

WAGNER GOES TO S. & S. TO ST. P. TO ST. P. TO ST. P.

Neuman has a family and lives at 435 First street. It is a singular coincidence that Max Hermann, also a Hebrew second-hand dealer, who is now in a critical condition as a result of an attack similar to Neuman's, lives in the same block on the same street.

Hermann is a middle-aged Hebrew of something under the average size. He has a wife and four children. His shop is at 287 Couch street and he handles all kinds of second-hand goods, including jewelry, furniture and hardware.

When the stranger asked Hermann to show him the stove the storekeeper went to the window and handed over the key in order to take it out for the customer's inspection. As he did so he says a cloth was thrown over his face and he felt a blow on the head. He lost consciousness and did not know what had happened until he was taken to the hospital.

Hermann was seen sitting in his store at 7 o'clock by a passer-by who noticed that the man was apparently unconscious. He was covered with blood. He stopped in the store and found that the pawnbroker was badly cut across the forehead and the back of the head. He called the police, Patrolmen Keilman and Amundson came to the store and Hermann was removed to St. Vincent's hospital.

When examined by the physicians there it was found that he had been struck across the forehead with a heavy blunt instrument, probably a piece of gas pipe. On Hermann's forehead is a very deep ragged gash, while on the back of the head there is a heavy bruise on the head, evidently caused when Hermann fell to the floor under the murderous onslaught of his assailant. The physicians say there is no concussion, but Hermann's life is still hanging in the balance.

Detectives Hellyer, Coleman and Kay were assigned to the case and arrested a suspect who gave the name of W. Wagner. He is a railroad man and in good standing in his union of the B. R. T. He denies knowing anything of the assault, but was identified last night as the man who sold them a Knight's K. Pyralis charm, and two pawnbrokers with shops near that of Hermann, who say he tried to sell them a Knight's K. Pyralis charm and he refused to give him what he asked became abusive.

He was taken to the hospital this morning by the detectives in the hope that he might be identified completely by Hermann. The latter, however, is in a very bad condition and could not be positive that Wagner is the man who assaulted him. Hermann says Wagner looks like him but has evidently changed his clothes. Wagner is dressed in dark suit and is being watched by a detective who is waiting to take the place of the soft gray one he was wearing.

The detective department thinks that Wagner has been passing bad checks. They have a check for $18, drawn on the First National bank, in the name of the company and signed by Paul Phillips. They think that Wagner passed the check in the effort to secure new shoes and a suit. He is a railroad man and is a railroad man out of work.

Hermann's gold watch and chain and his wallet containing his cash were found by the police. He has no remembrance of their having been taken, but knows that the money was in his pocket when he was attacked. His family was unable to tell what might have been taken from the store.

CROWDS RUSH TO VIEW SCENE OF THE LAST SENSATION

Within a few minutes after the patrol wagon arrived, and Neuman insensible, was carried out of his shop, hundreds gathered around the side entrance on Couch street to gaze with curious eyes on the blood-stained floor, which was covered with footprints, and causing the belief that Neuman's brains had been beaten out.

Zimmerman Packing Plant, Just Acquired, Will Be Enlarged—Big Independent Company Does Not Fear Outcome of Suit to Annul the Franchise.

Negotiations between the Schwartzschild & Sulzberger company and Louis Zimmerman for the lease of the Zimmerman packing plant were concluded yesterday and the plant is now under the control of the big independent packers, who will operate it under government inspection at its full capacity.

Contracts will be let this week for building additional storage rooms and in addition the entire plant will be remodeled, repaired and renovated in order to meet the requirements of government inspection.

Application has been made for several government inspectors to be stationed at the plant. It is learned from an authoritative source that when the improvements to be made at once are completed, the Fulton plant will have a weekly capacity of 1,000 head of cattle and the same number of sheep, hogs and calves.

The plant will be operated by the independent packers as a separate institution and will be in no way connected with the parent company in Chicago. It is announced by an official of the company that fresh meats will be shipped from this point to all Pacific coast cities. Already arrangements are under way for establishing car routes to the Puget sound cities, Spokane and several of the larger California places.

It is understood today that the S. & S. company is not considering establishing a packing plant on the peninsula, but will build up and develop the South Portland center, increasing its size to meet the demands of the increasing volume of business.

The local officials of the S. & S. company express their opinion that the franchise under which the Zimmerman plant was being operated, and do not fear the outcome of the suit now in the state court, which it is sought to revoke the franchise.

When the state central committee arranged its call for a convention it was the delegates to the state held a convention in the city of Eugene. The county so it was generally supposed that the first named 13 of the 20 would be the delegates to the state held a convention in the city of Eugene.

