MURPHY SPEEDS OARSMEN SUNDAY

Veteran Trainer Able to Assume Charge of Rowing Club Four.

Coach Dan Murphy will have the Portland senior four out for hard work Sunday morning and from that time until the big regatta on Lake Washington, July 3 and 4, there will be no let up for the local oarsmen. Murphy will spend the major portion of his time whipping the seniors into shape, but does not anticipate much trouble since each one of the quartet is in splendid form for the races.

Every man on the team has spent from two to three seasons working under the veteran trainer. Dr. Loomis, Art Allen and Captain Craig McMicken were coached by Dan in Portland for the past two years, and Rex Conant, the old Stanford stroke, had his workout under Dan when the latter brought the Cardinal crew to the highest point of perfection it ever reached.

Dan stepped off the steamer Northland from San Francisco early in the week, tired and weak from his long confinement as a result of typhoid fever. He has been resting at his apartments on the east side and will enter the launch to follow the crew Sunday in very fair condition, considering his protracted illness.

He's Not a Dead One.

"I don't want people to think they've got a dead one," said Dan this morning. "I know that I am feeble but it will be only a matter of a week or so before I can yell at the boys through a megaphone with my accustomed vigor. I have no fear of the result of the race on Lake Washington in July. I know these boys and I know what they can do. I honestly believe they comprise the fastest four that ever filled a Portland shell, and that is going some.

"I think the boys are in very good shape just now. They have been rowing Sundays and since all are familiar with my method of instruction it has been easy for them to move through the water on the clockwork plan.

"When the senior four goes up against the University of Washington crew during the Rose Festival they will be in almost midseason form. I do not believe that Washington can beat us over the mile and a half course. With six weeks of good hard practice we could probably beat Washington by two or three lengths."

Dan knows what he is talking about, too, and what he says can be swallowed with a grain of salt. Murphy is one of the best coaches in the United States and his engagements have always been a succession of victories.

Gloss in Great Form.

Dan finds Ed Gloss in great form this season. In fact he is enthusiastic over the trial trips taken by Ed in the single. Gloss has made some fast time and that he will regain lost honors as coast champion from Lang of Vancouver seems certain.

Gloss will also be one of the men in the senior doubles, the other to be chosen after a thorough tryout has been made.

Dan will have Art Allen in the junior singles, as he is considered the best man in the club in this event. Allen and Rex Conant will take care of the junior doubles. These young men are very evenly matched in weight and experience and with Conant's great strength will send the shell through the water at a great rate.

While there are a large number of candidates for the junior four the most likely candidates for seats in the shell at present appear to be Sterling, stroke, Dent, bow, and Wettenberg and Tully in the other seats.

Coach Murphy has made several trips over town during the week to renew acquaintance with his old friends. He is compelled to walk with a stick and while it chafes him to be in such a poor physical condition he is cheerful over his rapid recovery. Dan was taken down in October last and spent four months in bed. Since February he has been trying to regain his former health.

THREE RECORDS FALL AT PULLMAN'S MEET

Hammer Throw, Discuss and Short Hurdles Show Better Marks.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pullman, Wash., May 9.—Despite a cold wind the interscholastic field meet opened yesterday under auspicous circumstances. Already three established records for northwest high school athletics have been broken in the preliminaries. Harry Conover of Waitsburg beat the record held by Anderson of Seattle in the hammer-throw by one foot, throwing 141.5 feet. Englehorn of Spokane beat the record of Rowley of Everett in the discus by two inches with a throw of 104.5 feet.

One fifth of a second was clipped from the record of 17 3-5 seconds, held by Coyle of Seattle, in the 120-yard hurdles by Eckert of Lewiston. The hammer and discus events were finals, all other events yesterday being preliminaries. Semi-finals occurred this morning and finals this afternoon.

Spokane seems certain of many points in the finals. Hunter having qualified in the 50, 100 and 220-yard dashes; D. Cohen in the 100 and the 220; Englehorn in the 120 and the 220 hurdles and the shot put; Jensen in the 120 hurdles, and Cohen and Hunter in the broad jump. Knapp of Oakesdale was first yesterday in the broad jump.

W. S. C. cadets furnished guards for the event, restraining the crowds from rushing on the field.

The winners will probably be scattered among the 29 high schools present, the meet not being one-sided as last year.

LARRY KEENE BLANKS EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., May 9.—Larry Keene, the angel-faced pitcher for Salem High school, is a phenomenon. In a splendid game here yesterday afternoon with Eugene High school Keene struck out 12 men and walked but one. The only hit was secured in the ninth. The game resulted in a clean victory for Salem by a score of 2 to 0. Keene seems always to be in form. He never has an off day.

Wilson for Eugene pitched a good game but fielded his position poorly. He struck out seven and walked five. Gabrielson for Salem made two of three errors made by his team. Eugene also had three errors checked up against its team when the game was over.

Behnke-Walker Wins.

The Behnke-Walker Business college is cutting quite a figure in baseball circles. Wednesday they defeated the Portland academy in a game, 3 to 0. They deserve credit as the field on which they played was muddy and during the game a heavy rain was falling. Their success was due to the good work of their batters. The lineup:

HONEYMAN SEES YELLOW PERILS

Portland Man Watches the Chinks Cross Bats With Tossers From Nippon.

