ARREST TEACHER TO VENT SPITE

School Directors Persecute Young Woman Who Demanded Her Salary.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Bakersfield, Cal., May 15.—Out of a school district squabble involving the board of trustees of Mojave and Miss Katherine Coghlan, late mistress of the public school there, has grown the arrest of the young woman on a charge of stealing the school's stars and stripes.

Miss Coghlan admits that the flag which used to flutter in the breeze from the top of the school building is in her possession; that she took it to give it a much needed mending. But the trustees could not see it that way and caused her arrest. Next Monday the quarrel between the trustees and Miss Coghlan will be resumed in Justice Heath's courtroom.

The differences between them rose originally over the teacher's request for nine instead of eight months' salary. The trustees insisted that she had been employed for eight months, while Miss Coghlan declared that one month should be added. When the trustees discovered that the flag was missing they seized upon this opportunity to oust her by causing her arrest.

DAN HART STIRS UP TROUBLE AT ATHENA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Athena, Or., May 15.—Dan Hart, who has just been released from the federal jail at Portland, where he was confined for nine months, had a saloon fight with Charles Matt, Wednesday, that caused his arrest. He was fined $50 before the city recorder. Soon after he went back to the saloon where the fight occurred and started a row with the bartender, Ed Thomas, who threw a billard ball at Hart. It struck him in the forehead, causing a wound that necessitated several stitches. No arrests were made after the second row.
