MADDEN'S SWAT WINS LONG GAME

Beavers Capture Grand 12-Inning Matinee From Frisky Seals.

Oh! the land of Davy Jones
Is the place for Oskie's bones;
Down where the fishes romp and roam.
It's the spot for Willis, too,
This briny, brolly blue.
Such a jolly place to make their little home.
—McCredie's Murmurings.

Tom Madden, that nifty sticker of the Portland team, came to the rescue once more in his short but brilliant career at the Vaughn street grounds, and gave us victory in the second 12-inning matinee of the week. It was one of those affairs a man would walk 10 leagues to see. It was probably a better game than the one Wednesday, for there were more thrills for the crowd and less boneheaded plays to dishearten the players.

Whenever you think there aren't a few pinch hitters in the Portland brigade you're as far away from the dope as Harry Cake is from Statement No. 1. Manager McCredie cut into the game at the psychological moment and a stinging single tied the score in the eighth, making possible another victory. Then came the Boston backstop with his drive over Nick Williams' apothecaried locks, scoring Babe Danzig, after the big fellow had singled and gone to second when Ote Johnson walked.

And the way those Beavers got after Willis and Oscar Jones was a caution. Willis started out and went along for 10 innings before Captain Mohler yanked him away and trotted out one Oscar Jones. Ten hits were gleaned off Willis before the kid led him gently away. Only two were made off Oskie, but they were enough to win the game.

How It Happened.

But this is the way it happened: San Francisco had as pretty a string of goose eggs up to the eighth as was ever gazed upon by admiring gander's mate. But that eighth was a nightmare. Groom had been pitching big league ball, having allowed but one hit, a scratchy thing in the seventh. With two down, Willis connected. He went to second on Whalen's passed ball, sticking around there but a moment, when Hildebrand sent him to the registering booth with a bully good double.

The long swat sort of took the starch out of Groom's sails and he walked Mohler. Then Williams came up. The ladies in the grandstand "ahed!" audibly and a fair young fan in a brown suit of the Fluffy Ruffles type cried to him to hit. Nick complied with a two-bagger that flew out past Bassey. Both Henley, who ran for Hildebrand, and Mohler scored.

Never again did the Seals get to first, for Pinnance succeeded Groom in the ninth, after McCredie had batted for Groom in the eighth, and the Chippewa retired them by the three-man route. He was in grand form and sure had the sign on the Bay City band.

Portland did it this way: Groom hit the first ball pitched in the third canto for a single. Casey sacrificed him to second and he scored on singles by Ryan and Raftery. The Beavers made another in the seventh. Casey was walked, Ryan sacrificed him, went to third on Zeider's error and scored on a fielder's choice. The third run was made when Johnson drew a pass, went to second on Cooney's infield out and scored on McCredie's one bagger. The winning run came in the twelfth. Danzig singled, went to second on Johnson's pass after Bassey fanned. Cooney flied out to McArdle and then Tommy Madden came through with his timely single. The score:

SHAW EQUALS WORLD RECORD IN HURDLES

Philadelphia, May 30.—A. B. Shaw of Dartmouth equalled the world's record of 15 1-5 seconds in the 120-yard preliminary hurdle race in the intercollegiate games here yesterday. The record was made by A. C. Kranzlein of the University of Pennsylvania June 18, 1898, at Chicago. This also breaks the intercollegiate record of 15 2-5 held by Kranzlein. If the course comes up to requirements the record will be granted.

Gilbert, Dray and Nelson of Yale and Cook of Cornell broke the intercollegiate pole vaulting record of 11 feet 11¾ inches.

The finals will be held today.

WILLIAMS AVENUE HAS SPEEDY BUNCH

Team With Unbroken String of Victories Meets Chapman for Championship.

Nineteen games without a defeat is the proud record of the Williams Avenue school baseball team, leaders in the Grammar School league. The only rival this team has for the championship pennant is the Chapman school team, which has also an unbroken string of victories to its credit, but this team has not participated in nearly so many games, owing to the fact that the Chapman school has been quarantined for some time.

Arrangements are under way for a game between the Chapman and Williams Avenue teams to decide the championship. If the contest can be dated for a week from Monday it will take place on the Vaughn street grounds. This game will draw one of the largest crowds that has ever filled the stands at McCredie's little playgrounds as the teams have equal chances for the championship, and this being the deciding game each nine will strive to its utmost to win the coveted pennant.

Williams Avenue defeated the strong Arleta school team yesterday afternoon at Arleta in a close game by the score of 6 to 2. The feature of the game was the pitching of Arthur for the Williams Avenue lads. This young slabster struck out 17 men.

The batteries for the teams were as follows: Williams Avenue, Arthur and Haughey; Arleta, McCullough and Boone.

Oregon Beats Columbia.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, May 30—In one of the prettiest exhibitions of baseball on the local diamond this year the second 'varsity local team defeated the speedy Columbia University lads yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. Except for a few moments in the eighth inning both teams played gilt edged ball, but the Columbia team went to pieces then, allowing the 'varsity boys three runs. The first six innings were played without a score. There were few errors and both pitchers did good work.