The Honolulu Bulletin of April 28 last gives an interesting account of Walter B. Honeyman, who saw the Japanese and Chinese play baseball in Hawaii several weeks ago. It follows:

"I watched those games at Aala park last Sunday and I was the most surprised man in Honolulu,' said Walter B. Honeyman of Portland, Oregon, yesterday. Mr. Honeyman is a member of the firm of Honeyman Hardware company, one of the largest wholesale and retail hardware dealers in the northwest. He is a young man yet, and is an excellent exponent of the national game, having been a member of the crack Multnomah baseball team for a number of years. He, with is wife, has been here for the past week or so enjoying the splendid climate of the paradise of the Pacific.

"'Why, I never thought of ever seeing a team of Chinese lined up against an aggregation composed of the little brown men from Japan,' he said, 'and the class of ball that those lads put up is the real thing. If I had three or four of those fellows up north I know they could make good in either the Tri-City or State league. I am a confirmed fan—there is no getting around that—but I also feel that I understand and can tell a ball player when I see him. Those fellows are players, too. They seem to know the fine points of the game, although a good man who has had experience on the coast could give them a great deal of help. They lack good consistent team work. Of course that is one of the hardest things to get in a bunch of fellows who are not in the game all the time. But if they had a man who himself knew how to drill them along this line I believe it would be a great help to baseball in the islands.'

"Walter Honeyman is well known in the northwest not only in business but also as a ball player of ability. He held down a position on the Multnomah club team when that aggregation was walking away with everything that crossed sticks with them. Therefore he knows whereof he speaks, and it behooves the local teams concerned to sit up and take notice with regard to his advice about team work."

Tacoma 1, Seattle 0.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Wash., May 8—The Tigers got even with Seattle today, when after nine innings of snappy playing they defeated them 1 to 0. Allen, the Seattle twirler, seemed to have a shade the worst of the lucky part of the game and lost. Burnett scored Tacoma's single tally in the fourth, when through slow fielding on the part of Seattle's outfielders he was allowed to stretch his single to a double. An infield hit advanced him to third and when Bennett, the Seattle second baseman, tried for a double play instead of playing for the plate he scored. There were a number of sensational features to the game, Frisk's running catch being especially bright. The score:

Tacoma	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	3	0

Aberdeen 4, Butte 1.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Aberdeen, Wash., May 8—Four straight games from the Butte "Miners" is the total which today's victory gives the locals. Better hitting, which has characterized the locals' playing all week, was again in evidence and the game was easily won. Dick Boettinger sent the ball out of the lot for the first home run of the season, scoring Van Buren ahead of him.

The score:

WHITMAN READY TO TRIM OREGON

Missionaries Will Claim the Northwest Championship If Defeat Lemon Yellow.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., May 9—Whitman track athletes are bending every energy to be in the best possible condition for the big track meet with University of Oregon next week. When the two teams meet on Ankeny field May 13, it will be for the track championship of the four northwest states of Montana, Washington, Idaho and Oregon. Whitman can already claim the title to the first three since winning the triangular meet at Pullman last week. Her athletes are anxious to add Oregon to the list.

Whitman never had a stronger track team than she has this year. The only weak place is in the distance runs, where there is nobody of first class quality. But in the dashes, jumps, and weights she is strong and may be expected to make a great showing against the Oregon athletes.

Philbrook and Martin are the two men who are depended upon to win the most points for the missionaries. Martin ought to be good for first in the 100 and 220, with records of 10 flat and 22 flat in the triangular meet last week. He has also shown up strong in the broad jump, breaking the college record in that event and winning first in the Pullman meet.

Philbrook, the big 'varsity captain and star football man, is good for places in the high and low hurdles, as well as the high jump, shot put and discus. In the Washington track meet he was the principal point winner.

Graham, who won first in the hammer both at Seattle and Pullman, will be depended upon to win honors again. Foster has been going almost 11 feet in the pole vault, surprising all who have seen his rapid development. Lewis is doing almost as well in the broad jump as Martin. Barnes and Oldright are good for places in the quarter. Borleske, Willson, Hawley and Felthouse are other track men who will have a chance of winning a few points.

Taken as a whole the team will be in good condition to meet Oregon. "Spud" Murphy, who has been coaching them, is confident that they can do themselves justice and he is hopeful of the outcome. The Oregon meet is considered the hardest of the three which Whitman has had scheduled this year. Excitement over it among the student body as well as with the business men of the city is running high.

OAKLAND BLANKS THE ANGELS, TAKING LEAD

Sporting Notes.

Charles Griffin, the Australian featherweight champion, who whipped Joe Bowker in London recently, is coming across the water for a fight with Abe Attell.

Packey McFarland says he will retire after two more fights. Nelson and Gans are his choice for opponents and it is possible that one of them may retire the stockyards' wonder before he has a chance to make a Patti farewell.

Jock Phenicio, the crack Johnstown bantam, has retired from the ring. Jock's record shows 38 victories and eight draws, without a decision against him.

Coach C. S. Titus of Princeton is busy getting his crews in shape for the interclass rowing regatta in June. Bowling is destined to become a great sport at Princeton before long.

If Joe Gans wins over Unholz next week he will take on Battling Nelson, but not for more than 25 rounds.

I CURE
