

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two)

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary Thursday. Many friends remembered the day and sent in flowers and presents. The evening number called informally and were charmingly received.

June 15 has been chosen as the date for the annual play to be given by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae for the Oregon scholarship fund. "Columba's Birthday" by Browning will be given, and the play will this year be at the Empire theatre.

Mrs. David H. Smith of 367 Schuyler street has returned after a two month visit with her mother in Denver. After Rose festival week, Mrs. Smith will be at home on Thursday.

Miss Sara D. Harker, teacher of music in Miss Harker's school, Palo Alto, California, is spending the month at 749 Gilliam street as guest of her grandmother, Mrs. De Witt.

There was a brilliant assemblage at the Hellig Friday evening for the opening of the John Drew engagement—one of the most imposing first-night gatherings of the year.

Mrs. Albert Feldenheimer entertained her winter club Wednesday at the last meeting of the year. Mrs. Adolphe Wolfe and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner were the prize winners.

Mrs. Van Winkle with her daughter, Miss Helen Van Winkle of San Francisco, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Gault.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

As a precursor of the Rose Festival the lovely home of Mrs. J. C. Hare, 274 Caruthers street, was thrown open Thursday afternoon for the first of a series of entertainments to about 65 guests. Mrs. L. B. Smith and Mrs. Hare as hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Appleby, Miss Rieman, Miss Johnson, and little Miss Gwendolyn Boszarth. The decorations in pink and green were beautiful. The veranda was screened and used with the parlors for playing five hundred. Friday afternoon Mrs. Hare and Mrs. Smith again entertained. Here and there on this occasion was darkened and the soft glow of the pink shaded candles lent to the beauty of the decorations. Here the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. F. A. Dooty and Mrs. C. M. Kiggins. Mrs. La Harre graciously served at the table. The evening was spent in playing games, and every guessing contest was enjoyed by those present. The following were Thursday's guests: Mrs. F. Abendroth, Mrs. George Flanders, Mrs. A. W. Anthony, Mrs. F. W. Graves, Mrs. H. Allen, Mrs. P. C. Graves, Mrs. D. A. Adams, Mrs. J. Hoffman, Mrs. O. C. Burns, Miss Hayseth, Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mrs. George Howell, Mrs. C. T. Brown, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. A. G. Broughton, Mrs. C. M. Kiggins, Miss Cornelia Barker, Mrs. V. F. Kelly, Miss Barbara Bronson, Miss Larabee, Mrs. D. Campbell, Miss Mabel Larabee, Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. Robert Lukke, Mrs. D. Corwin, Mrs. T. Mendonhall, Mrs. D. Corwin, Mrs. J. A. Moore, Mrs. DUBUY, Mrs. J. D. Mervin, Mrs. D. Davis, Mrs. G. McMan, Mrs. J. Dorn, Mrs. C. H. Bose, Mrs. Bert Dennison, Mrs. F. Palmer, Mrs. F. A. Dooty, Mrs. Nellie Perkins, Mrs. G. A. Patterson, Mrs. O. Robertson, Mrs. Rogers, Miss Rieman, Mrs. Charles Runyon, Mrs. Charles Kane, Mrs. James Page, Mrs. G. Silkmitter, Mrs. A. J. Stiles, Miss Spaulding, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Gerald Root, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mrs. A. C. Shute, Mrs. V. R. Smith, Mrs. G. Simpson, Mrs. G. Getty, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Harold Steiger, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. J. P. Tamiesse, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. John Seed and Mrs. J. M. Yates.

The following were Friday's guests: Mrs. George Feltner, Mrs. Conover, Mrs. J. C. La Barre, Mrs. F. J. Mann, Mrs. Luther Dyott, Mrs. Frederick Egert, Mrs. Charles Dodd, Mrs. Puffer, Mrs. A. Steiger, Mrs. J. Robertson, Mrs. Sarah Evans, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Allen J. Leas, Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. James Moffitt, Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. Rae, Mrs. J. A. Imbrie, Mrs. Muckley, Mrs. Gormley, Mrs. Ira Dodson, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. H. O. Reed, Mrs. A. B. Munley, Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, Mrs. D. W. Wakefield, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Albert Scott Dunaway, and Mr. Mary A. Thompson.

