ADVERTISE PORTLAND
Dr. Stratton of Baltimore, wrote a story about this city and its people so good and so true that our Commercial Club paid him

$1,000
The story is a literary gem and should be read, not only by every resident of Portland, but by every citizen of these United States. This story has been printed by our Commercial Club in a neat little booklet, just the size to go in a small letter envelope.

100,000 Copies Will Be

GIVEN AWAY

To citizens of Portland for the purpose of a widespread distribution. Every letter that any resident of Oregon may write to anyone outside of the state should contain one of these little booklets. It can be made to take the place of a letter to your Eastern friends. It will tell them all you have wanted to write, but haven't had time.

These booklets will be distributed by

HARTMAN & THOMPSON
BANKERS, Chamber of Commerce.

Call there any day this week and get as many copies as you want; or phone your name and address, stating the number you can use, and they will be sent to you.
