SOCIAL activities have taken the form almost altogether of small, informal affairs. The Bessie Abbott concert Monday evening was the most fashionable public affair of the week and society was well represented there. Mrs. H. D. Green was one of the prominent entertainers and with her in her box were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reed, Miss Lang of The Dalles and W. D. Tyler. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Shaw entertained Miss Abbott and her manager, Mr. Story, after the concert at the Norton. They had known her in the past. Mrs. Green visited at the same home, as did Miss Abbott two years ago in San Francisco, when the entertainers forced the visiting Metropolitan singers to take refuge with their friends if they were fortunate enough to have any.

The events of the week reviewed in the Daily Issues were a bridge of five tables given by Mrs. Ernest Tucker Wednesday afternoon. The tables were bridges given by Mrs. Walter A. Holt Thursday of six tables at which Mrs. John C. Robinson and Mrs. L. W. Smith were the winners, and the annual prom given by the Allen Preparatory school Friday evening at Murlark hall.

Miss Florence Wolfe entertained yesterday with a luncheon of 13 covers for Miss Mildred Rheinstrom and Miss Cora Marx, whose engagements were announced not long since. The service was all in pink and the flowers used were sweet peas. Besides the two honor guests there were Miss Daisy Rosemer of San Francisco, Miss Mabel Beck, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Frances Janes, Miss Flora Fleischer, Miss Henrietta Lauer, Miss Hilda Hexter and Miss May Oppenheimer.

One of the prettiest teas was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. A. C. Pantton and Mrs. John A. Keating at the Pantton home, "Rosemont," in Portland Heights, in honor of Mrs. O. E. Mitchell of Atlanta, Georgia, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Keating. About 200 invited guests were present.

The rooms were beautiful with dogwood and Scotch broom. Mrs. Pantton arranged the tables with a white chignon heavily embroidered in pastel shades under white chignon. She carried red roses. Mrs. Keating wore a dress of pink and blue Dresden chiffon and carried Golden Gate roses. Mrs. Mitchell wore silver gray crepe de chine trimmed with daisies and a hat of the same shade and carried pink roses. Assisting about the reception rooms were Miss Lillian Doeh and Miss Carlotta Parker. Teas were served by Miss Judith Scott and Miss Allinger of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Robert J. Culman poured coffee. The girls assisting in serving were Miss Maida Hart, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Lisa Parry, Miss Virginia, Miss Atlanta, Miss Clara and Miss Beulah Nicholas. Punch was served by Mrs. Ben Gadsby and Mrs. Horace Gadsby.

Mrs. Mitchell has been visiting here for several weeks and will extend her stay into June. She is a member of the National Daughters of the American Revolution and is the president of the charter members of the charter chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in this city. Mrs. Mitchell completed its organization just five minutes before the one at Washington and she claims the honor of being the first in the country. Mrs. Mitchell's quaint colonial costumes in which the picture here copied is taken, was worn by her at the Colonial Dames. It was a gown belonging to her grandmother and is singularly beautiful.

The concert given at the Hall Friday afternoon by Mrs. Frederick Egert presenting Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, pianist, and Mrs. Clyde Bruce Atchison soprano, was a fashionable affair. The theatre was crowded with interested friends. Mrs. Egert occupied one of the boxes with a party of friends and was handsomely entertained. The white and white radium silk with lapis lazuli lace and diamonds and wore a hat of white silk with pink roses. The pianist, Mrs. Tuttle wore an imported gown of pale pink mousseline de sole, in train, over foundations of chiffon and silk. Heavy embroidery and cream lace ruffles worked with pink adorned the bodice and jacket with bands of velvet and satin completed the skirt. Mrs. Atchison wore white mousseline over chiffon and silk with white lace and a picture hat covered with white plumes.

