the candidates are to be left to make their own fight. He says that the committee does not exercise a great deal of power anyway; that if of the money he has turned over to it in the past two or three years was practically money thrown away, so that it does not make much difference which way the campaign is conducted.

Cameron to See Stevens.

It is the intention of Judge Cameron to have a conference with Sheriff Stevens and others of the candidates on the county ticket this afternoon, when the matter will be discussed and a plan of action will be made against Calkins. It is not given that the whole matter will be taken care of it will in all probability result in the central committee being left alone with the senatorial fight on its hands, while the other candidates, or most of them, will go their own way, either banded together for mutual protection and assistance or alone each man for himself. As to this, however, is the fight over the election of delegates to the state convention. All of Senator Fulton's friends will see the senatorial fight, they also, in line with Fulton's leadings, want a Taft delegation. Address to see the senatorial delegate. They also, in line with Fulton's leadings, want a Taft delegation. Address to see the senatorial delegate.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal, 357 State Street.)

Salem, Or., April 29.—Much interest was manifested in the contest for May queen at Willamette university, which resulted in the election of Miss Hazel Caldwell of Lausanne hall.

Miss Hazel Caldwell.

William M. Calkins, brother of the Republican nominee for United States senator, is the leading candidate for chairman of the Republican state central committee, and in all probability will be elected to that position at the meeting of the committee, which is being held this afternoon.

The active management of Mr. Calkins' campaign for the chairmanship, and it is argued that he is the logical man to be put in charge of the fight.

Friends of Senator Fulton are also joining in this talk and are working with the same object because of the attitude of the senator which has been to give all his allegiance to the nominee. There is some rivalry over the position of secretary of the state committee, however. Charles E. Lockwood, who has been secretary of some club or other for a long time, wants to be chosen secretary of the state committee. If Mr. Calkins is elected chairman, Lockwood is to be made a member of the central committee. His place, however, having been the announcement of Mr. Calkins when he was elected a member of the state central committee. Mr. Calkins' secretary of the Union Republican club, would also like to have the position, and has the support of several of the committeemen. James Cole is also being mentioned for the place.

Opens Senatorial Fight.

The organization of the committee this afternoon by the election of a chairman and secretary means the active opening of the senatorial campaign on the part of H. M. Calkins. The candidate for chairman, according to an opinion given by the state committee, is to be disposed of the state committee, and that he will be guided in his itinerary over the state by the wishes of the state committee.

As soon as the organization is effected and the plans for the campaign are made, the candidate for chairman, Mr. Calkins, will lay his plans for starting his campaign, and will at once start on his tour of the state. It is expected that his route will be mapped out within a couple of days.

The state committee will open headquarters at the meeting of the campaign in the interests of Calkins and the other Republican candidates on the state ticket.

Committeemen Are Active.

Some of the committeemen have threatened to forsake the meeting unless this assurance is given, while from several quarters complaints are being made that campaign contributions asked for will redound to the benefit of Mr. Calkins and not to the ticket generally.

As the use of my putting up $150 or such an amount unless I am going to get some results from it is the way one candidate voices his sentiment, he does not think it is worth it to put up unless the money is to be spent to help me out. I could use it to pay my own expenses and get out of the state. I would not be more good than it will if it is to be paid to the central committee and then spent altogether on the senatorial fight. It is the best of us to shift for ourselves. It looks like the wise thing for me to do would be to spend my own money for myself.

Bourne Gains Converts.

It may be said that Bourne has won many converts who have argued that Bourne ought to be sent back at the head of the Oregon delegation because he will put up the expense of the delegation in regard to the convention. Multnomah county has 47 delegates to the state convention, a big block of votes in regard to the senatorial fight. It is expected that the Bourne faction to which faction shall prevail at the meeting tonight. From present indications it would appear that the Bourne faction is in control of things and that the county delegation will be uninterested when the state convention meets.

DISHOPS TO DINE IN BARQUETAL

The new banquet hall of the Portland Commercial club will be occupied by a representative gathering of members of the Episcopal church in the Pacific northwest Thursday, May 31. Bishops and delegates to the primary council of the eighth missionary department will dine together. The bishops of California, Nevada, Arizona, Idaho, Utah, Spokane, Olympia, eastern Oregon and Oregon and officers of the New York board will attend. Several interesting addresses will be made.

