

POLICE SPIRIT YOUNG MAN AWAY

Alleged Kidnaping at Seat- tle of R. W. Fullerton, Lumberman's Son.

Seattle, May 12.—Mystery surrounds the alleged arrest and the sudden spirit-ing away from Seattle Saturday night of R. W. Fullerton, son of a multi-millionaire lumberman of St. Louis, who came here a year ago to learn the lumber business. J. B. Collins, manager of the local branch, reported the matter to the police and asked that a warrant be issued, alleging kidnaping.
Collins said two men had come to the office representing themselves as officers from New York, except never advised Fullerton, who is 25 years old, to step out into the hall, and through some door he entered an auto in which he is alleged to have been hurried to the steamer Watson, which was on the point of leaving for San Francisco.
Collins says he thinks the threat referred to some trouble which Fullerton and that they want to get him to the eastern city so they could serve a summons on him in a civil suit.
From another source it was learned that the two men were Officers Fitzsimmons and Fogarty, from the office of District Attorney William T. De-Loach in New York, and that they had a warrant charging young Fullerton with resistance on a promise to marry it not to be located who the woman in the case is. The two officers are said to have had the necessary papers from Governor Hughes of New York and Governor Mead of Washington.
San Francisco, May 12.—In custody of Detective Sergeant Norman Fitzsimmons of the New York police department, Robert W. Fullerton, son of a St.
Louis millionaire, arrived in San Francisco on the steamer Watson this morning. Fitzsimmons, who holds a warrant for Fullerton's arrest on a charge referred to by a young woman in New York, laughs at the sensational story of kidnaping.

PLAGUE INCREASING

Business is practically suspended, stores closed and residences shuttered.
None ventures abroad except under advised escort. Food is hardly to be had on any terms. Whoever will enter with supplies, but having suffered, none can leave the city.
Even for the enormous prices offered for provisions few will accept the certainty of imprisonment and the risk of death.
From miles away the smoke can be seen by day and the flames by night of burning houses. The plague has been, of burning lumber piles from which the people are trying to drive the disease-carrying rats. The plague has been in the oil-soaked streets—a plan adopted by the authorities as the readiest and speediest means of ridding the community of the accumulation of filth which was probably mainly responsible for the epidemic.
Most of the workmen, who pan-dered by fear of the plague and rendered desperate by famine, broke through the military cordon and scattered through the surrounding country, have been herded together and driven back by the troops.
Dr. Gomez Ferrago of La Guayra, who first diagnosed the disease as bubonic plague and was thrown in prison by President Castro only to be released later when it became evident that his judgment was correct, is leading the sanitary workers in their efforts to stamp out the epidemic.
President Castro has declared a blockade of the port, regular shipping is suspended, even the blockade runners are few. The La Guayra railroad has ceased operation.
Foreign residents and wealthy Venezuelans who are able to leave their business are quitting the country in large numbers, however, lest the epidemic spread.

RAILWAY COMMISSION ON THE BOYD HEARING

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., May 12.—Oswald West and T. K. Campbell, members of the railroad commission, left last night for Portland, where they will be joined by Judge E. Aitchison, and all will go to Hugo to hear a complaint that has been filed by A. A. Marvel regarding depot facilities at Boyd. Boyd is a small station near Duran on the Great Southern railroad. According to the complaints received, and the hearing will be conducted for the purpose of determining what the town of Boyd requires.

JAPAN HURT BY FINANCIAL PANIC

Leading Financiers in Con- ference Over Impaired National Credit.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tokio, May 12.—The finance bureau has called the leading Japanese financiers into conference concerning the country's commercial condition.
Though it is denied that the national credit is endangered, no attempt is made to conceal the fact that business is shockingly disorganized. Government bonds have dropped from 90 to 80 since the stringency began and private securities are still more seriously depressed.
Capitalists blame the government for adopting important financial policies, especially the nationalization of the railroads, without consulting representatives of the business interests.
They are doing their best, however, to relieve the situation.
The Tokio press is expressing much satisfaction at the conclusion of the arbitration treaty with America, believing that the world of the good relations really existing between the two countries and probably affect financial conditions favorably.

