To correct an error in a recent news item which made it appear that Mr. Cogswell was insured in Oregon Life, Manager Samuel states that on December 7, 1906, his company paid its first and only death claim, which was the result of an accident. Four of its directors have died since that time but none of them were insured in the company and not a single death has since occurred among its policy holders. Officers and directors of Oregon Life, a majority of whom carry insurance in the company, are subjected to the same examinations as other applicants and unless up to the standard required are rejected the same as other people.

Willis L. Carmack, manager of the Diamond Ice company, the husband who laid for his wife's escort Thursday evening and felled him to the earth with a rock, will have a hearing in the municipal court next Wednesday. He is now under bonds. The charge against Carmack was made by his wife, Mrs. Hattie C. Carmack, who alleges that her husband threatened to kill her during the encounter. At the police station the ice man gave his name as D. H. Carmack and it is under this name that he will be tried. Mrs. Carmack, however, declares the man wanted is her husband, W. L. Carmack.

Should Oregon women vote? Rev. Clarence True Wilson says no; E. J. S. McAllister says yes. Tonight in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium they will give their reasons for holding these opposite opinions. The discussion is one of a series of educational presentations of the political issues to be voted on in June. The best arguments for and against the measure are presented with the purpose of giving every opportunity for an intelligent ballot in the coming election.

Consolidation of the street railway and electric light and power companies under the jurisdiction of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company began a year ago has at last been completed, and the Portland Railway, Light & Power company is now the holding company for three of the old corporations, the Portland General Electric, the Oregon Water Power & Railway company and the Portland Consolidated Railway company.

Claims aggregating nearly $40,000 have been filed in the county court against the estate of the late Columbus C. Barker, the pioneer lumberman. The claims are in the form of notes given within the last year in favor of the National German-American bank of Wausau, Wisconsin. One set of claims in Barker's own name amounts to $15,000, and another set, against the Barker-Stewart Lumber company, counts up $34,500.

Headquarters have been opened by the Democratic state central and the Democratic county central committees in the Hibernia building at Sixth and Washington streets. State Chairman Alex Sweek and County Chairman George H. Thomas have taken up their daily abode in the new headquarters, and from this time on will conduct the state and county campaign from there.

Edward Newbegin, J. R. K. Irwin and George W. Joseph have incorporated the Adam Appell Water Bag company. The capital stock is $25,000. The Collinge Hotel company, under a $10,000 capital, has been incorporated by L. Collinge, J. Crawford and E. Crampton.

On account of contradictory testimony "Prof." Wal Willson dodged punishment for violating the merchants' license ordinance in the municipal court today. Judge Cameron suspended sentence, but if there is any more trouble between Willson and his women clients a heavy sentence will be meted out. The charge of using abusive language was likewise continued for sentence.

Alleging that her husband deserted her in less than three months after they were married, Mrs. Aimee Gleason has begun suit for divorce from Bert Gleason, to whom she was married in Vancouver, Washington, in September, 1904. The last she heard of her husband he was in Memphis, Tennessee. She asks permission to resume her maiden name of Aimee Ma Loire.

The Journal will receive bids for a year or six months' contract for hauling and delivery of all mail, express and packages between The Journal office and cars, depots and postoffice, afternoons and Sunday morning. Particulars about wagons, deliveries and time consumed can be had by calling on the circulation manager, The Journal office, Fifth and Yamhill streets.

Fairview and Troutdale precincts, Nos. 99 and 102, are linked in a local option petition presented to the county clerk yesterday. They will therefore vote together on the liquor question on June 1, presuming that the required number of legal electors have signed the petition. The time for filing local option petitions expired last night, with an even dozen on the hook.

Philip Levy, a resident of Council Crest, has complained to the police that a number of cows and bulls are allowed to run at large on the crest. Mr. Levy has a small son, and he says that several times the boy's life has been endangered by the bulls. The poundmaster will keep a close eye on the cattle.

Delegates from the 16 Portland assemblies of the United Artisans have decided to celebrate Rose Fiesta week with a rousing open meeting at Arion hall on the night of June 4. Visiting members from the entire coast will be entertained, as well as city members and their friends. A good program is being arranged.

Special for young men at First Christian church, Park and Columbia, Sunday night. Mrs. Cornelia Barker will play several violin numbers. B. L. Markee, baritone, of Quincy, Illinois, will sing. Dr. Muckley will deliver his lecture on "The Hardest Fellow to Manage."

Inauguration of train service on the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company's new line between Riparia and Lewiston will be followed by a reduction of the river transportation service on the Snake river. Daily boats will be discontinued, and boats will leave each end of the line three times a week.

A boy, a candle and some paper got together in the basement of 329 West Park street at 8:50 a. m. today and caused a blaze which needed the services of the firemen. The boy was not injured and the paper was quickly extinguished.

PERSONAL.

Charles W. Myers, a Walla Walla real estate dealer, arrived in Portland this morning to join his wife and baby, who have been visiting at the homes of Mrs. Myers' father, Judge G. A. Hartman, in Irvington. Mr. Myers, who was a former well known inland empire newspaper man, says that the wheat and fruit crop of that section promises to surpass the yields of all former years.

DR. N. J. FULTON
NATUROPATH.

ONE PATIENT SAYS:

"I Have Taken Drugs Till I'm Sick"

Your doctor doubtless told you he was prescribing to make you well. But, however, you have at last had your eyes opened. There are thousands like you. They have taken drugs to be cured, but are now fairly steeped in poison.

Oh, That All the People's Eyes Were Opened!

But healing without drugs is a new departure, and the world is prone to hold fast to that which is evil. Drugs are evil.

They Are a Living Lie!

