

THOUGH it is such a short time since Easter released society from its Lenten vows of quiet and abstinence, the departure of so many prominent people seems to have upset society so generally for entertaining that everything given has been small and informal. No large functions marked the past week, and the only large fashionable gathering was noted at the symphony concert Wednesday evening. There a number of matrons entertained parties of their friends. A brief resume of the week's doings, which were written in detail in the daily issues show that Mrs. Frank Hart entertained Thursday with a tea for Mrs. James Canby, at which were present Mrs. Canby's school day friends. Mrs. Ernest Tucker and Miss Sally Lewis poured tea. Mrs. E. A. Nitchey gave a pretty bridge luncheon the same day for 12 matrons. Mrs. E. C. Shevlin gave a luncheon at the golf club for Mrs. Frank Towle, Miss Flora Felschner entertained at luncheon yesterday for Miss Rhetstrom and Miss Marx. The graduating class of Portland academy gave its annual prom Friday evening, a pretty affair indeed.

Mr. Marquardt is a violinist of ability and was concertmaster this winter for the Seattle Symphony orchestra which has just disbanded. Mme. Marquardt is a harp soloist, a woman of pleasing appearance and charming personality. She is well informed, a brilliant conversationalist and a talented musician and is much in demand by those who have not met her. They are to remain here about three weeks.

The Washington Post of Thursday, April 23, gave an interesting account of a marriage there of some prominence. Mr. Smith and his family are well known in Portland society and his bride is a southerner of good family. Mrs. Preston C. Smith and Leland V. Smith went from Portland to attend the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to Oregon about the first of June. Following is the wedding account: "St. John's church was the scene last evening of one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when Miss Lacey Stuart Johnston, daughter of Mrs. S. Lacey Johnston, became the bride of Preston W. Smith, of Portland, Oregon. The ceremony, which took place at 8 o'clock, was performed by the rector, Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith. The church was filled with guests of lavender rhododendrons, and clusters of white lilies against a background of palms, making a most effective decoration. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Anderson B. Lacey, was attired in a simple gown of white chiffon, trimmed with old lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white lilies, sweetpeas and lilies of the valley. Her ornaments were a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom, and a unique bracelet, which is an heirloom in his family. She was attended by Miss Ruth Sybered, daughter of New York, who wore a white frock and carried a Wateau Beger hat filled with various kinds of spring flowers. Leland Vincent Smith, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. After the ceremony there was an informal reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson B. Lacey at the Fortner, and then Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Washington for their honeymoon trip of a week or 10 days. They will return to Portland, former congressman and district attorney. He is a great-grandson of Major Robert Searcy, of Revolutionary fame. News of the engagement of Miss Sally Kirkland and Lieutenant Edward S. Hartshorn of the Fourteenth Infantry, U. S. A., has reached Portland. Miss Kirkland was a popular belle at the Vancouver post, where she lived with her brother, Lieutenant Roy Kirkland of the same regiment. The marriage will be celebrated in Manila in June. Mr. Hartshorn was one of the ushers at the wedding of Mrs. Harriet Sheldon Gregg recently.

The annual prom, given Friday night by the seniors of Portland academy was a delightful affair. Most of the alumni and the older students of the academy were present. The gymnasium hall was beautifully decorated with quantities of cedar boughs and flowers and pennants hiding the walls. Streamers of violet and gold and electric lights were draped from the ceiling, and the lights were shaded in the same colors. An elaborate supper was served downstairs in the auditorium. The patronesses for the evening were Mrs. William Ladd, Mrs. Charles F. Swigert, Mrs. James F. Ewing, Mrs. W. F. G. Tucher, Mrs. W. R. Mackenzie, Mrs. J. C. Hazzard, Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. H. Biddle, Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. Joseph W. Hill and Mrs. R. Wilcox. The young women who assisted in receiving were Miss Alice Sprague, Miss Maude Smith, Miss M. Crusoe, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Stella Mangus and Miss Christine John. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Steele Jr. gave a farewell surprise party at their home, 308 Monroe street, Saturday evening, a week ago, in honor of Mrs. May Seed, who left for the east last Monday morning to visit relatives. She was the happy recipient of many leather postal cards given her as souvenirs of the occasion. The evening was spent in games and music, after which a delicious supper was served in the dining room. The following were the presenters: Mrs. M. Seed, Mrs. Marie C. Bachrodt, Mrs. N. J. Shely, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Bernard, Mr. Hoopes, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Steele, Mrs. George, Mr. and Mrs. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. George Seed, Mr. and Mrs. George Porth, Mr. and Mrs. G. Seed Jr., Miss Mamie Porth, Miss Mildred Porth, Lester Seed, Andrew Mager, Wilbur Porth, A. H. Harting and Masters Clarence and Carlos Steele.

