SEATTLE DENTIST

Guests at the Portland hotel last night were considerably alarmed wher Dr. E. A. Saisbury, said to be a promi-nent dentist of Seattle. Washington, be-came demented and kept up a continual harangue on the merits of chop suey and the failings of John D. Rockefeller, of Standard Oll fame. The night clerk no-tified the police and the dentist now occupies a cell in the city jaff. Bleep seems to be the least of his troubles, for all last night he kept the prisoners awake with his rapid-fire re-marks on chop suey and John D. This morning he varied the program by five or six imaginary plunges in chop suey. City Physician Ziegler was called to make an examination. He believes the man is suffering from a long dehauch. not a crowd frightened Jarvi away.

People will not live in great numbers more than one-half hour's time from the business sections of the city. Slow and irreg-ular service materially decreases the dwelling house area and the people crowd together. If the service is rapid and regular, the radius of the residence circle is enlarged and the dwelling house on a keen gallop to the grave. They are continually "filling up" on drugs that gnaw the stomach, poison the sys-tem and decay the brain. They are blindly following they know not what. The credulous nonentity consults the fortune teller on love and finance, the confiding patient the prescription writer for a Latin order to the druggist to sell him or her a'mysterious "something"-a puzzle-an enigma-in truth a vial of detriment-the seed of other ills.

Rush to the Casket Seven tenths of the sick of today are

No Drugs for Me

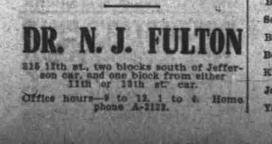

There ought to be none for any one. Sensible ones are discarding them entirely-shunning them as a viper. Nature has a remedy for everything. It is not the product of human genius. It is not enmeshed in "How much is there in it for me.", It is not selfishness, but

Scientific Essence of Nature

Scientifically applied. I have cured hundreds of persons by this method. All manner of diseases readily yield to its soothing and healing influences. And the cost is nothing as compared to the combined demands of the medical doctor and his ally, the druggist, who "sells the dope."

Rheumatism, Neuralgia

All stomach troubles, all kinds of female troubles, or any other disease, no matter what, will more readily yield to the Naturopathic treatment, than to any drugs or a million bettles of the stuff called patent medicines.

localities. They did not pay for many years. Some of them do not pay now, but substantial homes have sprung up, lining the various routes, and the people have availed themselves to a surprising extent of their opportunity to leave the crowded sections and still be within easy reach of their places of business.

Present conditions are a stronger argument than anything we can say to show the remarkable growth of the suburbs and the assistance given to it by the railways.
