ANSWERS HIS DETRACTORS

Governor Chamberlain Enthusiastically Received at Roseburg — Pardon of Prisoners in Cause of Humanity to Help Men.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Roseburg, Or., May 21.—Governor Chamberlain arrived on the flyer from the south about 6 o'clock last night and was met at the train by the Roseburg band, and a large crowd of the citizens. The governor has the honor of enjoying the solid indorsement of the old soldiers, in the home, of whose treatment to them they cannot speak too highly. Everyone that was able, attended the speaking at the courthouse which was packed for the first time during this campaign to overflowing; two hundred and fifty were turned away. The governor was introduced by Senator Coshow.

The governor made an able defense of Statement No. 1, and called attention to the fact that Mr. Cake, although warmly advocating this measure before the primaries, is now carefully avoiding places in which he had spoken previously, and going into other localities and making no mention of the great rule framed for the benefit of the people.

The question of whether or not a Democrat can be of any assistance to Oregon in the United States senate was touched upon by the governor. He said Galveston, Texas, the greatest shipping port in the nation, was made so by appropriations allowed by a Republican congress at the request of Democratic representatives. The same thing is true as to appropriation for the Mississippi river. He declared in favor of strict laws governing railway corporations. A remedy that would protect Oregon from depredations of railway interests would be to secure appropriations for development of our waterways. Free locks at Oregon City were advocated.

The governor urged strict immigration laws. He said, to illustrate, that his children would go uneducated before he would allow them to sit in school with a Japanese. He favored an income tax law, and laws to regulate national and state banks, as a remedy for panics such as we have just experienced. The people are willing to trust Uncle Sam as a pay master. Mentioning the old soldiers of which hundreds were in attendance, the governor declared that they should all be amply rewarded for the services they have rendered the nation; not only survivors of the Civil war, Mexican war, Spanish-American war, but also those brave men who voluntarily fought to protect our homes and our mothers against the Indians.

This sentiment was heartily applauded by not only the old soldiers, and Indian war veterans, but by the entire house.

Defends Pardoning Power.

Speaking of the criticism of the manner in which the affairs of the penitentiary have been conducted the governor defended his position to the satisfaction of the audience which frequently interrupted with applause when he gave his reason for the course pursued in pardoning prisoners. He declared that he would still continue to follow the same policy of justice and humanity.

Referring to the publication of the list of prisoners who had been pardoned the governor said that many men who had been pardoned were now honestly employed and to advertise them to the world was a very brutal act and an offense against unfortunate persons who were trying to lead an upright life; he said he would rather save 25 of such men, and be the cause of restoring them to honest manhood than to be elected to the United States senate.

Many railroad men were present, some of whom had taken a lay-off to hear him, and he was vigorously applauded when he spoke of his efforts to secure for them their just deserts.

Will Work for Oregon.

In closing the governor said he would continue to work for the interests of the people of Oregon as he has done in the past, and that he hoped to have the pleasure of returning to Roseburg in the near future to thank its citizens for the substantial majority he expects to receive on the first Monday in June.

After his speech the governor shook hands with a large part of the audience, and later was tendered a reception by Alpha lodge, K. of P. From the enthusiasm manifested, it is estimated that Governor Chamberlain will carry Douglas county by a very substantial majority, regardless of the fact that it is strongly Republican.

STRIKERS' WIVES ARE STARVING

Industrial Distress an Appalling Feature of English Lockout.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, May 21.—The most appalling feature of the great shipyard lockout in the north lies in the fact that it comes at a time when every town in which building is an important industry has more than its normal share of industrial distress, owing to the stagnation which has prevailed for many months past. Nowhere, however, is the situation so absolutely desperate as at Sunderland, where some 10,000 unemployed throng the streets with heart-breaking knowledge that their wives and children are starving at home. Many of them have been out of work for six months and have been existing on the sale of the contents of their homes, supplemented by doles from the terribly inadequate town relief fund. Now both are practically exhausted.

The engineers' strike and the shipyard lockout have ended all chance of employment elsewhere. Nothing remains for these men but to stay on and watch those dependent on them starving. It is a tragedy of hopeless misery almost unexampled in the history of the great centers of population which lie along the east coast.

Even the small doles which have enabled the thousands to keep body and soul together have stopped. The funds at the disposal of those in charge of the towns funds have become so low that they have been compelled to limit the distribution of relief to the children. Hundreds of gaunt, ill clad men may be seen standing about the streets. Most of them are sucking from habit at pipes long since empty.

In the Deptford district street after street may be seen with all the blinds drawn all day long, as though the town were in mourning for the loss of some prominent citizen. But the mourning is for the furniture that has gone, and the blinds are simply to hide the emptiness of the home.

NEWPORT TIRED OF PROHIBITION

Blind Pigs at Toledo Convince Lincoln County Voters They Made Mistake.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Newport, Or., May 21.—Present indications are that Lincoln county has had enough of the drought which struck it two years ago when a majority of the voters declared for a dry county, and that at the next election, June 1, the people will switch to the other side and reinstate the saloons.