About 25 members of the Grace M. E. church male chorus met at the home of W. M. Wilder, their leader and director, Monday evening, May 25, and presented him with a handsome loving cup as a token of their appreciation of his training during the past two seasons.

This chorus sings at the Sunday evening service at Grace church, and has been heard on various occasions in other churches. The young men have been in demand for social events, and were selected by the Knights of Columbus in charge of the program for the charity ball given a short time ago to give several numbers.

After their appearance Sunday the chorus will disband until autumn, when practice will be resumed with increased number and new enthusiasm.

Mrs. Francis James Balley entertained the members of the Multnomah chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution with a musicale at the Hobart-Curtis Wednesday afternoon, one of the features of which was the playing of Miss Wilma Waggener, of Hillsboro. Other numbers on the program were sung by John Claire Monroth and Miss Sara Glance. Rev. Dr. Dyott, of the First Congregational church, addressed the women on the message and Missions of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Waggener has only recently returned from Germany, where for 10 months she has studied with Alberto Jonas in Berlin. Miss Waggener will move to Portland in the near future to make her home.

A pleasant surprise party was given last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Hennings at their residence, 539 Mississippi avenue. The evening was spent in music. After which light refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Zay, Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Liddell, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Kampe, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ehlers, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hennings, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lewis, Miss Anna Giesek, Miss Emma Gilbert, Miss Ida Hennings, Miss Lois Lewis, Taylor, Jack Kampe, Roy Hennings, Lawrence Ehlers and Jim White.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Mathison celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday night at their cozy home, 1365 East Salmon street. About 40 guests were present. The bridal couple was generously remembered by their many friends far and near. About half a dozen cabarets from the friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Mathison in Bergen, Norway, were read at the table.

Saturday evening a week ago a supper and farewell party was given Miss Jennie Osborne in honor of her birthday at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. J. Slevens, 401 Klickitat street. After refreshments the evening was spent in music, cards and dancing. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Tremblay, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Pratt of Salt Lake City, Mrs. C. Barnard, Miss Grace Finley, Miss Cassie Osborne, Mr. O. H. O'Brien, Miss Jennie Osborne and H. Schroeder. Miss Jennie Osborne left for Salt Lake City last evening.

A pleasant whist party was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss at their home, 46 East Sixteenth street north, last Monday evening. Prizes were won by Mr. Satterlee and Mr. and Mrs. M. Binford. At 2 1/2 hour refreshments were served. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batterlee, Mr. and Mrs. Maudie Binford, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Binford, Miss Munro, Miss Beas Munro, Miss Hazel Lee, Miss Marion Weiss, Mrs. L. T. Schell, Mrs. Otto Lane, Mrs. Shilda Stewart Weiss, Newton Morgan.

The Orlanda club closed a very successful season with a shirt waist party last Monday evening in the east side Woodmen hall. Stiles orchestra furnished the music and 170 couples were present. The club's next party will be given on Wednesday, May 29, in honor of September, in the same hall. The club members are E. C. C. Michelson, J. J. Healey, J. P. Hayman and S. D. Bonner. Sponsors are Mrs. E. Healy, Mrs. J. E. Kane and Mrs. D. A. Bonner.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of the Misses Ruth and Grace Elerath, Wednesday, May 29, in honor of Miss Estelle Ford, who leaves soon on a trip to Alaska with her father. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. E. C. Elerath, Ruth Elerath, Dan Foster, Elmer Leas, Mrs. Emma Sager and Leas, Mrs. Alfred Lomax and Mrs. Elerath.

The "Qui Vive" club met at the beautiful bungalow home of Mrs. C. M. Fraley, near Sunnyside, Thursday afternoon. After the business of the club was finished, a substantial refreshment was served. Mrs. Fraley was assisted by Mrs. Bert Fraley. Those present were: Mrs. H. O. Curtis, Mrs. V. H. Lyons, Mrs. H. C. Day, Mrs. D. H. Cameron, Mrs. W. Friberg, Mrs. C. M. Fraley, Mrs. Bert Fraley and Mrs. J. B. Olmsted.