One box was presented to Mrs. E. E. Courson, Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, W. A. Montgomery, Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong and Dr. George H. H. in another box Mrs. M. Mackay, Charles Dierke, Frau Marguradt, Miss Marie M. Cahill, Miss Marie Soule and Julius S. Seyler. The third were Mrs. Douch, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Miss Beatrice Hildren, Miss Camille Doeh, Dr. Emil Enns and F. G. Eichenlaub, and in the fourth Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, vice-chairman of the calendar committee.

Mrs. P. J. Mann entertained yesterday afternoon at bridge with about 15 tables. Her guests were Mrs. Adolph Dekum, Mrs. Elliot Habersham, Mrs. William Northrup, Mrs. Jerry Bronson, Mrs. Charles A. Macrum, Miss Helen Vachschay, Mrs. A. E. Mackay, Mrs. G. E. Brueve, Mrs. Helen Cardwell, Mrs. T. F. Davis, Mrs. J. G. Mack, Mrs. E. G. Creighton, Mrs. Anna Bernard, Mrs. E. Root, Mrs. A. B. Foster, Mrs. W. C. Nees Jr., Mrs. J. H. Hazlett, Mrs. Laurence Knapp, Miss Laura Northrup, Mrs. Shirley Morgan, Mrs. A. L. McCully, Mrs. Richard Martin Jr., Mrs. A. E. Butterfield, Mrs. John M. Mackay, Mrs. Ben Trenkman, Mrs. C. W. Hester, Mrs. George E. Collins, Mrs. Herman Allen, Mrs. W. Gifford Nash, Mrs. Thomas Howes, Mrs. William Harlow Stinger, Mrs. E. L. Durham, Miss Johnston and Miss Ernie Johnston.

The invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Gretchen Hoyt of New York and Henry Ladd Corbett of this city. It will be a church wedding at noon in the Episcopal church June 3. After the marriage they will travel for some time and will later return to Portland and will occupy Mrs. Corbett's home on West Park street.

Wednesday evening some of his young friends had a formal dinner at the Arlington club. J. Wesley Leary and Thomas Macnaman, C. Edward Grell, Joseph Bowler, Elliott R. Corbett and Walter Beebe were his hosts.

Friday evening he was host in turn at the Portland at a splendidly appointed dinner. The rooms were elaborately decorated and the table was beautiful with a miniature fountain in the center bedecked with violets. Bunches of the valley and gold fish in the water. The place cards and favors were the usual suggestions of travel. The guests were: Mrs. Ladd, Elliott R. Corbett, C. Edward Grell, David T. Honeyman, Morton H. Insley, Walter B. Beebe, Jordan, Brandt, Wicker, E. H. Strong, Thomas Sharp, Walter Oakman, Samuel Stow, Joseph C. Muehe, Bruce Honeyman, Thomas Robertson, Ernest Root, P. O. Bowles, Erskine Wood and Robert H. Strong.

Mrs. Corbett will leave tomorrow to attend the wedding. Her son Elliott will be the best man and the ushers will be Roger Mackley of Portland and Robert E. Smith of Astoria. The Corbett now in Harvard, will attend the wedding.

The Doeh family expects to leave Tuesday for Montreal en route to Europe to spend a year. There has been a good deal of informal entertaining for the Misses Doeh prior to their departure. Dr. and Mrs. Ben Trenkman entertained at dinner the Misses Camille and Lillian Doeh, Henry Altes and Dr. and Mrs. Henry Fleckenstein. Mrs. George W. McBride entertained a few of their girl friends one afternoon for cards. The engagement has been announced for the Doehs who spent most of his time in Alaska, to Miss Winnie Waschburger of Minneapolis and the wedding is to take place there in December.

