Another week of splendid bargain giving. Happy are they who heed our advertising and reap the benefit of the daily offerings presented by the great Gevurtz stores—east and west side. You cannot afford to be a "Doubting Thomas" and miss all the good things going. Inspect the values and you'll be convinced. By buying in carload lots for the two great stores, we are able to sell at the price the others pay! We are the heaviest furniture shippers in the state. Three full carloads arrived last week and we now have eight more en route. Our freight bills are enormous. We must have money and you need the goods—let's get together. As to prices, just remember that—