The Tuesday Afternoon club met with Mrs. Harry Vorse. After the business session the following program was in charge of the hostess: Quotations from Bryant in response to roll call; "Evolution of Literary Freedom," Mrs. A. A. Bailey; "Evolution of Science, 1760-1837," Mrs. A. J. Steele; "Philosophy of the Period," Mrs. G. C. Eshelman; selected readings from Bryant, Mrs. Mary S. Myers, Miss E. A. Packard, from Los Angeles, Miss Helen Peters, from The Dalles, were guests of the club. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Peters. The annual business meeting and picnic of the club will take place at Columbia Park next Tuesday. Take St. Johns cars at Third and Alder at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Binford were pleasantly surprised at their home, 47 East Seventeenth street north, last Monday evening, by the Merry-makers, in honor of their wedding anniversary. They were presented with a handsome piece of cut glass. Progressive whist was played during the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Welles, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Binford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Crawford, Miss Meta LeGrand, Miss Munro, Miss Beas Munro, Miss Hazel Lee, Miss Gurline Olson, T. LeGrand, G. Barka, Newton Morgan, Alvah Grout and Clyde Shields. The entertainment given Thursday by the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the ladies' auxiliary in the Catholic Young Men's hall, for the benefit of an unfortunate family, was a brilliant success. Mrs. Rose Weinberger's orchestra added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boothe Lamont are enjoying their honeymoon in the east. Last week they were at the Waldorf Astoria, after a trip through Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia, Atlanta, City and other points. Mrs. Lamont was Miss Maud Hahn. Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Prudhomme are receiving congratulations over the birth of their first son, Henry Bane Prudhomme, at 755 Fern avenue, last Tuesday. Mrs. Prudhomme was Miss Beatrice Armstrong, a niece of Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt. Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell and her daughter, Mrs. John Rounsefell, have arrived from Los Angeles and are now at home at 1109 Vaughn street. The Rockwell home, Mrs. Rockwell has just recovered from a serious illness. Governor and Mrs. George E. Chamberlain are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their second grandchild, a small boy who came to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bennington Levy are spending their honeymoon in San Francisco. Mrs. Levy was Miss Hannah Marie Smith, niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Birdsell. Dr. and Mrs. Alan Welch Smith and their little daughter went to California last week. Dr. Smith's stay will last only a week, but Mrs. Smith will remain to visit friends. Mr. and Mrs. John Ker returned last week from their wedding trip. They are at home for the present at Elton Court. Mrs. Ker was Miss Laura Dunns. Miss Inez Cumming is in New York visiting her sister, Mrs. Jones, the famous singer, known in public as Shanna Cumming, her maiden name. Mrs. and Mrs. R. B. Steele Jr. of 368 Monroe street, entertained last Saturday evening for Mrs. M. Seed, who leaves soon for the east to spend a year. Several of Mrs. Seed's friends were in for the evening and cards were played. An elaborate supper was served in the dining-room. Mrs. Edward K. Root left last Thursday evening for the Danmore, which was her fleet, and will visit Los Angeles before her return. Miss Edna Keylor of Walla Walla is visiting Miss Evelyn Rigler. Miss Keylor has just returned from Germany. Mrs. Walter Reed has taken apartments at the Danmore, which was her home when it was the old Nortonia. Mrs. Charles Carter, prominent in Pendleton society, is the guest of Mrs. A. S. Norton at the Nortonia. Miss Lola Steers and Miss Wynne Coman have returned from New York after a three weeks' trip. Miss Helen Barber has returned from a two months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Lewis R. Alderman. Mrs. M. D. Windom has gone to California to be present at the fleet festivities. Mrs. Rubin P. Graham has sent out cards for a five hundred party May 20. Mrs. F. Steinhilber was hostess for her fortnightly bridge club Friday. Mrs. Joseph N. Teal has returned from a visit to southern Oregon. Mrs. Walter Holt has cards out for bridge next Thursday afternoon. Dom J. Zan is ill with appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Events of the week: Mrs. R. K. Warren and Miss Harriet Yarwood were hostesses at a reception given in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, the occasion being in honor of the winning section of the membership contest of the Warren Bible class. Through the efficient work of each section, 138 names have been added to the class roll since the first Sunday in October. Miss Harriet Yarwood, captain of the winning section, known as the "Gleaners," received the hearty congratulations of all present, and the evening was most delightfully spent socially. The Warren orchestra, composed of seven young women and three young men, under the leadership of Professor J. H. Cowan, gave a choice musical program, which was enthusiastically received, and several numbers were repeated at the urgent request of the guests. The parlors were profusely decorated with drooping branches of hollyhock, Oregon grape and ferns, with flowers in every nook and corner. The members of Mrs. Warren's class have started a collection of being most happy in entertaining and the 300 guests attested to this fact by remaining till a late hour. Mrs. Warren and Miss Yarwood received many congratulations upon the success of the evening, which will long be remembered. The young women who assisted in receiving were Miss Alice Sprague, Miss Maude Smith, Miss M. Crusoe, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Stella Mangus and Miss Christine John. Mr. and Mrs. W. B.
