"Furniture Advertising" was the topic discussed at the meeting of the Portland Ad club last evening in the board room of the Commercial Club building. The advertising of the furniture dealers of the city was criticised, sometimes in plain terms, the purpose being to show the weak points as well as the strong. Among the speakers were L. M. Head, James M. Reeves, R. M. Hall, W. P. Powell, Arthur Little and C. J. Foster. A number of the wives and friends of the members were present, and at 10 o'clock the session adjourned.

Examination for the position of transfer in the bureau of engraving and printing, at a salary of $2,100 per year, will be held by the United States covered service today, this city, June 3. This calls for a knowledge of cleaning and hardening steel plates and dies. On June 16 will be held an examination for 10 lithographic stone and plate polishers, at $2.50 per day, and on the same date applicants for land law clerk in the forest service, at entrance salaries ranging from $900 to $1,600, will be given the test. Applications for any of these places must be made to Z. A. Leigh at the Portland postoffice.

The Chapman school was closed yesterday by Dr. Pohl, city health officer, after a thorough examination had disclosed some cases of smallpox in the school. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Rand reported to Dr. Pohl that he had been called to take charge of a girl suffering with smallpox. He reported that the parents of the child believed that contagion had been introduced at Chapman school. Dr. Pohl made a thorough examination of the students this morning, and discovered that there were nine cases now in the school. She therefore ordered the school closed and fumigated.

R. W. Gillett was convicted by a jury in the circuit court yesterday afternoon on the charge of passing a forged check on L. Helming of Troutdale. Charles Lynd, who was jointly charged with the crime, was acquitted. The testimony showed the men were intoxicated when they secured the money on the check, which was drawn on a Vancouver bank for $25. Gillett was once an engineer and Lynd a conductor. The convicted man is 58 years old. The penalty fixed by law is from two to 20 years in the penitentiary.

An ordinance introduced by Councilman Menefee in the city council yesterday to grant the Portland Railway, Light & Power company the right to lay double tracks on East Tenth street from East Morrison to Belmont, was vetoed by the mayor because it did not comply with the city charter in affording the city a guarantee that the work would be done. It was then amended and a bond of $2,000 given by the company. The amended ordinance was passed.

Effective May 7, 1908, the Portland Railway, Light & Power company has received the following order affecting the Portland railway division only: "Effective May 7, 1908, smoking on closed cars will be allowed only on rear platform. Conductors will close the rear doors closed as much as possible and will not allow passengers to stand on the rear platform to the extent of blocking either the platform or the steps, thus interfering with passengers entering or leaving the car."

The revised prices at Terrace Park not only make the $400 lots yours for $320 but four of the lots can be handled for $20 monthly. The real estate company are jubilant over receiving authority from the owners to cut the prices enormously in order to sell the remaining 120 lots by June 8. This is the biggest bargain session in high-class residence lots that has ever occurred here. For the odd lots were sold before noon today.

BOLD ROBBER IS CAUGHT BY POLICE

Miller Confesses to Entering Four Houses—Tried to Sell His Loot.

In the person of W. D. Miller the police believe they have apprehended one of the boldest house robbers who ever operated in Portland. Of the four robberies to which he confessed this morning all have the "Raffles" tinge. The total value of the plunder is estimated at between $700 and $800. Miller's capture was effected this morning by Detective Smith at 50 Third street, where he was attempting to dispose of some of the stolen goods. Smith was detailed on the case April 25, when Mrs. Ellen O'Neil, 531 Washington street, informed the police that her house had twice been entered on the same day and several valuable articles taken.

Just watch the history of that resolution. I let it pass without comment just to let the people see what its countenance will do. It was most improper to do such a thing when a man is to be tried for his life with nothing as yet but circumstantial evidence. Such was Mayor Lane's reply to Councilman Baker yesterday afternoon after the council meeting. This was in answer to Baker's query as to how the mayor liked the resolution. The resolution in question was one which Councilman Baker had introduced calling upon the council to commend the untiring zeal which the police department had displayed in its efforts to clear up the mystery of the murder of Nathan Wolff and to secure the arrest and conviction of the murderer. Following is the resolution, which was passed unanimously: "Whereas, on Friday evening, May 1, 1908, within the corporate limits of the city of Portland, a worthy citizen and merchant of the city of Portland was foully and brutally murdered at his place of business within the business district of the city of Portland, about the hour of 6:30 p. m. on said day, and whereas, the crime was a detective time and for some time thereafter, one of the most mysterious that has occurred in the criminal annals of the Pacific northwest; and whereas, through the untiring vigilance of the police force of the city of Portland, and particularly the detective department thereof, he has brought to light the cause of said murder and the arrest of the alleged murderer, and whereas, the council of the city of Portland, and particularly the detective department thereof, should receive commendation for the good work done; Now therefore, The council of the city of Portland, at a regular meeting assembled, representing the citizens of the city of Portland, does hereby by this resolution, officially and publicly commend the police force of the city, and particularly the detective branch thereof, for their untiring efforts to clear up the mystery of the murder of the late Nathan Wolff, and to secure the apprehension and conviction of the alleged murderer. "It is further resolved that upon the passage of this resolution a copy thereof shall be handed to the chief of police who shall cause the same to be read before the three watches of police upon their assembling, and particularly to the detective force of the city of Portland within one day from the passage of this resolution."

WOMAN'S PRESS CLUB REELECTS OFFICERS
The Woman's Press club of Oregon held its annual meeting Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. M. L. T. Hildon, 723 Wasco street. After the officers of the club had made their annual reports, the president, Mrs. Lucia Faxon Addison, gave the address of the evening. It was a brilliant paper and was listened to with marked attention. At its close the election of officers took place. By unanimous vote it was agreed that the secretary cast the ballots for the officers then in service, and they were reelected for the ensuing year. They are: Mrs. Lucia Faxon Addison, president; Mrs. Emma Sickle Marshall, vice-president; Mrs. Bessie Guinness Stone, recording secretary; Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, corresponding secretary, and Miss Frances Eleanor Gotshall, treasurer.

ABOTT SEAT SALE BEGINS TOMORROW
Tomorrow (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock, at the box office of the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the advance seat sale will open for the coming engagement of Miss Bessie Abbott, the famous coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. This charming vocalist will be heard in a grand concert recital at the above theatre next Monday evening, May 11. She will be assisted by brilliant pianists, Edith Hanson (formerly here with the Chicago Grand Opera Company) and Arthur Schnitzler, the noted English cellist. Hans Thoresen, this city artist, will assist in providing one of the greatest treats for music-lovers have had in years.