The Kensington club was entertained by Mrs. J. P. Wager at her home, 610 Northrup street, Tuesday afternoon. Something of a novelty in music was provided in an acolian orchestral organ, which was decorated with a profusion of sweet briar. The hostess was assisted in receiving and serving by her niece, Mrs. Clyde Sager and Leas, and Mrs. O. B. Ballow. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. C. Petty.

The literature department of the Portnomah club held the last meeting before fall at the home of its chairman, Mrs. Thomas Greene in Piedmont, Wednesday. There was a large attendance and they enjoyed an afternoon with Mark Twain. Mrs. E. Sullivan read a biography of Mark Twain, a right called "The Dickens of America," and Mrs. Greene read humorous sketches.

Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief corps No. 19 and George Wright Women's Relief corps served luncheon Saturday to the old soldiers of the two posts. The lunch was enjoyed by all as they were very hungry after their long tramp to the cemetery to remember their absent ones with flowers.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Mae Kearns recently from San Francisco, at the home of her mother, 568 Gastenben avenue. The music was furnished by McElroy and McKim's orchestra and games and dancing were enjoyed. Supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Akin were delightfully surprised Tuesday by about 50 friends who came to spend the evening with them. They were mostly the official board and wives of Grace Methodist Episcopal church.

Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief corps No. 19 met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jeane, 185 North Sixteenth street, to sew a great deal of work completed and a good time was enjoyed by the 16 ladies present.

The following special program will be given Wednesday evening at St. Michael's church fair, Park and Alder streets, under the direction of Mme. d'Auria chorus, "The Daffodils"; "Flower Song"; Miss Margherita V. d'Auria; piano solo, Miss Carmel Sullivan; "Cloyer Blossoms"; Miss Susan Jones; "May Morning"; Miss Ellen Flood; "Good Night, Sweet Dreams"; Miss Lena Harwas; "The Mails of Cadiz"; Mme. d'Auria; chorus, "The Awakening of Morn."

The Ohio society of Oregon will hold its last meeting of the season at Ailsky hall, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Owing to the fact that one of the principal parades of the Rose Festival will take place earlier in the evening, an address will be made, but a social and refreshment hour will follow a musical program. All former residents of Ohio are cordially invited to be present.

Astra Circle, Women of Woodcraft, will close a successful social season with a waist party Thursday. On this occasion, the guards of the circle will have charge and it is expected that many friends of the circle will be present.

The Jolly Cove club of the U. S. Cruiser Charleston will upon its arrival here give a grand ball at Army hall, Tuesday, June 2. This will be strictly invitational.

The Y. W. C. A. girls are planning special entertainment for Miss Abby McElroy, former secretary, during her visit in Oregon in June.

A pretty wedding took place at the Calvary Baptist church Wednesday, when Miss Vesta Evelyn Bell was united in marriage to Orville Ray Hollingsworth by the Rev. L. N. Monroe. Before the ceremony Miss Grace Winter sang "O Promise Me." At 2:30, to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Mabelle Jones, the ushers and maid of honor preceded the bride, who entered with her uncle, W. E. Spica, to the altar. The bride wore a white tulle gown, laced and trimmed in Valenciennes lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Ruth Bell, youngest sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore white and carried a bouquet of Bride-maid roses. The groom was attended by his youngest brother, Joseph Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth will be at home to their friends after June 1 at 572 Leo avenue, Sellwood.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marquard, 206 Russell street, Herman Londershausen was married last Wednesday evening to Miss Matilda Marquard, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marquard. The bridal party stood under an arch of Oregon grapes and flowers while the ring ceremony was read by Rev. J. Allen Leas of St. James' Lutheran church. The bride was handsomely gowned in a pretty creation of crepe de chine trimmed with chiffon, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The guests were only the immediate relatives and friends. Elaborate refreshments were served and the guests were entertained with music until a late hour.

A pretty wedding of the past week was that of Laura E. Day to J. Thomas Leonard, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Day, 1127 Francis avenue. Rev. G. B. Van Waters officiated. The house had been effectively decorated with flowers and evergreens. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Day, and H. P. Davidson was best man. After the ceremony the wedding dinner was served. Those present besides the immediate relatives were, Mrs. Albert Lacey, Miss Irene Lacey, Roy Lacey, Miss E. C. Lacey, Mrs. Mail, Miss Leah Mize, Rose Mize, H. P. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. John Makepeace.