The price of tickets has been placed at $1 and may be had from Dr. Whitehead, Dekum building. The committee having the dinner in charge is composed of Rodney Gilliam, George S. Whitelide and F. C. Sellwood.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN WILL CELEBRATE

May day will be celebrated by Swedish-Americans of Portland by a social and festival in Arion hall Friday evening, May 1, under the auspices of the Swedish-American National league. ### DEATH TAKES AWAY ANOTHER PIONEER

Simon Blumauer, a Well-Known Portland Merchant, Dies.

Simon Blumauer, an Oregon pioneer of 1852 and a prosperous Portland merchant for nearly half a century, died at his home, Sixteenth and Morrison streets, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, of general debility. Mr. Blumauer was 86 years old and a native of Bavaria. He came to America in 1847, and to Oregon five years later. In 1853 he returned to New York and was married to Miss Molly Fadelshelmer. He leaves three sons, Sol, Philip and Moses Blumauer, one daughter, Mrs. Mary May, and two brothers, Sigmund and Joseph B., all of whom were present at the death.

Mr. Blumauer was one of the most public-spirited merchants in Portland and was widely known for his charitable disposition. He put up the first three-story brick building in the city, at the corner of Front and Alder streets—in Portland. He was also active in organizing Temple Beth Israel, the cornerstone of the temple at Twelfth and Main streets.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from Temple Beth Israel, of which he was president for many years. Interment will be in the Jewish cemetery.

QUINTESSENCE OF BARKS ON DISPLAY

Little Dogs and Big Dogs, Short Dogs and Tall Dogs Wait for Prizes.

Fashionable dogdom is on parade today and to the delight of everyone but a few disgruntled and noisy collies it was learned that the list of police society has been enlarged to nearly 250 eligible.

It was demonstrated when the ninth annual dog show of the Portland Kennel club opened at 2 1/2 this afternoon in the garage at Fifteenth and Washington streets. Aristocratic dogs of the Pacific coast have been waiting for the show since the first of the year. A fashionable spot on the coast has its quota of representatives, from the silky black dogs of the English pointer to the kennel to the swaggy English spaniel from the Victoria and Vancouver (British Columbia) kennels.

Airedales Come to Front.

By far the most important event of the show aside from the increase in the list of dogs that one can safely bark to is the fact that it is whispered gently that the Airedales are the most ultra-exclusive smart set any longer. The Airedales have put their noses out to be seen by the judges and the show kennel took notice whenever a new Airedale entry arrived, while several English setters were heard to sniff audibly when the Airedales were shown. The Airedales and the Newfoundlands, St. Bernards and other larger breeds, the pointers and setters and tomorrow morning the really Sacred Sixteen—the Airedales, the terriers and the fancier breeds of smaller dogs.

This morning there was a great confusion of dogs, kennel keepers, judges and pressmen, trying to get the entries all in place and in readiness for this afternoon's opening. The show kennel took notice whenever a new Airedale entry arrived, while several English setters were heard to sniff audibly when the Airedales were shown. The Airedales and the Newfoundlands, St. Bernards and other larger breeds, the pointers and setters and tomorrow morning the really Sacred Sixteen—the Airedales, the terriers and the fancier breeds of smaller dogs.

Award Prizes Tomorrow.

Conspicuous among the collies—all of whom were conspicuous by their noise—was Glen Tana Squire, of Spokane, a litter brother of the dog owned by J. Pierpont Morgan which took nearly all the collie prizes in the eastern shows last year. An Irish terrier that attracted much favorable comment was the most successful from every standpoint.

The judging will be done in a ring placed in one corner of the building, with seats arranged around it for the spectators. The awarding of prizes will be completed by noon tomorrow in all probability.

It is by far the best show the Portland Kennel club has had and Portland is to be the most successful from every standpoint.

Sent Reform School.

Fred Willard has been committed to the state reform school by Judge Gantenbein in the juvenile court. He possessed a bicycle and a small sum of money. He is 15 years of age.

MAILED NOT TO BE PROPERLY MARKED

Thousands Neglected to Mark Ballots for Certain Candidates.

