WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was celebrated in Baker City Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. and Mr. D. M. Kelly. Seventy and Center streets, when Miss Mary M. Kelly was married to William B. Hanson of Portland. The Rev. Father Kerr of St. Francis parish was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a gown of white organdie and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Rosa Krann who was dressed in white organdie and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. Clarence Grobeck was best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining room, where a wedding breakfast was served. Only the immediate members of the family and intimate friends were present at the ceremony, but in the afternoon a reception was held for the many friends. More than 150 guests called.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson are at home at 333 Benton street.

The following account was published in the Evening Times of Grand Forks, North Dakota, April 22: "Charming in its simplicity was the wedding which was solemnized today at the home of Sheriff and Mrs. O. G. Hanson on South Fifth street when their daughter, Miss Amanda, became the happy bride of Arthur Daniel Knutson, a prominent young man of Portland, Oregon. The house was richly beautiful in its adornment of fragrant blossoms and green, and at 4 o'clock, as the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. T. M. Hanson of Northwood ceased, the nuptial words were spoken by Rev. A. J. Hulst of the Zion Lutheran church. The charming bride looked beautiful in her handsome wedding gown of white embroidered swiss, trimmed in baby Irish lace, and carrying a large arm bouquet of bride's roses, while the groom wore the conventional black, and both were unattended. Those present to witness the ceremony were only the family connections, and immediately after the ceremony they repaired to the pretty dining room where an elaborate and bounteous wedding dinner was served. This evening the happy bride and groom will go by auto to Northwood where they will be the guests of relatives for several days, after which they will return to this city before leaving for their future home in Portland. The bride's traveling gown is blue with accessories to match and trimmings carried out in the tan shades. When leaving for Portland they will go by the way of the Twiss Cities and Chicago.

Broucher, who carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Frances Wagner acted as bridesmaid, and wore a pretty suit of garnet. The best man was Paul H. Davis, a brother of the bride, who was a member of the club. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with wood blossoms and ferns. The rest of the rooms were beautiful with the same decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left for Aurora the next day. They will make a short visit to different points before returning to Sellwood, where they will make their home for the present.

Miss Georgia Lancelotti and Horace E. Thomas were married at the home of the bride's parents at McMinnville last Tuesday. The home was prettily decorated, and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the parlors, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Bates, principal of Tualatin academy. Miss Bessie Bridwell of Portland, cousin of the bride, played the march, and little William Wagner, a friend of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. After a wedding luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left for a brief stay at the coast and will be at home after June 1 at the Columbian apartments in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are well known in Portland, where they attended Pacific university. Mr. Thomas is a newspaper man of Portland.

Moore of Kelso. Only immediate relatives were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated with apple blossoms and myrtle. COMING EVENTS

The combined British societies will hold their annual concert on Queen Victoria's birthday this year as heretofore. Since May 24 will fall on Sunday, the concert will be held Monday evening, May 25, in the large Armory hall. Four years ago the small hall was able to accommodate those taking part in the celebration of that day, but the last two years has so severely taxed its capacity that this year the committee has engaged the large hall. There will be decorations and booths as in former years. Every effort will be put forth to excel and make this year better than the other concerts. Mrs. Walter Root, Miss Lawler and other Portland talent will have charge of the program, which will consist of English, Scotch and Irish national songs. The Welsh Glee club is under training and will take a prominent part in the program.

The Cathedral Ladies' Aid society will give a charity ball Friday evening at Murdock hall. The proceeds will go toward furnishing the orphanage dormitory at Oswego. These dances are particularly popular with the young Catholic set.

in a direct line, often dating back 400 years. There is no division as in France; all falls to the heir, only here it is not the eldest but the youngest son who inherits. It is rare that a Bur (peasant) dies as reigning head. When he gets on in years he abdicates, in order to end his days in the Leibgedinghaus (dower house), which stands beside each Hof (steading). That he does so in favor of his youngest son is very sensible; were it the elder he would have no peace, for as soon as he married he would try to induce his parents to retire just at an age when power is sweetest and best exercised. For this reason the practical farmers of bygone generations decided to hand over the succession to the youngest, since when Benjamin is a full grown man father Jacob is old and glad to rest. This law of inheritance goes by the name of Vortel. Should the heir of his own free will desire to resign in favor of his elder brother the latter must buy the property from him. In such a case the younger may be termed a kind of Esau. No man will be better than the best he thinks of men.