The first team plays with Roseburg this afternoon. Hinkle will pitch and Erskine catch. Barring accidents the team will be in good shape Monday and should give Multnomah a hard game.

BEST GOLFERS WILL MEET IN PLAY TODAY

Voorhies Opposes Spooner for Men's Open Championship of Oregon.

Gordon Voorhies of the Waverly Golf club and C. R. Spooner of Seattle will play the men's open championship of Oregon on the Waverly links this afternoon, both having settled their opponent yesterday in the semi-final round.

Miss Louise Flanders, Mrs. W. B. Ayer and Mrs. Koehler remain in the women's championship singles, all having disposed of their opponents yesterday. Mrs. Gilbert was indisposed and forfeited to Miss Flanders while Mrs. Ayer beat Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Koekler beat Mrs. Dougherty.

The elimination play yesterday brings together as final opponents for the flight cup Chester G. Murphy and Mr. Lewis.

Spooner had a hard time beating Ernest Webb in their match. Webb had a good lead over the visitor, but one of his shots landed in the tall grass and he was badly handicapped.

The play today will finish the tournament, and there will be social festivities tonight to wind up the interesting event.

COLLEGE TEAMS VIE IN TAKING ALL POINTS

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., May 30.—In an unexciting field meet on the university campus yesterday afternoon Willamette won from Pacific college by 86 to 31. In a great many events one of the teams was able to take every place and the lack of competition prevented any good records from being made. The day was cold, besides. However, Cummings for Willamette won the 100-yard dash in 10-3.

In the first event, the 220-yard dash, Willamette took every place. In the high jump, the following event, the performance was repeated except that it was Pacific college that did the one-two-three stunt. In the half-mile run which came next it was Willamette's turn to score nine points by taking all three places. Then in the pole vault Pacific college reciprocated and the Quakers took the points. Several of the following events were more closely contested, but the meet was carried out in a listless manner.

PACIFIC ATHLETES AFTER M'MINNVILLE

Under Coaching of Hahn and Smithson 'Varsity Makes Great Progress.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 30.—The meet here today with McMinnville college promises to be the closest of the season. The winner of this meet will be the champion of the smaller colleges, as Pacific university has defeated Pacific college, and Willamette university has been defeated by both McMinnville college and Pacific. The comparison of the records of the two teams during the past season shows there will not be more than a difference of 10 points on Memorial day after every event has been run off.

The prettiest race of the day will be between Robinson of Pacific and McKee of McMinnville in the 120-yard hurdles. Both men have records of 16 4-5 seconds, which is unusually fast time, but Robinson has been improving rapidly under Smithson's coaching and hopes to cut at least 2-5 of a second off his record tomorrow. If he does, that will lower the present school record of 16 3-5 seconds, now held by A. C. Gilbert, the famous Yale pole vaulter.

Another exciting race will be the mile between Rice of McMinnville and Alexander Robinson of P. U., as both men have records of 4:45, but the Pacific runner is in better shape than he has been before this season and hopes to cover the distance in less time than before. Aller, last year's sprinter, will be in condition for the meet and T. Holmes, high hurdler, will also be in good form.

Forrest Smithson, world famous hurdler, has been assisting Hahn in the coaching during the past week and his work has been noticeable, especially with the hurdlers. Smithson will run an exhibition 120-yard hurdle race during the meet.

McMinnville college will bring a large number of rooters, accompanied by their college band, and the enthusiasm promises to run high. There is a friendly rivalry between the two schools. Last year Pacific defeated McMinnville in basketball and McMinnville defeated the home team on the track. This year McMinnville college has defeated P. U. in basketball, so the home team thinks it is up to it to defeat the Baptists in the track meet today.

SQUEEZE PLAYS.

Just 21 points off.

• •

Well, we got away with another 12-inning game and made three wins out of the first four games.

• •

Pearl Casey was only up six times but he got four free tickets and a sacrifice. He is credited with one time at bat.

• •

Cooney's eight chances accepted perfectly show the caliber of the little fellow as a fielder. With a little better sticking he would be the best shortstop in the league.

• •

Claude Berry did a vaudeville stunt yesterday that convulsed the fans. Claude is a good-natured, even-tempered chap, but when Umpire O'Connell called three strokes on him it was too much. He vented his spleen on his poor old cap, a la football.

• •

Bassey's two long running catches during the game were about the classiest bit of fielding ever seen at Vaughn street. The Marquis had to run far backward on each occasion and he arrived in the nick o' time.

• •

What fan will say now that McCredie was wrong when he went into the first game here to bat for Garrett? Mac has broken up two or three games since that opening day by hitting at the right time.

• •

Pat Donahue got his first chance with Boston yesterday, when he caught both games against Washington. It was like meeting old friends with Donny for Street caught both games for Charley in Washington. Eli Cates won the morning game for the Senators.

• •

The more you look at Ryan, the better you like him. He is without doubt the fastest left fielder in the league and one of the swellest hitters on the circuit. Ryan plays inside ball for all it's worth and he is extremely valuable in sacrificing.
