The Woman Who Finds a Stout Figure an Obstacle

To Obtaining Correct Lines of Style Should Wear the W. B. Reduso

The W. B. Reduso Corset corrects a tendency to undue stoutness in a perfectly natural manner, without recourse to awkward strips or harness-like paraphernalia. It is shaped right and reinforced to give the requisite degree of strength.

In the first place, the abdomen is held in and the chest up, to encourage deep breathing. Fatty tissues, receiving a continuous gentle pressure, harden to muscular fiber and disappear, so that from a hygienic point of view—regardless of the aid to style and grace—the Reduso Corset is to be recommended.

There is no other corset on the market that fulfills its purpose so well as the Reduso. Modistes are enthusiastic in its praises and our customers are largely recruited from those who, having had difficulty securing a stylishly fitting gown, have been advised by their modiste to try the W. B. Reduso. It gives to the hips the necessary long tapering lines and lessens the waist measurement several inches. Not being of complicated construction, the price is reasonable, $3.50.