Newport at the last election was two to one for a wet county but was overruled by Toledo and the country districts. In the opinion of what appears to be a majority of the voters, including all of the business men, prohibition, which may be all right for some places, is not suited to a summer resort.

The liquor men have been working quietly to change the existing condition of things and are confident that they will be successful. They have made no stir in the matter, fearing that any appearance of activity on their part would have the effect of bringing the professional anti-saloon workers down in force from Portland and greatly lessen their chances of winning the county to the wet ticket. The antis have been doing nothing, evidently thinking they have the county solid.

The blind pig flourishes in some parts of the county, but Newport liquor dealers have obeyed the law well since the county went dry. Toledo, however, is full of illicit liquor places, and the extent to which these have multiplied of late is conceded to be one of the chief factors in changing popular sentiment in Lincoln county.

PIONEER REUNION AT M'MINNVILLE

Yamhill Association Arranges Program for Session on June 3.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

McMinnville, Or., May 21.—The Yamhill Pioneer association will hold its annual reunion in this city on June 3. The meeting will be held in the city park and an extensive program carried out.

At the morning meeting Mayor W. T. Macey of McMinnville will deliver the welcoming address which will be responded to by Lee Laughlin of North Yamhill, a pioneer of the forties. The address to the pioneers will be delivered by William M. Kleser of Salem.

The afternoon meeting will open with a roll call of all the pioneers who have died during the last year and an eulogy of them by Judge William Galloway. Following this will be the election of officers for the following year and the address to the Native Sons by John C. Veatch.

SUMMER RESIDENTS MOVING TO NEWPORT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Newport, Or., May 21.—The summer season in Newport is opening nearly a month earlier than usual. Nearly all the outsiders who have cottages here came down to occupy them in anticipation of the arrival of the fleet and most of them will remain for the summer. A large number of new cottages are being erected and the number of Portland people who will spend the summer or their vacation at this resort promises to be unusually large.

ROBBERS STRANGLE AND BEAT VICTIM

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, May 21.—Strangled and beaten to death by robbers, the body of R. C. P. Holmes, purchasing agent for the Commonwealth Electric company, was found in a townlown alley this morning. The skull was fractured, the body horribly bruised, the throat scratched and blackened and the tongue protruding. The dead man's pockets were turned inside out. Holmes left a convention of electrical men at the Auditorium hotel at 3 o'clock this morning and started for home. He was not seen alive by his friends after leaving the hotel.

New Notaries.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., May 21.—Commissions as notaries have been issued as follows: William M. La Force, D. R. Amadon and J. D. Chapman of Portland; Warren P. Reed, Gardiner; P. R. Merrill, Merrill, and H. F. Kemple, Astoria.

In the final story of Jack Spurlock — Prodigal (see THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, on all news-stands to-day):

1. The Prodigal meets the Major's ward.

2. Is reminded that he was once proposed to.

3. Goes home to a skinned bull, instead of a fatted calf.

4. Adds a few millions to his father's bank account.

5. Discovers the Big Idea, and imparts it to the Major.

6. And learns, from an indubitable source, that at last he is a married man.

GIVES BIBLE TO FAITHLESS MAN

Dying Woman Bequeaths Book to Husband Who Deserted Her.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Montrose, Colo., May 21.—"Ninth, I give and bequeath all of my books, with the exception of the family Bible, to the Montrose public library. The family Bible I give and bepueath to my former adored husband, W. A. Thomas, and pray that he may search its truths in remembrance of one who labored by his side for the best interests of both for 26 long years."

Thus reads a clause in the last will and testament of Mrs. Hermine Thomas, a pioneer resident of Montrose, who became insane after the desertion of her husband, formerly a prominent business man of this city, two years ago.

His wife claimed Thomas left here for the west with a Mrs. Wise, his housekeeper. Mrs. Wise left Montrose at the same time Thomas did.

Later, it is understood, Thomas, after he divorced his wife, married Mrs. Wise at Salt Lake. From there the couple went to Spokane, Washington, where Thomas is said to be getting rich very rapidly.

Mrs. Thomas left between $10,000 and $15,000 worth of property, which she bequeathed to her brothers and other relatives.

When her husband deserted her she became heartbroken and soon began to fail in health. Later her mind became shattered through grief and she died practically insane.

HOOD RIVER FLOAT AT ROSE CARNIVAL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Hood River, Or., May 21.—Arrangements are being made by the Hood River Commercial club to have the city and valley properly represented at the Portland Rose Festival. Word has been received by the committee having the matter in charge that the $600 float which it ordered built is ready for acceptance.

The float will represent the products of Rood River valley, consisting of immense red apples and strawberries.

Miss Margaret Nickelsen, who was recently elected queen to represent Hood River, will have a large escort of Hood River citizens, and it is expected that several carloads will go to Portland to witness the parade.