Figures compiled by the county clerk's office force from the poll books of the recent primary election show that 20,164 voters cast their ballots. This is a much larger total than was generally estimated and more than the vote cast for candidates for any one office, even for United States senator or district attorney, for which offices the hottest fights were made, showing that thousands of voters neglected to mark their ballots for many of the offices.

The vote cast is considered remarkable, in view of the disagreeable day and the total registration of 31,436. The increase to two-thirds of the registered vote was cast. The Republicans polled approximately 72 per cent of the vote, the Democrats 28 per cent.

The east side leads the west side precincts by 1,623 votes. Following are the figures in regard to the precincts:

East side—Republicans 4,278, Democrats 1,895; total 6,173.

West side—Republicans 7,268, Democrats 3,222; total 10,490.

County—Republicans 1,945, Democrats 306; total 2,251.

Registration in general is still exceedingly low at the office of the county clerk. So far, since the primaries, the increase has been 27 and all others 26. The books close in a few days more than two weeks.

TO SETTLE DISPUTE OVER TIDE LANDS

Washington, April 29.—For the purpose of reaching an early settlement of a question involving tidal lands value of millions of dollars in the state of Washington, Senators Ankeny and Piles of that state today conferred with President Roosevelt at his residence in the Tacoma lands are claimed by both the Puyallup Indians and the Washington state. The matter has been hanging fire for some time.

Loss of Appetite

Is common when the blood needs purifying and enriching, for then the blood fails to give the digestive organs the stimulus necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is pre-eminent the medicine to take. It makes the blood pure and rich, and strengthens all the digestive organs.

"I was all run down and had no appetite. After taking one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla I could eat anything I wished." Mrs. Amanda Fenner, Oneo, Conn.

Accept no substitute for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Insist on having Hood's. Get it today. In liquid or tablet form. 100 Doses $1.

WEATHER REPORT IS ISSUED BY BUREAU

The weather bureau issued its regular monthly report of data concerning May weather this morning and about 11 o'clock. That anything in the weather line is liable to happen during the month.

Some Mays have rolled around with the thermometer at 98 degrees, others again have been as frigid as 22, as for instance on May 10, 1890, when a cold day some damage. The average precipitation for the month is 2.45 inches, but in May 1917 it rained 6.0 inches, and in 1914 the precipitation measured only .59 of an inch.

POLICE WATCH FOR DYNAMITERS

San Francisco Authorities Trailing Man They Suspect of Dynamiting.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 29.—A mysterious Italian whom the police believe to be one of the dynamiters whose engine of destruction wrecked the house occupied by James L. Gallagher, chief witness for the graft prosecution, is being closely watched by the police and will probably be taken into custody.

Information was conveyed to the detectives that the Italian was closely associated with William, who is now held in the Oakland city prison and the first inquiry developed that he was working in the city. His movements are suspicious in that he is in the city all day and only ventures forth at night. Other facts known to the police convince them that they are on the track of an important arrest, which will supply a strong link in their chain of evidence.

WATCH WOMAN LEAVE HOUSE, THEN ROB IT

A burglar entered the residence of A. L. Murgally, 541 West Park street, between 10 and 11 o'clock yesterday morning and took $100 worth of jewelry, clothing and other valuables. The burglar entered before 11 o'clock and her husband entered it before 11 o'clock. When Mrs. Murgally went out she noticed three men standing in the front of the house. They were seen to enter the house and she saw where she put the key, and lost no time in entering the house by the front door.

Two watches and a ring were taken from the residence of E. D. McIntyre, 1914 Division street, and a number of petty thieves seems to be increasing every day, the room sneaks being especially active.

JACKSON DEMOCRATS ORIGINAL BRYAN MEN

Medford, Or., April 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—I notice in The Journal of the 26th inst. that Douglas county Democrats fired the first gun for Bryan in Oregon. I beg leave to correct the statement. On the 17th of March, 1908, the Democrats of Jackson county met in convention at Medford, Oregon, and elected delegates to the state convention and instructed them to vote for national delegate to be instructed for W. J. Bryan. The delegates elected are: John Orth, ex-county clerk; Charles Prim, ex-county judge; D. H. Miller, ex-county treasurer.

Mystery Surrounds Telegram Received by Father of Mrs. J. R. Ellis, a Former Portland Beauty, Announcing Woman's Death.