Mrs. G. E. Brueve gave a pretty luncheon Friday for Miss Grace Nicholson, whose marriage to Laurence Holman will be celebrated next month. The decorations were beautiful, combining bride and bridesmaid roses. A pretty lace service on the mahogany table gave a charming effect. The guests were Miss Nicholson, Miss Helen Brigham, Miss Myrtle Shaffer, Mrs. Martin Schacht, Miss Grace Dalrymple, Mrs. Ambrose Egan, Miss Eleanor Koehner, Mrs. David Jordan, Miss Daisy Bradford and Mrs. Herbert Holman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard gave a pretty dinner dance Wednesday evening. Wilders' orchestra played. There were 12 covers at dinner and Miss Dorothy Smith, who leaves next week with her sister, Mrs. James Dougherty, for Europe, was the honor guest. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty, Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Miss Kinney, Miss Liela Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman, Morris Whitehouse, Jordan Zan, Joseph Foster and Mrs. Kinney. Mrs. Heath gave a pretty luncheon Friday for Miss Kinney.

Bishop and Mrs. Scadding entertained the teachers of St. Helen's Hall on Monday evening at Bishopcroft. Those present were Madams Julia H. Bayer, Madam E. E. Lynde, Miss Kinney, Miss Collier, Miss Short, Miss Toulace, Miss Clark, Miss Carlisle, Miss Beebe, Miss McDonald, Miss Matthews, Miss Breck, Miss Blair, Miss Matthews, Miss Bernays, Miss Nash, Miss Carter, Miss Arnold, Miss Knappen and Miss Snook.

The senior class which will be graduated from St. Helen's Hall in June was entertained by the Bishop and Mrs. Scadding at Bishopcroft on Wednesday last from 4 till 6. Those present were: Miss Flora Davis, Miss Maude Meenach, Miss Elizabeth Lynde, Miss Kinney, Miss Towers, Miss Leonide Fleury, Miss Olive Wilson, Miss Alta Ring, Miss Shanna Cummings, Miss Ione Lambert, Miss Margaret Book, Miss Jessie Tupper and Miss Clara Thompson.

Miss Eloise Edwards with her mother, Mrs. Edwards, entertained at a reception Saturday evening a week ago at their home in Alameda, making Mrs. Edwards' of Colorado and A. P. Smith, strong of Portland their guests of honor. A half hundred guests were asked to meet the out-of-town visitors who are staying at the Edwards home. Assisting in the receiving party were Mrs. Officer of Berkeley and Miss Toussaint Bruntsch.

There were a number of parties entertained at dinner at the golf links last night, the opening night of the season. Dancing followed and there was a gay assemblage of society folk. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shevlin were among the entertainers. For Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Towle of St. Paul they entertained at the out-of-town visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. William Skene were other entertainers.

The Portland friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Stafford of Eugene will be interested to know that they will sail next week for Europe. Mr. Stafford holds the chair of chemistry at the University of Oregon and has been granted a year's leave of absence. Mrs. Stafford was Miss Mary Elizabeth Straub daughter of Professor Straub of the Greek department of the university.

Miss Alice Forbes, one of the popular Portland academy girls, who is now at Assiniboine-on-the-Hudson, is to make her home through the summer with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith of Irvington, during the absence of her father from Portland. The Smiths spend most of the summer at their home in Irvington and Miss Forbes is their own one of the prettiest summer places.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall Yates entertained at dinner last Sunday night at Elton Court in honor of the birthday of their sister, Miss Mildred Armstrong. Pink roses decorated the table. The guests were Miss Armstrong, Miss Louise Watson, Miss Ida Shea, Miss Frances Brady, and Miss Hazel Hoopernarner.

Mrs. F. D. Chamberlin with her daughter, Miss Ethel leaves this week for Wasco to visit her son Harold. On their return they will accompany Mr. Chamberlin to Seattle to be there for the advent of the fleet.

Mrs. Herbert Holman opened her home Thursday afternoon to the Guild of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral. Received with her were Mrs. J. W. Whalley and Mrs. H. E. Blossom. Tea was pouring by Mrs. P. A. Nitehey and D. W. Campbell, and serving in the dining-room were Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Helen Brigham, Miss Ramsdell and Miss Margaret Boot. Mrs. Rudy and Mrs. Thompson had charge of the candy booth. An interesting musical program was given. Miss Goodenwald played and George Street, Miss Brigham and Miss Ramsdell sang. Miss Lottie Eastfield gave readings. There was a large attendance.