Alfred Morris is spending Sunday with his sister, Mrs. C. C. Maston of St. Helena.

Miss Emma Flemming visited in St. Helena last week, the guest of Mrs. W. Day.

Mr. O. Hages of the Norwegian Lutheran church officiated. Wednesday they left on a honeymoon trip to Europe. First they will visit the bridegroom's parents at Bergen, Norway, and then they go to the bride's home near Mariehamn, Finland. They will be away about three months, after which they will return to Portland to live.

At the home of Mrs. Marie Morel, near Goble, her daughter, Louise, was married to Frederic Anliker on Thursday, May 29, at Portland. Postmaster officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Anliker will make their home at Goble, where both have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Katsner of San Jose announce the marriage of their niece, Miss M. Lanford, to O. T. Holt of Portland, Oregon. They will be away about twenty-four hours, north after July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Steinger announce the engagement of their daughter Verona Belle of this city to Thomas Fay Bradshaw of Spokane. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haas announce the engagement of their daughter, Lottie Juanita, to Edward Joseph Warnock. The wedding will take place June 6.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret J. Gillen and George B. James, which will be celebrated Wednesday at the First Unitarian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Baug who were married in this city last Wednesday evening have left for Europe on a wedding tour. Mrs. Baug was Miss Hilma Matson of this city. They expect to be absent three months, during which time they will visit relatives and friends in Sweden and Norway. Among those who spent a few days in Seattle last week, to view the fleet, were Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Anderson. They were given a series of entertainments, luncheons, and dinners. Mr. Anderson's uncle is one of Seattle's prominent lawyers and entertained extensively for them during their stay.

Miss Beaulieu Harlow of Bremerton, Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearnly of East Morrison street.

After an extended eastern trip visiting many of the larger cities, Mrs. Alice M. Wright has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blavin of Spokane is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Davies of 922 Savier street.

Mr. O. Hages of the Norwegian Lutheran church officiated. Wednesday they left on a honeymoon trip to Europe. First they will visit the bridegroom's parents at Bergen, Norway, and then they go to the bride's home near Mariehamn, Finland. They will be away about three months, after which they will return to Portland to live.

At the home of Mrs. Marie Morel, near Goble, her daughter, Louise, was married to Frederic Anliker on Thursday, May 29, at Portland. Postmaster officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Anliker will make their home at Goble, where both have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Katsner of San Jose announce the marriage of their niece, Miss M. Lanford, to O. T. Holt of Portland, Oregon. They will be away about twenty-four hours, north after July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Steinger announce the engagement of their daughter Verona Belle of this city to Thomas Fay Bradshaw of Spokane. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haas announce the engagement of their daughter, Lottie Juanita, to Edward Joseph Warnock. The wedding will take place June 6.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret J. Gillen and George B. James, which will be celebrated Wednesday at the First Unitarian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Baug who were married in this city last Wednesday evening have left for Europe on a wedding tour. Mrs. Baug was Miss Hilma Matson of this city. They expect to be absent three months, during which time they will visit relatives and friends in Sweden and Norway. Among those who spent a few days in Seattle last week, to view the fleet, were Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Anderson. They were given a series of entertainments, luncheons, and dinners. Mr. Anderson's uncle is one of Seattle's prominent lawyers and entertained extensively for them during their stay.

Miss Beaulieu Harlow of Bremerton, Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearnly of East Morrison street.

After an extended eastern trip visiting many of the larger cities, Mrs. Alice M. Wright has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blavin of Spokane is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Davies of 922 Savier street.

Mr. O. Hages of the Norwegian Lutheran church officiated. Wednesday they left on a honeymoon trip to Europe. First they will visit the bridegroom's parents at Bergen, Norway, and then they go to the bride's home near Mariehamn, Finland. They will be away about three months, after which they will return to Portland to live.