Is pretty Mrs. J. R. Ellis who, as Polly Kinney, was known as a Portland beauty, dead in Los Angeles, driven to suicide by the alleged persecution of her husband? Or was the telegram received by her step-father, R. L. Kinney, Sunday evening, announcing her sudden death in the California city, merely a hoax?

Mr. Kinney has gone to Los Angeles to learn for himself the fate of his step-daughter.

Telegrams which he has been sending to various persons in Los Angeles have been driven to it by the attempt of Kinney to get to Los Angeles to learn what he could of the alleged death of the young woman.

According to Miss Anna Johnson, housekeeper at the Kinney home, in Mrs. Ellis is dead it is by her own hand. Miss Johnson says that frequently the young girl to whom she had been assigned she were dead so that she might escape her troubles and the persecution that had followed her since her first marriage.

Both Mr. Kinney and Mr. Beesa say that if Mrs. Ellis is really dead she has a number of relatives in Los Angeles who would have her arrested for bigamy. "I cannot believe that she is dead," said Mr. Kinney, "but I have heard nothing and there has been no news since the one telegram received by Mr. Kinney Sunday night. This announced that she had suddenly died and was signed by Mrs. Kinney. If Mrs. Ellis is dead it is strange that we can hear nothing of the circumstances. I know one thing—she is not and has not been in Los Angeles under my name nor that of Mr. Ellis. If she has been there in all this time she must have been in hiding for some weeks to escape prosecution on a charge of bigamy. She has suddenly reappeared by her first husband J. R. Ellis, from whom she obtained a divorce which was later reversed by the supreme court. The meantime she had married Beesa.

MUNICIPAL BOARD ADVERSE TO BOXING

Association Members Believe Contests Are Held for Betting Purposes.

Portland, Or., April 28.—Hon. Mayor Lane, City Dear Sir—I am directed by the executive board of the Portland Municipal association to express to you our regret that the city council's announcement made through the press that the police would prevent the holding of a boxing exhibition in the city, has recently been held in this city.

These recent exhibitions have been under close investigation by this board and the city council is satisfied that the interests of clean, manly athletics have not been subserved by them. There is still in the minds of the police a feeling of hostility toward the exhibition. It is the opinion of the board that the money making motive in holding them is money making, while the spirit of betting and gambling is incidentally fostered. In fact, the money making motive is the main one. The position of the police is that the money making motive is the main one. ### BLOODED HORSES ON SALE AT FAIR GROUNDS

Any one who believes that king horse has been destroyed by the automobile should hasten over to the Lewis and Clark fair grounds and attend one session of the sale of blooded horses being conducted by the Portland Horse Sale company.

This morning there was a large crowd of enthusiasts who were ready to take part in or witness the bidding, and many women were seated on the benches surrounding the arena. The auctioneering is being done by R. L. Harrison and W. Higginbotham of Kentucky, both of whom are well known to the particularly fine bred animals are being sold. Among the more prominent buyers are J. W. Miller, Samuel Hill and Leonard Lang. There are many eastern buyers at the sale, and bidding is being done in dollars and cents.

This morning's sales were devoted to roadsters, single and pair, and more blooded animals will be shown this afternoon.

"HOLD!" SAYS ROBBER, "DITTO," SAYS JUDGE

"Hold him Smith, hold him!" These words remembered prominently by John Miller, who was robbed of $720 a week ago, caused C. H. Smith, a negro, to be held under $1000 bond to appear before the grand jury after he had been indicted in the robbery. Smith's attorney, C. A. Petrain, was able to produce a man who was the most active in the robbery, cry out "Hold him Smith," to his accomplices who had fled from the robbery. Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the governor will address the residents in Baker county.

FINE FOR COMPLEXION

A sallow skin and dull eyes are the direct result of faulty digestion. A prominent physician says that by a simple course of treatment this most undesirable condition can be cured. Relieve the stomach of its burden by using a digestive that will give rest and restore its vitality. For this the following prescription will be found to work wonders:

Two ounces essence of pepsin; one ounce castor compound; three ounces syrup of ginger. These to be mixed and shaken well in a six-ounce bottle and used in doses of from one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime.

The standard compound is a product of the Globe Pharmaceutical Co. of Chicago, and it as well as the other ingredients can be obtained from any well-stocked drug store. By following this treatment the rose of health will soon take the place of pallid complexion and the whole system feel improved.
