

CROSS OF TRI-CITY LEAGUERS

"Slim" Marshall Grows Popular With Woodburn Fans - To Investigate Shaw.

Tri-City league games scheduled for today: East Portland at Oregon City. West Portland at Salem. Albina at Woodburn. St. Johns at Vancouver—double-header.

Umpires assigned for today: Salpinx at Oregon City. Prevost at Salem. Burnside at Woodburn. Rankin at Vancouver.

Marshall, the ex-McCredite, made his initial bow to Tri-City league fans last Sunday, and made the hearts of the Woodburn "Blue Birds" glad by winning his game from the East Side "Commuters". He is a big fellow, standing 6 feet 4 inches, with a baseball-stroking, but plenty of speed and elusive curves. As a slicker he is above the average Tri-City league twirler and swats the horsehide with much gusto. Manager Kennedy has strengthened his team 100 per cent by signing up the big fellow.

"Midge" Street, the popular little twirler signed up with the East Side team, and is now summing in eastern Oregon, where he will practice surgery and play a little ball on the side. It will soon be Doctor Street in reality. Time can roll pills as well as his sides can over a ball game. "Midge" will be a sure.

But for Lerch's bum heave in the second inning of the Woodburn game last Sunday, allowing two "Blue Birds" to cross the plate, the game would have gone to the victors in seven innings. The game was the agreed number of innings to be played. Harbert was pitched great ball. Only three hits were made off the delivery up to the eighth inning. As it was, the east side tied the score in the sixth, but could not score over the thirteenth run and Woodburn registered in the ninth.

"South Paw" Bowen had everything last Sunday in the first game against the east side team, striking out nine of the best batters and allowing only four hits. He was a real pitcher, and his barrel over the four times up.

The west side "Milliners" certainly had their batting clothes on at St. Johns, pounding out enough hits for three games and making "Apostles" take to the tall cut. Then, too, the "Apostles" had just a little touch of buck fever, as the error column show.

Somebody wants to know "who Shaw is" that pitched the two games against Salem last Sunday. The league officials are on a still hunt also and rumor has it that a certain young pitcher will have a session on the carpet ere long.

Harmon, the pitcher signed up by Woodburn, has not reported and Manager Kennedy now says he don't care much whether he does or not, as he thinks Bowen and Marshall can hold any of the teams in the Tri-City.

Ward Lee, a speedy outfielder, and George Keeler, a pitcher, have been signed by the St. Johns management. The contract was approved last week by President Whitmore. Keeler hails from Missouri and comes well recommended as a slab artist.

Tommy Robinson, since he joined the "Papermakers" is pitching winning ball. Farlow is said to have secured him and predicts that he will climb the ladder easily with Tommy in the box.

Jack Heiser has annexed another fast outfielder for the "Pioneers." His name is Orefite and those who have seen him in action say he is a top-notch.

The directors will hold their monthly meeting Monday night of this week and a big budget of accumulated trouble will be smoothed out and disposed of.

Floyd Myers, the O. A. C. twirler, made good with the Salem "Cherry Pickers" his first game being a shut-out only one opposing batter being able to pick out a hit.

"Big Bill" Kottman, the ex-Cub, is making the La Grande fans dizzy with his speed and curves. He led Pendleton down with four hits in a recent game.

Johnny Shea, who went to Tacoma to backstop for the "Tigers" some time ago, and has done a "Vancouver" home game. Johnny says they wouldn't give him a chance to make good, and there might be something in that.

Several ex-Tri-City leaguers who are wearing Northwest league uniforms have caught on in great style. Charlie Moore and Harry "Swede" Graham, especially, are holding down the key-stone sacks for Aberdeen and Tacoma like "big leaguers."

Jack Olney, the "split ball" artist, has been sold by Vancouver to the West Portland team. Pete Brahmke has totally disappeared and Jack will step into his shoes and become a regular member of the pitching staff.

PAPERMAKERS AND EAST SIDE TODAY

Oregon City, May 16.—The papermakers will essay to add two more to their list of victories tomorrow, if the weather permits, by putting the kibosh on the east side segregation. The local team has been very unfortunate in its three games abroad, and returns with an absence of a being tied with the Salem team for third place in the league standing. There have been changes in the team's personnel, Locke, the former out-felder overing the key-stone sack, and Telford of last year, Gray, replacing Adams in center field.

TOMMY BURNS WEARS SAME LITTLE DERBY

Popular American Fighter's Head Is Not Swelled by Great Success.

Oakland, Cal., May 16.—Billy Neill, who left Oakland about seven months ago with Tommy Burns, has returned from England. Neill declares that Tommy's success in London and Paris has not swelled his head.

"There are a lot of sporting writers who have been giving Tommy the worst kind of it," said Neill, "but I want to tell you right here that Tommy wears the same size hat now that he wore when he was fighting for a dollar and a quarter in Detroit."

"It looks as if Tommy will stay in London. His wife will be very ill, but she left for England on the tenth. She and Tom will go to Carlsbad to spend some time there in the hope that Mrs. Burns will recuperate between now and the fall."

"Tom has cleared up, including side bets, purses, moving pictures, theatrical work and a book we wrote, something like $63,150 up to the time I left him."

"At present Tommy is a bit staid from training, but after the Carlsbad trip he'll be there again."

"Johnson-Burns fight? Oh, I don't think that match will be called off, for the simple reason that Fitzpatrick, Johnson's manager, showed me in New York that he didn't want any of Burns' game. He even admitted to me that he wanted to go to England and buy the public and get the money on the arrangements were made for programs and other details. It was also decided that no medals should be given to the winners of places in the event."

A big banner will be given to the school winning the championship and a cup to the winner of the relay. This has been the custom in the past. An agitation for medals was started by several of the prominent school athletes but was defeated.

SCHOOL FIELD MEET UNKNOWN QUANTITY

Uncertainty of Condition of Multnomah Field Holds Up Big Meet.

The intercollegiate field meet scheduled for next Saturday is hanging fire just now, the condition of Multnomah field making the date of the meet an uncertainty. Should the field be complete by next Saturday the meet will be held as scheduled but should the bad weather continue and the work put back it will have to be postponed.

The directors of the league held a meeting yesterday morning at which this was decided upon and at which arrangements were made for programs and other details. It was also decided that no medals should be given to the winners of places in the event.

A big banner will be given to the school winning the championship and a cup to the winner of the relay. This has been the custom in the past. An agitation for medals was started by several of the prominent school athletes but was defeated.

ANGELS AND BEAVERS CLOSE SERIES TODAY

Dolly Gray and Jess Garrett Sent to the Firing Line.

If the weather is fair this afternoon Los Angeles and Portland will play the last game of the series, commencing at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Dolly Gray and Jess Garrett will face the batters. With the rest of the Angels and Beavers are on their mettle and a great game is anticipated.

For three days the players have joined the crowds at the cigar stores and told what they were going to do in the next game. They will have the chance today and things ought to hum. The Los Angeles team will return south tonight and Oakland comes next Tuesday for a week.

Should the day prove warm there is every likelihood that an enormous crowd will witness the closing contest.

Of necessity the hares were able to double and redouble, while the hounds had to spend valuable time in making long sweeps to find out the direction taken.

The race was run under the auspices of the new cross country running committee, which proposes to reorganize, running conditions at the association by keeping the men in constant training. The next contest will be held on Saturday, June 20.
