SOCIETY

by Druilla Drew

The number of Portland visitors in Seattle this week promises to equal those who went to San Francisco to see the fleet there. They have been leaving on every train since the latter part of last week. This morning the New York Symphony orchestra with Mr. Danmarch came in from the south and were immediately taken in tow by Lois Steers, who accompanied them to Seattle where Miss Steers and Miss Cooman's season begins. The orchestra is to play an important part in the fleet festivities there where the 200 officers will be the guests of the city at the concert.
A few of the society folk who have come over to Puget sound are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Simon, Miss Helen Simon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth.

Mrs. Helen Cardwell entertained at bridge Monday afternoon with 10 tables. Her rooms were pretty with choice flowers, red Duke of Richmond roses in the drawing room and yellow tulips in the dining room. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Edwin Caswell and Mrs. Merrill of Worcester. Massachusetts, who is a guest of Mrs. J. A. Strowbridge.

The faculty and cadets of Hill Military academy have sent out their invitations for the commencement hop next Friday evening at the academy armory. These dances have taken prestige as some of the most delightful of the academic dances which are always attended alike by the younger set and the older ones. The patronesses for the evening are Mrs. George Lunda Campbell, Mrs. Anne Rebecca Hill, Mrs. Joseph Wood Hill, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. E. Rutherford Johnson, Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Alpha Eugene Rockey and Mrs. Charles C. Smith.

The invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Helen Katherine Brigham and Norris E. Gregg, which will take place at the First Methodist church Wednesday evening, June 17, at 8:30. Mr. and Mrs. Porter Elmer Brigham have sent out the cards. There has been a great deal of entertaining for Miss Brigham who is popular with the younger set. She is a member of Mrs. Walter Reed's Club and she and the recent last week attracted a good deal of attention. Miss Irene Higgins is to be her maid and Miss Lou King and Miss Maud Howell are bridesmaids. The best man will be Gilbert Durham and the ushers Howard Roberts, Fred Thompson, Lester Hodson and Walter Smith.

The golf tournament that opens tomorrow at the Waverly links is attracting attention just now and most of the entertaining among the smart set are closed tonight. There will be a good many visitors from Tacoma and Seattle. Next Saturday evening after the close of the tournament will be an especially gay evening at the club.
The event of prominence among home affairs tomorrow will be a large bridge party given by Mrs. George W. Bates and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield.

noon will take the place that this annual affair always takes among society people. Mrs. L. W. Sifton is president of the home and many prominent women are interested in the work and lend their aid to developing it. Thursday, R. Giltner and Mrs. E. M. Bergen will pour and the girls serving will be Miss Ruth Sterling, Miss Hazel Trichner, Miss Nellie Hemenway, Miss Lena Simpson, Miss Mildred Yald, Miss Eleanor Rothermel, Miss Lois Scott, Miss Verne Bergen and Miss Leoti Deaver. The candy table will be in charge of Miss Malda Hart assisted by Miss Niels Wessinger, Miss Charlotta Tricker, Miss Ise Koehler and Miss Ruth Church.

ALTERATION SALE MAKES GREAT HIT

Crowds of Shoppers Throng the Rosenblatt Store All Day.
We will be practically compelled to suspend business during the three summer months while extensive alterations are being made in our present quarters. A part of our corner has been leased for other business, and we are forced through the wall. We must sacrifice our goods now while they are new and up-to-date or carry them over to another year and then sell them as last year's goods. In such a case it is certain we would have to make a big sacrifice.

Our announcement in the Sunday papers attracted widespread attention, and buyers thronged to our store during the entire day. This is the first time in the history of Portland that such phenomenal reductions were ever made on the world's best known brand of clothing. A complete stock of merchandise, comprising Hart Schaffner & Co. fine suits and overcoats for which we are exclusive agents, and "Xtra-good" brand of boys' and youths' clothing and furnishings, and hats of the highest quality, were sold you a few prices to illustrate. We quote reductions that are made throughout our entire stock.