Miss Alice Mulford entertained Saturday a week ago at Elton Court with a shower and luncheon for Miss Gertrude Lyons whose engagement to Louis Cronan was announced some weeks ago. The guests besides Miss Lyons were: Mrs. J. H. Tuttle, Miss Marion Brock, Miss Eleanor Brock, Miss Mary Cronan, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Rose Schacht, Mrs. Ralph Matson, Mrs. Ray Matson and Miss Venasa.

James Muckle of 82 Ella street sailed Friday from New York for Liverpool to join his wife and daughter who went abroad last August. Mrs. and Miss Muckle have had a delightful time since leaving Portland. The fall and early part of the winter they passed in Palestine, Egypt, Italy and Greece, going to Paris for the holidays. They remained in France until April 9 when they went to London and took apartments at the Hotel Russell.

Miss Ethel Lytle has set June 30 for her wedding to John Waters Booth. Mrs. May Dearborne Schwab recently gave her a "good-luck" shower and Mrs. Frank Taylor is to entertain with a tea for her Wednesday afternoon. Miss Lytle leaves Thursday to attend the "gatherings of the Caledonians," a Scotch celebration at Alhambra. Miss Lytle and J. Adrian Epping will be the soloists.

The monthly tea at the Patton Home will be given Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home, 975 Michigan street. The program will be in charge of Marguerite Egbert, the clever and ready reader and an unusual feature of the program is that it will be given entirely by children younger than herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman and Miss Grace Nicholson went to St. Helen's last Sunday afternoon and remained until Tuesday morning arranging the house that is to be the home of young Mr. Holman after his marriage on June 10 to Miss Nicholson.

The annual tea at the Baby home will be given Thursday, May 28, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. L. W. Sifton is president of the home and many prominent matrons are interested in it. The Richmond cars pass near the home.

Bishop and Mrs. Scadding will be at home to all the members of the parishes and missions in the diocese from 4 to 6 next Thursday. The bishops and visiting delegates to the diocese convention will be the honor guests.

Mrs. Ernest Tucker entertained Wednesday with five tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. Canby who is at the Nortonia with Major Canby, the new postmaster of the department.

Mrs. J. C. Hare and Mrs. L. R. Smith have cards out for a series of card parties to be given Thursday and Friday afternoons, May 28 and 29, at 274 Caruthers street.

Miss Veness of Winlock, Washington, has been a popular guest at Elton Court the past three weeks while visiting Miss Alice Mulford. She returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Edgar Anthony of San Francisco entertained in honor of Mrs. Gerald Anthony (Edwin) of Irvington at a large tea last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Jerome R. McGrade and their little daughter Helen are visiting in Chicago. They plan to sail soon for Europe to spend a year.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Fanny Brown are expecting to leave this week on a visit to Seattle.

Miss Ernyl Holbrook has gone east preparatory to a trip abroad and was at the Continental, New York, last week.

MRS. A.C. PANTTON

She will sail May 28 with a party of six girls from Washington, District of Columbia, under the chaperonage of Mrs. Barker, wife of the president of Chevy Chase college near Washington, District of Columbia. Miss Emily's sister was formerly a student there.

T. B. Wilcox is visiting east and was at the Holland in New York last week.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A surprise party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. Kraxburger of Zion Southern church at Oregon City, by the members of the choir. Mr. Kraxburger is going to Germany Monday to visit his old home and friends. The evening spent was a very pleasant one. Games were played, songs were sung and lunch was served and ended with remarks by Mr. Kraxburger. Those present were: Amanda Klingler, Katherine Rolde, Edward Muller, Her-