DEVELOP GOLD MINE NEAR KLAMATH FALLS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Klamath Falls, Or., May 21.—A gold mine is being developed about three quarters of a mile north of Klamath Falls. J. G. Pierce and H. L. Aldridge of this city are the prospectors. A shaft was sunk last summer and a tunnel dug in about 100 feet. An assay was made last season, which showed ore of a low grade. The ledge of rock seems to be permanent, and the promoters think the assay now will show better grade. The shaft is on the property known as Nob Hill and near to the line of the California Northern railway.

CATARRH YIELDS

To Healing Air of Hyomei, Sold Under Guarantee by Woodard, Clarke & Co.

Catarrh is the most prevalent disease known to humanity. Probably 90 per cent of the people in this country suffer at one time or another with this common disease.

It is a germ disease and hence can be cured only by some method that will reach and destroy the germs.

This is best found in Hyomei, which may be called the direct method of treating catarrh, as its medication, taken in with the air you breathe, goes directly to every air cell in the nose, throat and lungs; kills all catarrhal germs; heals the irritated mucous membrane and vitalizes the tissues so as to render catarrh no longer possible.

The unique way in which Hyomei is sold should dispel all doubt as to its curative properties, for Woodard, Clarke & Co. give their absolute guarantee to refund the price to any catarrh sufferer that Hyomei fails to benefit. You do not risk a cent in testing its healing powers. What offer could be more fair to you than this, where a leading druggist takes all the risk of Hyomei giving satisfaction, and leaves you to be the judge.

If you have catarrh, give Hyomei a trial, for there is no other medicine like it, nothing else that is just as good, none that gives such quick relief and lasting satisfaction in catarrhal troubles. The complete outfit costs only $1.00; nothing if it fails to cure.

ODD FELLOWS' DUDEENS MAKE "ELEVATOR JIMMIE" MAHER SAD

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., May 21.—"Jimmie" Maher, the elevator man at the state house and one of the most familiar figures about the capitol building, is despondent. Aside from being chief engineer of the antiquated water-power elevator in the state house, Jimmie has a side graft. He sells cigars and has developed quite a patronage among the state officials and the clerks. Jimmie expected a great increase in business during the grand convention of Odd Fellows, but the business has not developed to the proportions promised and so Jimmie is greatly disappointed.

There was much consternation expressed among the friends of the elevator man during the days of the convention because he did not seem to be as happy and care free as he was wont to be. When asked if he was possibly ill or "a little under the weather," the response came that gave the solution.

"Those grand Odd Fellows are no sports," was the answer. "I've only sold two cigars during the whole convention. They all brought their pipes with them."

Something has gone wrong. Either the Odd Fellows did not have time to ride in the elevator or they could not find the elevator, which is very possible. Circumstances favor Jimmie as a usual thing, for when anybody rides in the state house elevator he must have something to pass away the time with and so Jimmie sells him a cigar. Further than that everybody who visits the state house for the first time must always visit the dome and there is where Jimmie has them, for there is no stairway to the dome.

Jimmie has grown gray in the service of the state as chief engineer of the elevator. The elevator's pace is so slow that it is said Jimmie is the only man who has ever ridden the entire distance from the ground floor to the top, four stories, hence his venerable locks.

IT SAVED MY LIFE— WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT

Bed-Ridden Sufferer Completely Cured by Use of D. D. D. External Wash.

One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago.

Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast over my whole body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning.

"I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life.

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would take care of me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clear and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin bring relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap. Skidmore Drug Co. Get a bottle today if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once.

JUMPS FROM HIGH TOWER TO END LIFE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

St. Petersburg, May 21.—Madame Merder, wife of General Merder, whose father was the most intimate friend of Czar Alexander II, has committed suicide at Tsarskoe Selo under very tragic circumstances. Madame Merder's 17-year-old daughter recently was taken ill at Paris and was removed to her house at Tsarskoe Selo, suffering from inflammation of the lungs. The doctors gave up all hope of her recovery and this preyed on the mind of the mother, who declared she could not survive her daughter. She climbed the Swedish tower in the town, 200 feet high, and threw herself to the ground, being instantly killed. Miss Merder died a few hours after her mother's suicide. General Merder is prostrated with grief and the doctors fear he will become insane.

LONE BANDIT HOLDS UP CAR

Forces Carmen on Ocean Beach Line to Walk, While He Rides.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, May 21.—In true border style a lone robber held up an Ocean Beach car at 1 o'clock this morning. Backing the motorman and conductor to one end of the car at the point of a revolver, he compelled the motorman to search the conductor, securing $17, forced them to leave the car and calmly going to the front platform made the run to the end of the line, where he threw the controller away and disappeared in the darkness.

The robber was the only passenger on the car and when a lonely spot was reached he suddenly drew his revolver and confronted the conductor.

"I want some corporation money," he said. "Go to the back of the car and stay there."

He then called the motorman in and commanded him to search the conductor. The motorman quickly complied and after gathering up all the nickels, dimes and quarters that the conductor's pockets yielded, he forced the trembling carmen to jump off. Then with the skill of a trained motorman he ran the car to the end of the line.
