We have no "side lines"—no building or real estate speculations. Our money is more profitably employed in building up a great furniture business. By making intelligent use of our combined capital in the wholesale purchase of large furniture orders—carloads and even trainload lots—we obtain concessions that enable us to give our customers the benefit of lower prices than many other stores. That's why "GEVURTZ SELLS IT FOR LESS," on EASY TERMS, too. In very many instances you'll find