Those who are considered not fit to sit in the state convention will be allowed by Smith to attend the national convention which meets in Portland at the same time but which will not have a great deal to do.

Illegality Is Alleged. The legality of the procedure adopted by Smith is questioned and there is much doubt if the Marion county delegation will be admitted to sit when the state convention opens in Eugene.

At the first meeting of the central committee of the time it was organized, there was much said that prevailed among the Republicans. It was conscientiously resolved by each and every one to support the late unpopular antismoking caused by the difference of opinion over the Statement No. 1 issue.

STATEMENT NO. 1 EXPURGATED

Will of Auto-Primary Convention in Marion Reversed by Smith.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., May 12.—Another number on the "harmony" program instituted in Marion county by Senator J. N. Smith, a leader in the Fulton faction, was pulled off Saturday when the executive committee presided over by Smith, met and voted out all the delegates to the state convention by the Republican party of Marion county in the convention held before the primary.

Friendship the antagonism is growing more intense as the election approaches. Marion county Republicans held a convention at the primary, among other things done 20 delegates were elected to the state convention. It was expected that the appointment between the counties would be and it was so arranged that 20 should be named and if the apportionment were less than 20 the first delegates named should be the legal delegates.

"NIGHT RIDERS" LICKED BY DAD

Ominous Warning of Amateur "Terror" Fails to Terrorize Man With Switch.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Owensville, Ind., May 12.—A farmer in Posey county planned to raise a crop of tobacco this year for home consumption only. His two sons, 13 and 11 years old, assigned to the job of night watchers over the crop, assumed the role of night riders. They cut a lot of lumber switches and placed them at the front door of the home. On the door they tacked this sign: "Old man, if you make any tobacco this year there will be a raised here. Night Riders."

From a window in the kitchen the father watched the work of the boys, and when they were fast asleep he stole into their rooms. In the trousers bag of one of the boys he found a bunch of switches, and on the seat of his pants was attached the following sign: "Night Riders: Meet me at barn at 7 o'clock and we will accomplish a bunch of switches. Old Man."

The boys met the father at the appointed hour.

San Francisco Will Probably Be Next Meeting Place of Grand Lodge.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Sacramento, May 12.—With about 250 visiting delegates and friends on hand, the 56th annual session of the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows opened in this city today. The program consisted of the appointing of committees, receiving of reports and conferring of degrees, the hard work of the convention not being scheduled to commence until Thursday.

Who it has not been decided on yet. It seems to be the feeling that San Francisco will get the next convention. Since the five other cities have had the sessions, but it is felt that the Bay City should receive the next convention. Just what Oakland, who made a strong bid last year, will accomplish is not known. Pasadena is also a strong bidder.

NEUMAN'S SKULL FRACTURED, BRAIN HEMORRHAGE FEARED

Examination of Neuman by City Physician Ziegler and Dr. McCormack showed that the skull had been fractured. A fracture two inches long and a quarter of an inch wide was found extending along the top of the head near the back and ending in the forehead. A bad contusion of the right ear was also noted, blood flowing freely from the ear cavity. Both eyes are badly blackened and swollen. The physicians fear hemorrhage of the brain. It is evident from the examination of the wounds that Neuman was struck from the rear. He has a very slight chance of recovery.

WANTS TO LOSE BRIDE MONEY

Former Supervisor Phillips Says He Does Not Think He Is Entitled to It.

San Francisco, May 12.—Evidence considered by the defense in the Ruef case, the highest importance to the little ex-boss was introduced at this morning's session of court, when ex-Supervisor Jennings Phillips for the alleged bribery of whom Ruef is on trial testified that he was not told that the money for his vote in favor of the franchise came from Ruef.

Phillips made some damaging statements against Ruef, but they have no bearing in the present case. Asked whether he had asked him to commit a wrongful act, Phillips declared that Ruef broached the Bay Cities Water company project, calling it the "biggest thing since the Civil War."

Witness said Theodore Halsey, outside man for the Pacific Telephone company, money or had he given it to Halsey, the question which he asked the latter replying that he had given the money to get out of his possession. The witness stated that in money matters he had been misled by Gallagher the mouthpiece of the board.

You need those scaly eruptions, those diseases which make their first appearance, not at birth, but years afterwards, may be the result of middle age—then there can be no longer any question that these forms of Eczema are curable.

CRIME WAVE SWATS LEBANON REAL HARD

CHANGE IN FOOD Works Wonders in Health.

It is worth knowing that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion. I followed instructions and now I am entirely well.

The reason this lady was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food is that it is predigested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using; it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system. If that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine.