They are false pretenders. Poor humanity has no knowledge of their effects, whether for weal or woe, and closes its eyes, so to speak, and hies to the doctor, then the drug store, back to the home, gloomy and afflicted, and

Into the Coffin Goes Another Nail!

It is the drug decoction, the sickness continues, unless nature is stronger than its foe, the alleged remedy, and often the sufferer gives up in despair.

Cheer Up! Sick Ones

I CAN CURE YOU AND NEVER WILL GIVE A DRUG.

I have cured hundreds. I have cured every manner of disease of both men and women. I have taken the crippled rheumatic and made him well. I have taken the woman who has suffered the tortures of the doomed, and she is bright and happy now. I treat according to Nature—as was intended from the beginning—and that's the story.

MAYOR COMES BACK AT BENNETT

Executive Voices Broad Assertions Regarding Councilman's Work.

A clash of words which lasted four hours without adducing any testimony that would in any way fasten responsibility on the mayor, was the result of last night's session of the committee on judiciary and elections called for the purpose of investigating the purchase of $30,700 worth of cables for the fire department.

Mayor Lane was a witness last night and his advent on the stand was the signal for the councilmen to fire a volley of questions at him in the hope that he would become confused. At times a perfect babel of voices shouting questions rendered the whole proceeding a farce. When quiet would be restored Mayor Lane would answer the questions and in the end had the councilmen so badly befuddled they floundered hopelessly about.

Mayor Plays a Trump Card.

At the conclusion of Mayor Lane's testimony he threw a bomb into the camp of the councilmen by telling that if they were attempting to lay grounds for impeaching him he would be able to show by their actions they were guilty of violating the city charter in going on record by vindicating City Treasurer Werlein for placing city funds in local banks contrary to the charter provisions.

Councilman Bennett came in for a share of the mayor's charge when Mayor Lane stated that the councilman and ex-City Auditor T. C. Devlin had so handled the funds of the council while Bennett was chairman of the ways and means committee as to hamper the administration of the city's affairs.

At the conclusion of the hearing Bennett and Cellars declared that they believed City Electrician Savarian was responsible for the purchase of the cables which they contend should have been furnished to the city by the telephone companies. Rumors were made that the councilmen will recommend Savarian's dismissal, although on what ground they will base their recommend was not made clear last night.

Bluster About Campbell.

From what could be gathered the recommendation will be but an attempt to throw discredit upon the mayor's administration. The councilmen have nothing on which they could impeach the mayor and hope to embarrass him by discharging Savarian. But even this would only have a punitive effect. Savarian is a civil service appointee and while responsible to the mayor for his conduct, as all heads of departments are, his dismissal would not reflect discredit upon Mayor Lane.

In addition to Savarian the councilmen may also attempt to oust Chief Campbell. If they dismiss Savarian they have the same grounds for dismissing Campbell. The two were practically agreed on the purchase and each is responsible.

In the meantime, until the councilmen can make a report, nothing more than speculation can be indulged in as to what the committeemen will recommend. Dismissal of Savarian and Chief Campbell will precipitate the liveliest war that ever occurred around the city hall.

MEDFORD'S ORCHARDS LAUGH AT JACK FROST

Recent White Nights Left Jackson County Fruit Buds Unharmed.

A heavy frost in the vicinity of Medford was believed to have done serious damage to fruit buds, but later investigations lead to a different conclusion. F. H. Hopkins, proprietor of the famous Snowy Butte pear orchards near Central Point, came to Portland yesterday on business, and said there will be a big crop of fruits in the Rogue River valley.

"While there was some damage to pears, the buds show that there is a large percentage of the fruit unhurt, and that the pear crop will be ample. The frost did not hurt apples at all, and there is no occasion for alarm about the Rogue River valley apple crop."

Similar reports of frost damage to eastern Oregon wheat are proved to be unfounded. A. A. Morse, freight agent of the Harriman lines, has just returned from a trip through the wheat country inland, and he said the crop there this year will equal the big yield recorded in 1907.

NORRIS AND ROWE ONLY SHOW HERE THIS YEAR

In speaking of the greater Norris & Rowe circus, museum, menagerie, hippodrome and congress of nations which played an engagement in San Francisco this spring of 60 performances to 279,873 paid admissions, the Evening News of that city said in its issue of Monday, January 13:

"Norris & Rowe's circus has caught on, as it should. Time was when the mention of Norris & Rowe's name would elicit little attention, but that was in the days gone by. At their opening performances Saturday thousands were turned away, unable to secure standing room in the huge amphitheatre. Their circus is a big, bewildering fairyland of astounding, sensational acts, and so many of them that one is kept busy watching the various rings; the sensational aerialists, the events that are taking place upon the hippodrome track and the ludicrous antics of the scores of clowns. The big spectacle, the 'Congress of Nations,' is a dazzlingly beautiful creation in which performers from all quarters of the globe vie with each other for supremacy. The coloring of the wardrobe is very beautiful to behold. There are upwards of 200 circus champions with the big show. The engagement in this city is to be an indefinite one."

By special arrangement with the big amusement combine, Norris & Rowe's circus will be the only big show to visit this section of the country this year. They will present every act and feature, identical with those presented during the phenomenal run in San Francisco, when they exhibit in this city Monday and Tuesday, May 11 and 12, afternoon and night. A new big street parade will be given at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition.

Notice to the Boys and Girls of Portland and Vicinity.

We recently announced that we would, on May 4, 1908, make awards to the boys and girls returning the greatest number of "Swastika" labels taken from packages of biscuits, crackers and cakes of our manufacture. The contest closes on May 1. We have on exhibition in F. Dresser & Co.'s window, Fifth and Stark streets, the boys' and girls' high-grade bicycle offered as one of the awards.

Continue to save our "Swastika" labels—we will have something interesting for you later. Pacific Coast Biscuit company.
