CLYDE FULTON TO

Clyde G. Fulton, brother of Senator Charles W. Fulton, will reach Portland from Astoria tonight of tomorrow to take personal charge of the campaign for the election of a Taft delegation to the national convention. Incidentally the efforts of Mr. Fulton will be di-rected towards the election of Senator Fulton as leader of the delegation over the head of Senator Bourne, who is working for an uninstructed delegation and the election of himself chairman. Mr. Fulton will take the active man-agement of the work now being done by the Fulton forces, and will be in charge of the headquarters in the Imperial hotel. La Roche Jacquelin, Fr. bk. Newcastle, A. Young, manager of Senator Bourne's efforts to control the conven-tion, is much disgruntled and is work-ing all wires to hold Bourne's friends in the convention in line. In this he is looking to W. M. Cake and H. M. Cake, chairman of the state central commit-tee and senatorial candidate, for aid. If the Cakes do not deliver the convention there will be trouble from Bourne's di-rection, and Cake will be introduced to the Bourne snub when election day comes.