ROOSEVELT DEMOCRACY

to compel the legislature of this state to meet the wishes of the public.
I brought added stamping of feet and exclamations of "You're right, governor."
"My opponents charge that I am not a Democrat, that I am not a Republican, and that I cannot accomplish anything for this state if sent back to congress as senator," said Governor Chamberlain, "I am a Democrat, and in answer to their charges I want to add that the Republicans who are opposing everything and every measure President Roosevelt advocates, are accomplishing.
Governor Offers a Pledge.
"A few weeks ago John Sharp Williams presented a petition in the house signed by 166 Democrats. He implored the Republicans of the house to join them, and promised that if only 36 of their number would help they would put through practically all of the measures which President Roosevelt has urged as unrelenting and unyielding to that request in behalf of the people of this nation. Are the Republicans accomplishing anything, or helping the president in his fight for the people?
Is Roosevelt a Republican, or are such men as Aldrich, Platt, and others of like color, who are sailing under the G. O. P. flag, but who are blocking and checkmating every measure which is good of the people that Roosevelt advances—are they Republicans and the kind which Oregon is clamoring for to represent this state?
"When elected to the senate, I want to say, I shall be found marching under the banner of Roosevelt, and in behalf of the people of this country, for he is representing the true Democracy of the hour, and every measure of his opposition from the Republicans, and the Republicans alone." Asks People to Watch Cake.
Governor Chamberlain called attention to the fact that Cake had received his nomination at the hands of the people through a vigorous advocacy of that nomination, and that since receiving the nomination he had repudiated the people of Oregon, who had ever confronted the people of Oregon. He insisted that this issue was still paramount and urged the hundreds of voters present to force Mr. Cake, when he came to Hesperia to define his present position and explain why he had thrown down the one great principle for which the people of the state had fought, and on which they had won approval. He left here this morning for Condon, where he will speak tonight, concluding his eastern Oregon campaign at Hood River Wednesday evening.

LINEMEN CALL OFF TELEPHONE STRIKE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Butte, Mont., May 12.—The strike of the linemen and operators of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, which has been on for more than a year, was declared off today on a referendum vote taken by the Electrical Workers' union. An agreement was reached by a compromise. The end of the strike means the end of the telephone war in Utah, Idaho and Wyoming.

It Is Possible to Reduce Flesh Without Diet- ing or Exercise

It is not only possible but being done everywhere. Exercise, unless carefully supervised by a physician and expert Athletic Director, may easily do a deal of harm to the great overburdened fleshy body. The untutored fat man and woman determined to get thin are only too likely to overstrain their fat encumbered muscles by their awkward, ill-directed gymnastics and so cause nerve and muscle troubles that may develop into something far worse than a little much flesh. Some way with dieting.
Starvation is certainly effective if kept up long and faithfully enough, but it is almost certain to injure the nutritive process and so weaken the patient constitutionally, while it is abominable torture, of course, especially to a good-natured, high-living, fleshy man or woman.
Fortunately neither dieting nor exercising are required or desired if one uses the right remedy for reducing fat, and strange to say, the remedy is a simple, wholesome home mixture, the ingredients of which are obtainable at any drug store for a few cents. This mixture is as follows: 1/2 oz. Maltolite, 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract Casaria, Aromatico, 3/4 oz. Syrup Simplex, and the proper amount to take is one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. This mixture takes the fat off rapidly but naturally, so that no wrinkles are formed and no harm is done to the stomach. This is not the case with "Patent" or "secret" advertised remedies.

NECK BROKEN FOR 35 YEARS

Senator Money Didn't Know It Until Osteopath Made the Discovery.

Washington, May 11.—The fact that Senator Money of Mississippi passed through life for 35 years with a diagnosed neck, and did not know it, became known to some of his associates today and created general astonishment. The condition was discovered when the senator began to take osteopathic treatment for neuralgia. He has suffered intensely from that ailment for many years.
At the first battle of Franklin, in April, 1862, Mr. Money was a cavalryman in the Confederate service. While riding through the streets he was struck by a bullet that circled around his ribs, doing no other injury. The shock was such that Mr. Money was thrown from his horse and struck on his head. Being helpless he was captured and taken to a Federal prison.
He did not ask for hospital treatment, was exchanged later, rejoined his troop and fought until the war closed.
Years passed and Mr. Money entered the senate. Neuralgia had taken a firm hold of him and his eyesight had grown so bad as to approximate blindness.
Senator Forsaker advised Mr. Money to try osteopathy, which was just beginning to attract much attention. Mr.
Forsaker's daughter had been benefited by the treatment.
Senator Money went to New York, accompanied by his son, and visited the osteopath. Almost the doctor's first remark was:
"Why, senator, you have had your neck broken."
Senator Money denied all knowledge of such an infliction. The physician declared that one of the vertebrae had been entirely pushed from the top of the column supporting the head and was in a wrong position. He demonstrated that the muscles on one side of the neck were flabby and useless.
"If you had been old enough to take part in the civil war," said the physician, "I would say you were thrown from a horse and sustained the broken neck."
"That is just exactly what did happen," replied Senator Money, recalling the injury at Franklin.
"I can cure your neck," said the physician, "it will require a but a moment's time."
The osteopath laid the senator on a table, took hold of the misplaced vertebra with both hands and snapped it into proper position. The noise made by the bone swinging into place was like the report of a pistol. The senator's son, who was looking out of the window, turned in alarm, saying:
"Father, have you been firing a pistol."
"No," replied the senator, "I have just had it set."
The physician told Senator Money that he must exercise precaution to the weakened muscles regained their normal strength. He was cautioned not to turn his head in looking at anything, but to move the entire body. The instructions were observed, and the neck apparently became as strong as it was 25 years before the operation.
The resumption of osteopathic treatment for neuralgia caused the strange facts to become known.