At the home of Mrs. Marie Morel, near Goble, her daughter, Louise, was married to Frederic Anliker on Thursday, May 29, at Portland. Postmaster officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Anliker will make their home at Goble, where both have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Katsner of San Jose announce the marriage of their niece, Miss M. Lanford, to O. T. Holt of Portland, Oregon. They will be away about twenty-four hours, north after July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Steinger announce the engagement of their daughter Verona Belle of this city to Thomas Fay Bradshaw of Spokane. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haas announce the engagement of their daughter, Lottie Juanita, to Edward Joseph Warnock. The wedding will take place June 6.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret J. Gillen and George B. James, which will be celebrated Wednesday at the First Unitarian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Baug who were married in this city last Wednesday evening have left for Europe on a wedding tour. Mrs. Baug was Miss Hilma Matson of this city. They expect to be absent three months, during which time they will visit relatives and friends in Sweden and Norway. Among those who spent a few days in Seattle last week, to view the fleet, were Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Anderson. They were given a series of entertainments, luncheons, and dinners. Mr. Anderson's uncle is one of Seattle's prominent lawyers and entertained extensively for them during their stay.

Miss Beaulieu Harlow of Bremerton, Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearnly of East Morrison street.

After an extended eastern trip visiting many of the larger cities, Mrs. Alice M. Wright has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blavin of Spokane is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Davies of 922 Savier street.

Mr. O. Hages of the Norwegian Lutheran church officiated. Wednesday they left on a honeymoon trip to Europe. First they will visit the bridegroom's parents at Bergen, Norway, and then they go to the bride's home near Mariehamn, Finland. They will be away about three months, after which they will return to Portland to live.

At the home of Mrs. Marie Morel, near Goble, her daughter, Louise, was married to Frederic Anliker on Thursday, May 29, at Portland. Postmaster officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Anliker will make their home at Goble, where both have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Katsner of San Jose announce the marriage of their niece, Miss M. Lanford, to O. T. Holt of Portland, Oregon. They will be away about twenty-four hours, north after July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Steinger announce the engagement of their daughter Verona Belle of this city to Thomas Fay Bradshaw of Spokane. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haas announce the engagement of their daughter, Lottie Juanita, to Edward Joseph Warnock. The wedding will take place June 6.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret J. Gillen and George B. James, which will be celebrated Wednesday at the First Unitarian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Baug who were married in this city last Wednesday evening have left for Europe on a wedding tour. Mrs. Baug was Miss Hilma Matson of this city. They expect to be absent three months, during which time they will visit relatives and friends in Sweden and Norway. Among those who spent a few days in Seattle last week, to view the fleet, were Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Anderson. They were given a series of entertainments, luncheons, and dinners. Mr. Anderson's uncle is one of Seattle's prominent lawyers and entertained extensively for them during their stay.

Miss Beaulieu Harlow of Bremerton, Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearnly of East Morrison street.

After an extended eastern trip visiting many of the larger cities, Mrs. Alice M. Wright has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blavin of Spokane is the guest of Mrs. W. W. Davies of 922 Savier street.

Monday Night
And Highly During the Rose Festival.

The Fireworks King's Spectacular Masterpiece
Multnomah Athletic Field
20th and Washington.

VESUVIUS
AND CARNIVAL OF NAPLES
Acres of Realistic Scenery.
250 Performers—Gigantic Stage
Six Big Circus Acts.

TERRIFIC EARTHQUAKES
And Destruction of City
AND EACH NIGHT PAINTS
$1500.00 Fireworks

Popular prices. Seats for 6,000.
Advance sale now open, at N. E. corner Sixth and Alder sts.

SPECIAL
Jean Wietzman
The Most Intrepid High-Wire Walker of the world, Arrives Today, Direct From New York, and Will Appear in His Thrilling Act

MONDAY NIGHT
Who? What?
Allen Curtis
Arthur Clamage
Albert Leonard
Herbert Lindley
Marguerite La Porte
Winifred Green
Jack Davidson
and the Curtis Dancing Girls

EVERY NIGHT THIS WEEK
ON THE TRAIL: "She," Baby Incubator, "The Tickler," Scenic Mill, Matinee Skating, Figure Eight, the double-riding Chutes, Hi-Ki and the Zulus, Snake Show, Centodion. Dancing on resurfaced floor.

"15 MINUTES FROM ALDER STREET"

LYRIC THEATRE
Week Commencing Monday, June 1st
OPENING OF THE ENGAGEMENT OF THE PEARLES
BLUNKALL-ATWOOD STOCK COMPANY
In the Thrilling Present-Day Drama
"THE BUSHRANGER"

ELABORATE PRODUCTION AND FLAWLESS PERFORMANCE
Blunkall-Atwood Company Comes Direct From a Run of 3,113 Performances in St. Louis.
Matinees Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. Prices 10c and 20c. Every evening at 8:30. Prices 10c, 20c and 30c.

