OAKLAND WINS CLOSING GAME

Wright Proves Stumbling Block for Portland's Heavy Hitting Batters.

"I admit that Teddy R. is as mighty as the czar. Though the money power has given him a fright. But I must suggest a name. For the nation's hall of fame. So I cast my vote for Wright-Pitcher Wright."

"Pop" Van Halten sprung Wright upon the local fans yesterday and there was nothing wrong with the Athenian slasher. Five scattered singles were the visitor allowed in the closing of the series and third base was as far as the Beavers could trek. Buddy Perrill was on the mound for the McCredies, but two came to pass southpaw pitched a good game. He allowed the Athenians why don't you call it Spartans age it's shorter and much sweeter—but six hits during the matinee. However, two of them were two baggers and both were responsible for scores. Perrill himself cracked out a two bagger, which was the longest hit the locals made off Wright.

Both teams lapsed along for three cantos without an ace in sight. Both came dangerously near scoring in the fourth for each side as the pitcher on the third station. But both pitchers staided and nothing came of it. Eagan, the fourth man up for Oakland, struck out and Danzig, in the same position for Portland, flied out to Haley.

Oakland's first score came in the fourth inning. Heilmuller, who had pitched to third on Eagan's infield out and scored on Cook's single. Oakland scored again in the fifth on a base on balls. An error by Danzig, a brace of fielder's choices, Cook being the registering player. Oakland's other runs came in the eighth inning. Slattery doubled and moved to third on Wright's grounder and scored on Smith's single. Smith covered on Heilmuller's sacrifice. Slattery pitched to Heilmuller, and Cooney's error in throwing to first to head off Eagan.

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicine. My tongue has been sooty as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Now I feel better and my breath is sweet and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have really cured me. Therefore you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles. Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 1st St., New York, N. Y."

THIS IS PINNANCE.

Indians are always popular with baseball fans and Edward Pinnance, Portland's crack pitcher, is no exception. In fact, the Chippewa youth is one of the most popular players in the Pacific Coast League, as well as one of the best pitchers. Edward came into the world, about 24 years ago in Essex county, Canada, across the river from Detroit. He received his early schooling at the Canadian government school at St. Marie, where he learned the American national game. Pinnance never attended a regular school, as he has traveled frequently upon his graduation from the Canadian academy he matriculated at the Michigan Agricultural college, where he developed into a star pitcher. Connie Mack had just signed Bender, the famous Indian pitcher who has made such a great record with the Philadelphia Americans, and hearing of Pinnance's record also signed the Chippewa boy. This was in 1903. Pinnance traveled about a dozen games for the Athletics and in 1905 was sent up to Albany in the New York State league. He remained with Albany two years and then came to the Pacific Coast League. Manager McCredie grabbed him from Bay City and he has made a splendid record so far this season. His score during the two games pitched two shutouts against San Francisco.

GAMBLERS MAY BRING BALL WAR IN ST. LOUIS

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, May 25.—Should Frank DeHawks Robison, owner of the St. Louis National League baseball club, carry out a deal that is now pending for the disposal of the St. Louis club to a syndicate of sporting men who controlled the racing game in Missouri until the tracks were closed, a baseball war of wide-spread extent will likely result. "There is much opposition to the admission of the syndicate, headed by Louis F. Ruffery, to the ownership of the club, particularly on the part of the American League men. It is stated today that if the Robisons sell out their holdings the friendly relations between the American and the National leagues will be quickly severed and the war will be on."

The birds are small and supposed to be cinnamon teal, a species of duck rarely seen in this section. The pelicans have returned in great numbers this season. NELSON TRIES FOR RECORD TOMORROW

San Francisco Driver Will Attempt to Lower Railroad Time in White.

"Give me an auto or give me death," are words credited to Ferdinando Nelson several years ago, when first he became a convert to the motor car. But time has by no means lessened the enthusiasm of this wealthy San Francisco motorist, who is ever ready to establish new records. As the owner of a thoroughbred is proud of his equine so is Nelson proud of his motor car and he considers the fact that his White has bettered railroad time under far less favorable conditions than the train, a great tribute not only to his machine but the usefulness of the motor car in general.

Nelson sent word to John B. Kelly, the local White, that he was ready to effect that all arrangements had been completed for his run to Portland and that he leaves on Tuesday morning. He writes:
