Pirst Car Strawberries En Boute.

The first car of strawberries from California this season is due in Portland either tomorrow or Saturday. The car is being brought by Page & Son and the Pearson-Page company. Supplies in the south are showing quite a heavy increase and local receipts are likewise growing. Today's arrivals were so good that practically all sales of best berries were around $2 a craic. This included the "Dollars." The quality of the late arrivals from California is very fine and for this reason demand is better than heretofore.

Local strawberries are in somewhat larger supply with quality improving, but not yet up to the regular Oregon wandard. For this reason the price is not so high and went to 20c a box for the day. Present arrivals are mostly from Dillard.

Too Cold for Asparagus. Pirst Car Strawberries En Boute.

Too Cold for Asparagus.

Too Cold for Asparagus.

According to George Hughson, an extensive asparagus grower of Beaverton, weather conditions are too damp and cool to admit of liberal receipts. However, there were somewhat larger arrivals in the market today, but demand was good and prices held at 75c per dozen bunches for best.

Orange market is up another notch and the best fruit is today being quoted at $3.50 a box. Bell & Co. report in a car of fancy Rediand fruit this morning.

Rhubarb supplies are increasing again and the market is feeling somewhat blue with prices ruling between 2½ %3c a pound. Fine quality.

A Fourth street market is displaying the first arrivals of Oregon-grown garden peas this season.

Sharp Advance in Corn Prices.

Sharp Advance in Corn Prices. A sharp advance in the price of corn is shown today locally because of the recent upward movement in the east. By today's list the price of corn is moved up $1 a ton here. The new value is $34.50 a ton for whole and $35.50 for resolved.

There is nothing doing in the millstuff market because of a continuation of small supplies, due to the small num-ber of mills being operated. England's Hop Imports Greater.

The imports of hops into England and Europe have been greatly increased of late, although there has been but little activity on the coast. Most of the hops sent abroad lately had been te estimates of the reduction in acreate in this state, which has been placed it about 10 per cent. Backward weather in England has stopped all work in the vards there up to date. Resorts from Germany are favorable."

BEER DRINKING LESS WITH LESS HOPS USED

Beer drinking is on the wane according to the latest figures issued by the government. According to the internal revenue reports the beer sales for March, 1908, reached 4,152,846 bales compared with 4,847,067 for March, 1907. This shows a decrease of 494,221 barrels, one of the most serious decreases in recent years. The hop trade attributes the showing to the increase in local option and prohibition sections.

According to latest informafacturers the chances are very of good for the United States to produce one of its heaviest fruit crops this season. On this account the price of fruit jars is advancing and one manufacturer . is quoting values from 40 per cent to 50 per cent higher than . the opening figures. To some extent this is due to the closing of the factories in the days of the of depression last fall and now of that fruit crop prospects are so good makers fear a shortage in supplies. ************

ittle activity on the coast. Most of the hops sent abroad lately had been purchased some time ago and have been in storage. Since the opening of the season to May 2 the exports from the geason to May 2 the exports from the United States reached 95,220 bales, compared with 62,160 bales for the same period a year ago. The imports into the United States have not been increasing of late, although they are greater than a year ago to date. Since Beptember 1 the United States has imported 11,558 bales compared with 1,536 bales for the same period in 1907. The New York Producers' Price Current in its latest issue gives the following of the hop market:

"Locally there has only been a little inquiry for choice Pacifics, but we hear of no transactions having taken place. In New York state we hear of some buying at $621c, about 300 or 400 bales having been sold. From the coast crop reports continue favorable. In New York state growers are working in their rards and report the outlook very farorable. There is no change from the late estimates of the reduction in acretize in this state, which has been placed it about 16 per cent. Tacoma Wheat Market.

Los Angeles, May 7.—With but a few navels left and a brisk demand for all of them the season for this variety of oranges is approaching a whirlwind close, prices advancing sharply and buyers scrambling for the remainder of the crop. The navel season will end within 10 days—a month ahead of last year. Only 500 cars of navels are left in the state. The shipments to date have been about 2,000 shead of those at this time a year ago. On the whole, the season has been satisfactory to the growers.

The total citrus crop for the season will amount to over 28,000 cars, of which more than 5,000 will be lemons. Navels total about 17,000 cars, Valencias will be about 2,000 carloads.

Hanging Scaffolds.

From System.

With the modern skyscraping office building has come a new form of building scaffold. Instead of constructing the scaffold from below, which is impossible in the cases of buildings ranging from 10 to 50 stories, platforms are suspended from the steel girders above. On these swinging platforms the bricklayers work and the scaffold is raised as the work progresses.

TO SLEEP; IS KILLED

Thomas Trent Selects Railroad Track for Bed and Dies Under Wheels.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., May 7 .- Crawling ender a Northern Pacific locomotive to sleep in the yards at Yacolt night before last, Thomas Trent, a woodchopper, met his death yesterday morning. He. was run over by the engine, both legs cut off and internal injuries -received from which he died while being brought to this city by train.

Trent had been drinking heavily for several days, it is said and was partially under the influence of liquor when he rawled under the engine for an all night's sleep, thinking that he would be awake before the watchman steamed up in the morning. The night watchman, as was his custom, climbed into the cab and opened the throttle to move the huge engine a few hundred feet up the track, crushing the man to death.

Trent was well known here, being a native of Clarke county. He is survived by four brothers. The body is held at the Vancouver undertaking parlors until arrangements for the funeral are made. He was aged 35 years and unmarried.