TROOPS TO AID NEW GOVERNOR

Shah Sends Soldiers to Tab- riz to Seat Executive Natives Routed.

Teheran, Persia, May 12.—The shah is hurrying troops to Tabriz to help the newly appointed governor of the town from which the inhabitants drove him after an all-day battle.
"Why the official was unacceptable is not explained in messages from the scene of the disturbance. His military escort was attacked when he entered the town, however, overpowered by forces of numbers and forced to flee. The governor and his troops are awaiting the reinforcements arriving outside the town. It is expected that the government will be made of the rioters. Tabriz is meanwhile reported in a condition bordering on anarchy."

PASTOR, LOCKED OUT, TO SEEK INJUNCTION

While Dr. Frye Plans Suit to Oust Rival, Sexton Is Sworn in as Guard Pulpit.

Trenton, N. J., May 11.—Dr. William A. Frye, appointed last March by the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference to the pastorate of the First church, this city, has decided on a novel plan of procedure to oust the Rev.
Dr. Charles O. Jones, who came here from Rome, Georgia, to supply the pulpit at the instance of the official members of the congregation.
Dr. Frye has engaged counsel and will start a suit to enjoin the paying of salary to Dr. Jones. If he can cut off his rival's income, he believes he can gain possession of the pulpit. Dr.
Jones and the officers of the First church are determined to resist. Dr.
Frye at any cost, although the conference is behind the duly appointed pastor.
The sexton of the church has been sworn in as a special policeman to guard the pulpit from intrusion. He has also placed new locks on the doors.

Painting As An Investment

AN outlay of money can always be divided into two classes: Expense and Investment. It is always Expense when you do not receive full value for your money. It is an Investment when you do receive full value. All paints can be classed in this manner. Some are simply Expense. Others are an Investment. Some fall short of requirements. Others more than fulfill all requirements. Lowe Brothers "High Standard" Liquid Paint is an Investment paint. It more than fulfills all requirements. With 35 years of experience in paint-making Lowe Brothers produce a paint that has a better covering capacity and will cover more square feet to the gallon than other paint. Every can of "High Standard" Liquid Paint is full U. S. Standard measurement. All the ingredients used in "High Standard" Paint are the best quality obtainable. All the ingenuity, all the skill, all the best mechanical appliances are employed to make "High Standard" Liquid Paint the best that money or brains can produce. The "Little Blue Flag" is the Lowe Brothers emblem of quality. It is on every can of "High Standard" Paint and Varnish—there's a special product for every need. Just as dependable as "High Standard" Liquid Paint are Lowe Brothers Varnishes and Enamels, for exterior or interior finish, and Vernicol, a stain and finish for floors and wood work. They are the best values to be had. Let us make suggestions for your color combination. Ask for color cards. See sample panels.

WOMEN AS LAWYERS' CLERKS.

From the London Evening Standard. Great interest was shown in the two women who were in attendance in Justice Neville's court during the hearing of the action concerning the identity of Mrs. Taylor, the banker's widow. Nearly dressed in blue, the two, armed with documents which they placed in front of them on the solicitors' bench, keenly followed every point in the case, and when ever called on to produce a document whisked out the right paper in the twinkling of an eye. They also made notes, gave hints to counsel, and in every way attended strictly to business. They were in the employment of Mr. Ballard of Clifford's Inn, one of the solicitors engaged in the case.

INVESTIGATE SIZE OF ACTRESSES' CORSETS

Journalist, on Strange Quest, Discovers That Mile. Poinre Has Seventeen-Inch Waist.

Paris, May 11.—With a view to assisting women to select suitable corsets for summer wear an American journalist journeying in Paris examined those of the prettiest actresses appearing on the stage in the French capital. Here are the results of his investigation, the measurements being in centimeters:

The smallest waist is Mile. Polaire's, 43 (about 17 inches), the extreme being Jeanne Bloch's, 55 (about 22 inches). Others are Mile. Villars, 47; Spinally's, 48; Delmar's, 48; Lutz's, 49; Cassidy's, 50; Greuze's, 50; Fauvette's, 50; Lucy Jousset's, 53; Clary Desly's, 53; Dorger's, 54; Campion's, 55; Nealy's, 56; Collette Willy's, 57; Germaine Gallons, 58; Genevieve Vix's, 58, and Jeanne Sautier's, 60.

The opening up of the Columbia is of more importance to Portland than the construction of the Panama canal.