Next week, the Blunkall-Atwood Company in "HELD BY THE ENEMY"

NICKELODION
PIONEER MOVING PICTURE PARLOR
Strictly Refined Entertainment
FOR
Ladies, Gentlemen and Children

OPEN FROM 9 A. M. TO 11 P. M.
DURING THE ROSE CARNIVAL
ANY SEAT . . . 5c

130 SIXTH ST., bet. Alder & Washington

THE STAR
Telephones
Old M. 5496
New A. 1496

TWO SHOWS EVERY EVENING—First at 7:30, second at 9:15 p. m.
Week Beginning Monday Afternoon, June 1, '08
BATTLING NELSON
Will appear at each performance and spar three rounds with his sparring partner, in connection with the ARMSTRONG MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY. This will be the last and only chance to see BATTLING NELSON before his 45-round fight with Joe Gans at Colma, July 4.

Week Beginning Sunday Matinee, May 31, 1908
THE ARMSTRONG MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY offer
A TRIP TO CONEY ISLAND
A PERFECT RIOT OF MERRIMENT!

NEW SCENERY—NEW WARDROBES
NEW MUSICAL NUMBERS—PRETTY GIRLS
NEW AND NOVEL ELECTRICAL EFFECTS
Rivers and Rochester
HIGH-CLASS AUSTRALIAN SINGING NOVELTY
JUST THINK OF IT!
MATINEE PRICES ONLY 15¢ to all seats except boxes
Evening, Sunday and Holiday Matinee Prices—Lower Floor
25¢, Balcony 15¢

MARQUAM GRAND
WEEK OF JUNE 1 BEST IN VAUDEVILLE
PORTLAND'S LEADING THEATRE. J. A. JOHNSON, Resident Mgr.

PANTAGES ATTRACTIONS
Week Ending Sunday: Hardeen the Handcuff Wizard; Suro Trio; Barnes and West; Blondie Robinson; Chick, Piper, Gray and Company; Jean Wilson; the Biograph.
For the New Week, Commencing Monday
A DOUBLE FEATURE
GOTHAM COMEDY FOUR
The Best in Their Line
AND
THE JUGGLING VANNANS
SWIFT AND FURIOUS.

THE YALTO DUO—Whirlwind Dancers in "The Soul Kiss."
CRAWFORD BROTHERS—Big City Comedians.
JEAN WILSON—Illustrated Songs.
DEL-A-PHONE—Imitator and Mimic.
BERT LEBRON—Character Change Artist.
THE BIOGRAPHE—New Comedy Film.
PANTAGES ORCHESTRA—Direction H. K. Evenson.

Afternoons at 2:30 o'clock. Nights 7:30 and 9:00. Prices: Lower floor and first six rows of first balcony, 50c. Balance of upstairs, 15c. Boxes, 50c. Any seat at weekday matinees, FIFTEEN CENTS.

THE GRAND
VAUDEVILLE DE LUX.
Week Beginning
MONDAY, JUNE 1st
The Strongest Vaudeville Programme
EVER OFFERED PORTLAND
THEATRE-GOERS.

Headed by
The Most Sensational Act in the World.

13 PEKIN ZOUAVES
IN SENSATIONAL DRILLS AND MARCHES, STAGED IN SPECTACULAR SPECTACLE.
The act has featured all the larger vaudeville circuits throughout America and Europe.
DON'T MISS THEM.

SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTION,
THE ONLY
GEORGE WILSON
"The Original Minstrel Man."

American Newsboys' Four
"In Recollection of Boyhood Days."
Highest Salaried Quartet in Vaudeville.

Musical Lowe
World's Renowned Xylophone Soloist.
Two seasons with Sousa's Band.

Nellie Revell
"The Girl Who Says Things."

Fred G. Bauer
Portland's Popular Balladist.
"ROSES BEING SWORN DELIVER OF YOU."

F. F. Montressa
That I. A. T. S. E. Man "ON TIME" Exhibiting the Latest Thing in Animated Pictures.